FELLOW KIWANIAN: For this week's program a County seat
----- newspaper beats us to it, as follows:
"Healdsburg, Oct. 4 - Measures to be voted on at the general election will be discussed by Senator Slater at the weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis club Tuesday. Dr. J. Walter Seawell will be the chairman".

Checking this up with the "Doc" we find a perfect balance. Or, more to the point, what is Walt's prescription to be taken by 40 of us between 1 and 1-30 to day.

GARRETT AND GOLTON: This pair did good team work for our ----- club Tuesday last. Al had on hand an intellectual audience, and Lou had a speech worth while. Principals, vice-principals, teachers and trustees, - all in one grand assemblage, seventy five or more. Principal Lou Golton of Sonoma city gave us one of the best addresses to which we have listened in a long time.

NAPA DIVISION MEETING? ETC: We will want to hear something ----- of the big event at Napa from the boys who went over. In the afternoon, who made a hole in less than one? How did President Jim behave? And what constructive work was accomplished at the evening session?

Perhaps Bill Rumbold may have another poem on tap. Possibly, too, he may have on display that new tooth whose tale was told when last we met.

OAKLAND DISTRICT CONVENTION NOVEMBER 13, 14, 15.

IO - I4 - 30

FELLOW KIWANIAN: What do you think of a chairman whose ----- only reply to "That is your program for to day"? Is, "Tell the boys anything you want".

That's Fred Miller, theatrical prexy, peerless personality, and preeminent punster of our Healdsburg Kiwanis club. So, Fellow Member, bring along your curiosity, and be prepared to look and hear, listen and see. It may be that Fred will be the whole show- all togged up in those loud "plus fours", or, if it be a rainy day, in that tropical linen suit, whatever the garb, rest assured that Fred will look the part. Then again, this enterprising man of the stage may have his screen on hand, synchronizer and all, and put on for us the highly touted newest "talkie", Check and Double Check.

Except to say that Senator Herb Slater gave us a good analysis of the proposed amendments last week, this letter is to be devoted exclusively to Fred. He's the kind you read about. Just sits at the end of the long table, puffs a cigar nearly as long, and eggs on those boisterous nonsense makers about him.

No wonder no other theater came to town. When the other fellows all but laid the cornerstone, they discovered that this man Fred was on the ground floor, and they were floored to the ground. Responsive, evasive; gentile and contrawise; noisy and reticent; man-about-town, this paradoxical personage is none the less a humdinger of citizen and Kiwanian.

And so, Fellow Member, if this has the expected appeal, just come and take a chance with Fred Miller at the speaker's table.

"Tell the boys anything you want". We have done it.

IO - 21 - 30

FELLOW KIWANIAN :

Firstly, let us extend a hearty welcome to our brand new member, Byron Gibbs. Again our ranks are filled to forty. Attendance continues in the 90 column, and all is well in Healdsburg Kiwanis. One thought, however in line of improvement. Let's hurry up the preliminary "bouts", and give more time for the main event, the regular program for the day.

ONE WEEK AGO:

Fred Miller and his troupe put on a good show. The Bryan family interspersed vocal music with humor, and Mrs. Mc Glinn in Daylight Saving came in for hearty applause. The clock hands moved only too fast, and a little more Noonlight Saving would have given the actors occasion for even a better entertainment.

G. ASHLEY BROWN:

He is of the State department of Agriculture. Horticultural scientist, entomologist, 'n lots 'o things, will take the floor to day for our better understanding of our own business. Will he smoothen out the lowly market of our wrinkled prune? Or will he talk on "Bugs" which "have other bugs to bite 'em"? In either case you are cordially invited to be on hand. Come too, and observe Allen Gobbi as Chairman of the Day. Al. is bugs on all that pertains to horticulture. Hence this speaker this day.

BRING A GUEST:

Each member is to invite a man of the soil. So this will be Farmer's Day. Dont fail to ring your agricultural friend at once that we may match man for man.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE:

Gentlemen, are you on the job? Better be prepared with that list of candidates, for you constitute the primaries of Healdsburg Kiwanis. Use "jurisprudence" in your nominations lest the "writeins" may win out.

10 - 28 - 30

FELLOW KIWANIAN: Come to the "polls" to day, for Kiwanis election is at hand on this October 28th.

One week hence and another set of officers will be selected, ranging all the way from the exalted position of Governor of all California to a slightly lesser one for our own Healdsburg Township. And may the best men win. Shall we not again "get out the votes"?

FARMERS DAY: An excellent representation, fruit growers, ball
----- ball players, et cetera, filled the tables to the last seat. Red spider, - its history, habits, murderous attacks and deserved execution were all interestingly portrayed by Mr. G. Ashley Brown. The farmers are the B.P.O.E. (Best People On Earth), and they are entitled to careful consideration at all times by our Club. That was a beautiful trophy received by our Kiwanis ball team. The boys have brought renown to us, and Finley Frisch, donor, is hereby given a vote of thanks.

TO DAY: Through the good offices of Brig. White, Chairman for ----- the day, comes Dr. Herbert R. Stolz, Director of Child Welfare Institute, University of California. Weeks ago the "Brig" had signed up this outstanding man. His discourse will be in line with a new thought pertaining to child welfare. Dr. Stolz will prove to be one of our "big" guns" of the season.

OCTOBER 13-15: What does it mean? It means that each and every ----- Healdsburg Kiwanian should plan to present himself, even for an hour, at the District Convention in Oakland. Wanted: No alibis; none too busy; none to play hockey at this great school of education, ~~entertainment~~ and Kiwanis recreation. And a good time will be had by all.

Secretary.
