THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM -

Frank Bryan, who for 35 years was a lock master on the Panama Canal, will discuss the Panamanian Indians based on his first-hand knowledge. Jim Steele will be the Kiwanian-of-the-day for the first October meeting.

CONGRATULATIONS

to Bruce Wesner, our Youth-of-the-Month selection for September, for his outstanding work as a student, a boy mechanic, a fledgling pilot, and most of all, his steadfast service at the church of his choice. He is a senior at Rio Linda Academy where his main interest is in chemistry and biology. He is active in sports and last summer hiked the Trinity Alps and Marble Mountains. He will soon be ready for his pilot's license. In addition to his other activities, he works as a mechanic at his father's used car lot. He is described by his minister as dependable to the 'nth degree!

ALONG THE K T-R-A-I-L: . . . Now how about that home-made ice cream at lunch last Tuesday! We had thought that product and those days were gone forever! It was plain to see that Frank and Ed were experienced at licking the paddle! . . . Oct. 13th has been set for the date of the Lt. Gov's caucus at Ken's home, where the delegates will consider the office of lieutenant governor-elect. . . . Our speaker left us plenty of tips on how to play the market but failed to leave any money to actually try it out. . . . Be sure to check your schedule for the Hole-in-One Contest, a copy of the schedule is attached.

SPECIAL NOTICE

The Board of Directors will meet Tuesday night at Osborn's, 804 Josephine Lane. Please attend.
