THE HEALDSBURG KIWANIS CLUB

II - 4 - I9-30 - I2-I0

FELLOW KIWANIAN: The above numerals are a solemn warning to every Kiwanian to be at Legion Hall to day ON TIME. This does not mean 20 minutes late. For the past several weeks our time record may be reduced to the following equation:

Twelve Ten (I2-I0) == 23 present plus I3 late minus 4.
The latter entirely absent. Not too good.

A SCHOLARLY TALK: At our last session Dr. Stolz displayed expertness and real class in his discourse on Child Welfare. Another of the big guns whom we have been privileged to hear. Said the Doctor: THE MOST IMPORTANT CROP IS OUR CROP OF YOUNGSTERS. How meaningful; and how carefully we should cultivate for a harvest of upright and useful citizens. Our own Brigadier is to be congratulated in bringing for us such high talent.

THIS TUESDAY: Bill Rumbold, poet-laureate Bill, with a coming career and a coming appetite; telephonic and versatile Bill, - you will get a kick from his presiding performance at head table to day. Bill says: "A certain few better be watching out". He who hath plastered Bill with ridicule, himself may suffer therefrom. Hence, be "watching out".

However, the big boy brings to us to day another Bill, Mr.
William Williams of telephone traditions and experience, who will speak on telephone communication. With interest we all will "listen in".

NOVEMBER FOURTH: A day of rejoicing and regrets. For on this day new officers will be created; and some may be cremated. Congress may change its complexion; governors will step in where the defeated step out. The "drys" may get "all wet"; the BRIDGE may rise or fall. Whatever is to occur, our Kiwaniis committee will be getting the voters out to duty's call.

II - 12 - 30

FELLOW KIWANIAN: At each luncheon hour we never fail to be ----- impressed with something new. Last week Mr.
Williams gave us new thought about things telephonic. Kiwanis is ever educational as well as beneficial in its activities.

"NEWER IDEALS IN BUSINESS": Len Gilbert, Chairman of the Day,
----- will have as his speaker Dr. Ira B.
Cross, Phd., Dean of the College of Commerce, University of California. The above entitled subject will be the University man's theme.
He is a nationally known economist.

MUSIC: The Healdsburg Lumber Company ^{Haywire} Orchestra consisting of
----- Earl and Lloyd Johnson and Burnett Bidwell will disp pense sweet haywire music of ancient vintage.

FURTHERMORE: The Chairman of the Public Affairs Committee
----- has constructed a replica of the Golden Gate Bridge from the main door to our lunch room. This is both to celebrate the BRIDGE VICTORY and to raise a Christmas Cheer fund for Healdsburg's needy.

SOME SYSTEM: Phillip Witter Jr. will be at the head of the ----- bridge in Boy Scout uniform to collect 10 cts.
from each crosser. We repeat, this collection will go ^{to} the Christmas Cheer Fund, and it is purely optional to each pedestrian.
Len says this ^{is} the Golden Rule Bridge.

ATTENTION: Remember to day is WEDNESDAY. Not even a Kiwanis
----- program shall conflict with Armistice Day celebration.

ON TO OAKLAND NOVEMBER 13-15

FELLOW KIWANIAN: Well, the Golden Gate Bridge has been built------ by architect, Len Gilbert and his corps of engineers and skilled workmen. The first tolls were collected on Wednesday last, the revenues to help on a Christmas Cheer Fund for the needy ones. Len certainly put on a pretentious program, - able speaker, Bridge replica and Haywire Orchestra. Well done, Len, painstaking, enterprising and all round substantial.

SPEAKING OF: The speaker, Dr. Cross was fluent, forceful and ----- familiar with his theme: Newer Ideals in Business. We always appreciate the coming of a big man. And Len scored decisively in bringing for us a man of the caliber of Dr. Cross.
And it is not to disparage in the least if we indulge in

A WORD OF COMMENT: Is the time really at hand when man's in----- dividualism is to be submerged in chain groups, cooperatives, mergers and the like? Are we to lose the incentive for personal achievement? Is individual originality to be lessened for the many to be monopolized by the few? Is that natural ambition of the young man to sometime master his own affairs coming to an end? Are we destined more and more to be understudies, subordinates, hirelings? Possibly it's all for the best. Sometimes 'tis well at least to meditate.

THIS WEEK? TUESDAY: Fred Kinley says: "Each member sit at ----- plate where he finds his name and message. Read Directions and act accordingly." The "Doc" is engineering the program. Mr. Von P. Ellsworth of the Tax Research Dept.
National Farm Bureau, will address us. A Farm Center for Healds-burg is in the offing. A meeting Tuesday night, Kiwanians, be there.

II - 25 - 30

FELLOW KIWANIAN: Thanksgiving week. Apart from a con----- dition of depression there are redeeming features. And this in particular applies to our own club.
We still seem to be prosperous, progressive and persevering.
Our prosperity is the ability, at least in small measure, to help the other fellow. That we progress was vouched for at the Oakland convention. We persevere in the sense that there continues to be that disposition to serve. So, on this Tuesday let us all be on hand and hear a word of thanksgiving from President Jim.

OTHER FEATURES: There'll be music in the air, a good mu----- sical program - so says Harold Miller, the Chairman for to day. No imported talent. Welcoming a new member. Then, there are to be short reports by our delegates to the Oakland District Convention.

LAST WEEK: That was about the noisiest half hour it has ----- been our pleasure (?) to enjoy (?) for one long time. But it's always calm after a storm; and there was real perfect silence while the speaker had the floor.
Certainly a great sacrifice by those dozen or more human megaphones. Mr. Von P. Ellsworth held the boys' close attention in his interesting talk on Taxation.

WINTER NEAR AT HAND: What can our club do for the com----- fort of those in dire need? Why not resolve to perfect a community charitable organization?
In the past alms have been dispensed in a haphazard manner.
Why not the Kiwanis Club of Healdsburg sponsor this movement? One cast off suit of clothes to start with, and how those useful contributions would increase. Let's talk it over, and put it over.
