Board of Directors
Healdsburg Kiwanis Club

Gentlemen:

Some time ago the Support of Churches Committee decided to have a "Youth of the Month" selected by a clergyman of each denomination to be a guest of Kiwanis for luncheon and to receive recognition as an outstanding young churchman.

It was proposed that the selection be rotated among the denominations so that we would have one youth coming each month.

We wish to petition for approval of the project and to learn if the cost of the luncheon is a proper charge to the committee's budget, or will it be underwritten by the chairman and members of the committee? We should also like to have a policy on the pastor's lunch, should he be invited to accompany the selectee, and if the pastor is not a member of Kiwanis.

Your consideration will be appreciated.

Very sincerely,

Support of Churches Committee

L. E. Duncan

TODAY'S PROGRAM -

Larry Carson Will be the Kiwanian of the day and will present X-Prexy Bud C. who will discuss education in far away places as observed first hand.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM -

Get ready for the Safari, it will be coming our way tiger-fast from Dr. Ted Stashak. Ken Gonsalves will be the program chairman for this bit of real outdoor adventure.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM demonstrated again the ability of the younger generation to succeed when there are worthwhile goals and objectives. The achievements of these young 4-H'ers are real exciting. Thanks, Ted for bringing us the program, and for giving the young folks the opportunity to be our program, and our thanks to them for coming, and congratulations.

Along the K.Trail: Along with the committee for the Hole-in-One contest, our hearty thanks to the Key Club for a job well done. From the Board of Directors we learn there will be a discussion today on the proposition of remaining at St. Paul's hall or moving to another location. On the following Tuesday a vote will be taken. Make sure you vote "no" on yes or "yes" on no, depending on your party affiliation. Remember the Redwood Empire Club will observe their charter night on October 21st. Be sure and have an extra good ear-wax cleaning job done in order to appreciate the ultra in musical enjoyment when Julian, Bob A and Walt W. flip the button for this musical interlude we have been promised.

SPIRITUAL QUOTATION: "WHOSOEVER OF YOU WILL BE GREAT AMONG YOU, SHALL BE YOUR MINISTER; AND WHOSEVER OF YOU WILL BE THE CHIEFEST, SHALL BE THE SERVANT OF ALL."

PORTRAIT OF A NEW MEMBER

Raymond C. (Ray) Blatt was cast for Kiwanis long before we saw him--he likes to get things done! He has already completed one career (retired Lt. Col., U.S. Army) and is head-long into a second career at Sonoma State College. He began life at Douglas, Arizona and in due time was wedded to Barbara Rubel in a June ceremony. Two handsome teen-agers keep life interesting around their home on Wallace Creek. Michael is 18 and Steven is 16.

Ray likes to golf and will assist in Kiwanis on our education and fellowship committee, public and business affairs, and any other projects that need his helping hand. CONGRATULATIONS and

TODAY'S PROGRAM ---

Ken Gonsalves will be the Kiwanian of the day and has teamed up with Dr. Theodore S. (Ted) Stashak to guide us through a Safari. Bring your own mosquito nets and sun helmets.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM ---

Our October 27th program is in the capable hands of the one and only Russ Stevens. Russ has been working on this program for sometime and it promises to be a topnotch one.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM took us hand-in-glove through Russia on the commentary and slides of Bud Christensen. Our thanks to Larry Carson, chairman, and Bud for a truly interesting program.

Along the K Trail—Our congratulations to Tom B and Van for the checks they pocketed Tuesday from the state bowling tournament. The "Youth of the Month" from his congregation will be presented today by Rev. Chuck Hancock. This is a new program sponsored by the support of Churches committee.

TODAY'S PROGRAM --

"The Future of the Tall Trees" will be the topic today and will be handled by Marry A. Merlo, vice president of Rockport Redwood Company. He is also president of the California Redwood Association Inspection service. One of our more successful local entrepreneurs, we can depend on him for a first-class program. Russ Stevens will be the Kiwanian of the day.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM --

For our election day program, one of our newer members, Rev. Paul A. will handle the proceedings.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM literally gave us a "d.i.n" view of an African Safaria and its related aspects. There were outstanding interest and action shots and Dr. Ted Stashak was outstanding on his commentary. Our thanks to Ken G. and Dr. Ted for bringing us the highlights of this African adventure.

Along the K Trail - Everyone should have their sample ballots by now--this will give you time to do your homework on the many propositions--and then vote!

SPIRITUAL QUOTATION --

"Precepts of virtue are useless unless they can be built into life ... The essence of character building lies in action. .. The habit of finding out the best thing to do next, and then doing it is the basis of character .. Wisdom .. is knowing what is best to do next. Virtue is doing it."

ACTIVITIES (Use Activities list for aid in correctly recording types of work done. Use separate sheet if more space is needed for major activity of the month).

Boys and Girls Work One meeting-5 members present. This committee held a scout drive breakfast which had an attendance of over 65 persons. A guest speaker was Congressman Don Clausen. This committee continues to have work accomplished at Camp Rosenberg.

Circle K and Key Clubs One meeting-5 members present. The Key Club submitted its yearly budget which includes a number of worthwhile projects. A number of the Key Club officers attended a regional conference in Oakland. Key Club members have ordered jackets which they will wear on the days of their meetings and the entire club will hold a luncheon meeting with Kiwanis Club on November 10. This meeting will include the installation of the Key Club officers.

Vocational Guidance One meeting-3 members present. This committee had a report on some of its activities listed in a school publication for the county titled "Focus." This magazine mentioned several of the projects in youth employment which are being sponsored by our club.

Agriculture and Conservation One meeting-3 members present. This committee met at the close of the regular Tuesday club of October 27, 1964. Members reported numbers and variety of trees requested by community organizations for planting in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of Kiwanis International. These requests now total almost 50 trees. The committee planned to have a tree-planting ceremony in December. The committee sponsored a 4-H program.

International Relations One meeting-3 members present. This committee was responsible for two outstanding programs this month; One involving a tour of Russia, and the other a safari in Africa.

Public and Business Affairs One meeting-3 members present. This committee arranged a program this month entitled "Future of the Tall Trees" which gave our membership a great deal of insight on the problem of public versus private control of lands.

Support of Churches In Their Spiritual Aims One meeting-3 members present. During the month of October a youth of the month-church-was the guest of our club. This boy was Dick Metheny. A short resume was given by Kiwanis member on this young man's fine community-church activities.

Kiwanis Education, Fellowship, and Inter-Club Relations One meeting-2 members present. The board reviewed Kiwanis Education and Fellowship — and accepted several excellent candidates for membership and they will be inducted into the club in the near future. This committee has worked out a number of excellent initiation functions which make the new member well aware of their Kiwanis responsibilities.

Inter-Club Relations —

In reporting — indicate date, place, number of clubs represented, total number present, and number of your club members attending. Describe any special features.

One meeting-3 members present. Our club was visited by a Santa Rosa club and a very fine inter-club was held this month at Healdsburg.

Activities Not Otherwise Reported
