The club set a record for long-distance inter-club meetings last week by five of our members holding an inter-club with the Whittier Kiwanis.

The next inter-club will be Wednesday, Oct. 2 at the new Santa Rosa breakfast club at the Santa Rosa Hotel. Our club will be responsible for the program with Ed Langhart being the featured speaker on a bit of Healdsburg history.

Our officialdom, back from the convention, promise us a short, with emphasis on the latter, report at today's meeting.

Rio Lindo Academy brought us a fine program last week. Our thanks to them and to Bob Malone for chairing the program and to Merle Smith for arranging for the program.

Today's program will feature Jack McGregor, vice president of the California Research Corporation. He will be introduced by Lee Silveria and Ernie Biasotti is slated to be the chairman of the day.

The Board of Directors will meet tonight, Tuesday, at 7:30 for those who have business or want the opportunity to make up a meeting.

Plans for the 40th anniversary charter night are maturing for a November date under the experienced and watchful eye of Russ Stevens.

Oct. 12 is the date set for the big Pancake Breakfast and General Chairman By Gibbs is drawing a fine bead on all details. Everyone can get into the act on the appointed day, and meantime, be pushing those tickets!

We bid welcome to new member Norman E. Brown, who has retired as a Lt. Colonel and now has assumed duties on the Merle Smith Gas Company staff. He was born in Kentucky and at present makes his home in Sebastopol. Welcome, Norm.

We are indebted to Jack McGregor and to Ernie B. for the very informative program last week. Today Ed Langhart will master-mind the program and will present the representative to Boys' State and the representative to Girls' State.

Seven members were up and on hand for the meeting of the new Redwood Empire Kiwanis Club at Santa Rosa Wednesday morning. Ed Langhart was the featured speaker.

Our club can now receive the recognition award to be displayed on the banner for five new members this year. We are sorry to lose Dick Holtzen who resigned because of conflict with work on the noon schedule. We are happy to learn Bud Knutson is a new member of the Greater Chico Club. Membership Chairman Merle reminds us we have room and work for more qualified members.

Save November 2 for a great K night at the Villa Chantecler. The night will be devoted to the 40th anniversary observance celebration for the club and for the installation of immediate past-president Tom Beahm as Lt. Governor. It will be ladies night, too!

IT IS SATURDAY, OCT. 12, FOR THE ANNUAL KIWANIS PANCAKE FEED

PUSH YOUR TICKETS - Let's make our budget in one BIG PUSH!

Those sports enthusiasts left flat or limp from the World Series will be interested to know that the Pennies for Olympics project will be revived for 1964.

In observance of Wine Week our speaker this Tuesday will be Edmund A. Rossi, with our own little ol' Winemaker Bill, to make the introductions.

We enjoyed the fine presentations last week made by Pat Martin and Anne Carriger as they described their experiences at Boys' State and Girls' State, respectively. Ed Langhart made the introductions.

Aunt Jemima Buttons are certainly due the gang of Kiwanians who turned out Saturday morning to chef and serve those delicious pancakes to the several hundred guests who brought their appetites to St. Anne's Hall. Our thanks too, to Al Madsen and the rest at the Tribune for the fine publicity covering the event.

Generalismo By Gibbs sends along a great big and mighty T H A N K S for a job well done - - and most important, the youth of our city will have occasion to say, "thanks" also.

All pointers are now turned to the night of Saturday, Nov. 2, at the Villa Chantecler for the 40th anniversary observance and for the installation of Lt. Gov. Tom Beahm. The night will be memorable, the food great, and you can't do better than to make a date with the little lady and make it a 100% turnout K night.

Matters of Faith: Selected by the Support of Churches Committee

"Religion is not a coat, to be put on or taken off at our convenience. It is the most essential facet of life and the focal point of our very being."

"Religion gives a meaning and purpose to life shows the path to follow and helps me follow these guideposts through life."

The importance of Healdsburg and Sonoma County to the wine industry, was pin-pointed by Jack Wilen, genial director of the hospitality center at the Italian Swiss Colony at Asti. Thanks to Jack and Bill for the most interesting program.

::: Bob Allen will be program chairman this week and will bring Fred Dickson, warden of San Quentin as the speaker.

:::: Congratulations and welcome to Calvin J. McKinnay - our newest member. We are indeed honored to have such a staunch citizen as a member of K. He was sponsored by Walt Davis.

::::: An interclub was held Tuesday night with the Sonoma Club with Chairman Ken Gonsalves, Tom Beahm, Fran Branern, President Bud making the trip along with "Cyclone" Vassar from the Geyserville Club. Lt. Governor Tom is going to Fort Bragg Tuesday and extends an open invitation to anyone in the club to accompany him for the noon meeting.

:::: CONGRATULATIONS to Arnold Santucci who has been appointed to the chair on the Board of Directors Left vacant by Bud Knutson.

::: Do you have your tickets for the big 40th anniversary party and for the installation of Tom Beahm as our next lieutenant governor on Nov. 2nd? An ear to the ground says some members haven't yet invited their wives. Get tickets today, so one of those special announcements won't be needed to send to your wife. It will be a real night out - prime rib dinner, Hawaiian Band and Villa Chantecler.

"Great ideas come into the world as gently
as doves."

Published Weekly by the Kiwanis Club of Healdsburg, Calif.

October 29, 1963

There will be no luncheon, Tues. Oct. 29 - you get credit for that meeting Saturday night. There will be a round table at the usual place at the regular time.

Our thanks to Warden Fred R. Dickson of San Quentin for the very informative program last week. It is good to know the amount of education and diplomas given at the institution. Our thanks, too, for the special edition of The San Quentin News. Our appreciation to Bob Allen for bringing us the program.

WHAT: 40th Anniversary Celebration and Installation of our own Tom Beahm as the next Lt. Gov.

WHEN: Saturday, Nov. 2 - 7 - 8 pm
Social Hour
Dinner - 8:15 p.m.

WHERE: Villa Chantecler

WHY: Russ Stevens and his Committee offer nothing but the very best ---PLUS a prime rib dinner.

and: It isn't too late if you don't have your reservation -- call President Bud or one of the committee.

Our congratulations to Jerry Hodges who was presented with two pockets full of his share of the $145,000 prize money from the last K state tournament last Tuesday by Chairman Ken Gonsalves.

::: Happiness never lays its finger on its pulse. -Alexander Smith
