LEST WE FORGET - PEARL HARBOR - DECEMBER 7th
A DAY THAT WILL LIVE IN INFAMY

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM -

"Rubinoff and his violin" -it is a phrase fraught with magic in the musical affections of the nation words that radiate sheer tonal enchantment. When you see and hear Rubinoff and his violin, you will share one day out of the nine months he spends each year touring the nation. The nine months will add up to some 125 cities visited where 250 evening concerts are played, with additional 1250 free appearances at service club luncheons, hospitals, radio, TV broadcasts, and with at least 1000 of these free appearances before students in school assemblies. Today this dynamic personality that sets audiences on fire is our program.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM -

...This too will be a musical program, featuring talent from our own Healdsburg High school. Lou Sbrana, music instructor at the school, is arranging the numbers. oOo

EARL OSBORN

Along the K TRAIL: It's good to have Earl O. back in the fold - a former club president..... We appreciated the fine remarks of Lt. Gov. Phil in the presentation of the certificate to the Youth-of-the-Month, Steve Sawyer. .. It was also interesting to learn that our little ol' project was recognized at the Kiwanis International. "Toys for Tots" project by the Marines is underway -leave them at Al Valette's .. Get those tickets for the Rubinoff show turned in today!!! Board of Directors will meet Tuesday, Dec. 14th.

TOYS FOR TOTS -- NOW IS THE TIME!
 WHAT IS CHRISTMAS WITHOUT TOYS FOR TOTS?
 The toy barrel is at Al Valette's station, and the section reserved for Kiwanis contribution is empty. TOYS FOR TOTS, NOW!

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM -

This program will feature the sweet music that is always associated with the Yule season. Featured on the program will be talent from our high school under the direction of Lou Sbrana, music director, for the Prince Street student repository. Music Committeeman Bruno R will be the Kiwanian-of-the-day.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM -

Santa Claus is coming to Kiwanis, at lunch time, no less. This is our annual "Deck the Halls with mistletoe" -and watch out for the piano player. Be sure and bring an exchange gift -not over $1.00.

ALONG THE K TRAIL: -President-elect Ken oriented his chairmen and workers for '66 at an early hour breakfast Sunday morning. Every year is a better year with Kiwanis . . . In our youth programs, we might remember the words of Rubinoff, "the youth need a few words of inspiration." . . . Be reminded that the Board of Directors will meet tonight at 7:30.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

"He can who thinks he can." It could apply to almost any endeavor -to developing talents, to improving performance, to learning; overcoming habits, repenting, even moving toward perfection -toward it, if not to it.
 It is, in its own way, a restatement of our inner resources, and suggests what a person can do when he is under the wonderful necessity of doing something." RLE.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM -

Santa will be the Kiwanian of the day. Be sure and be at Yvonne's at the Plaza Hotel for this one. Bring a gift, not over $1 in value to help Santa's cause along.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM -

This program, too, will be at the Plaza under the watchful eye of President Francis, who can say "amen" to a year's service well done.

SLIPPIN' OFF THE ROOF WITH SANTA: - - - Waldo has the budget for next year and asks all '66 chairmen to get their budgets in by the 28th.. A hearty thanks from President Francis and the officers to the committeemen and the members for a job well-done on the Rubinoff program. It left a little in the till for our youth project funds. . . . If there is any change in your address or phone, be sure and get the information to secretary-elect Tom so the new club directory can go to the printer. . . . Sorry to have Dee leaving us to set up business in Eureka -good luck! . . . January 4th at 7:30 pm has been set for the installation of president Ken and fellow officers . . . Plan to attend.

There'll always be the stocking to fill,
A wreath on the window, a light on a hill,
The song of the angels, and over again
The beautiful message --good will among men.

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM --

If "To and From the River of No Return" sounds a little impracticable, if not improbable, it's all the more reason to be on hand Tuesday to hear Marion DeLanty. Mr. DeLanty will be there to tell about the River of No Return along with some tales of hunting in primitive country in our backyard. The meeting will be at the 12:10 hour at the Plaza Hotel dining room.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM --

Remember that at noon there will be a round-table and the installation of officers in the evening. It's ladies night and the festivities will take place at the Plaza Hotel.

Along the K T R A I L: ..A date to remember on your '66 calendar --Mid-Winter Conference, January 21-22 at Santa Monica --especially for president, secretary and all interested members.Last call for address or phone changes on the printed roster for The Builder. Call the editor -433-1765. ... How about 100% attendance for December? ... time to make it so.

Praise is not always a spoken nor a singing word.

Praise can be deep approval never heard
By the object of its extolling, but felt instead.

Praise can be loud, though never sung or said.
