Published Weekly by the Kiwanis Club of Healdsburg

TUESDAY EVENING

JANUARY 6TH, 1931

PROGRAM:

PART ONE: At 6-30 P.M. Kiwanis clubs of Napa and Santa Rosa break bread with ourselves at Begion Hall. Just as it should be. For was it not those selfsame Napers, years and years ago, who presented us our charter? In turn, the Santa Rosa boys accepted theirs at our hands. Hence, the big affair to night is to be a party of relatives in Kiwanis.

PART TWO: Lieutenant Governor, Clyde Brown, will head a score or more of his live and talented flock. The presence of a Napa delegation is inspiring, their music always good. "Bring your voices along", Phoned Pres. Jim. The ether waves responded: "And our New Year horns, as well". Then, there is that Santa Rosa bunch, high grade men, one and all. Bill <sup>h</sup>Suhaw, Ransom Cook, Herb Slater, and all that galaxy of County seaters, - you'll hear from these alright.

PART THREE: Governor Clyde will see to it that the new officers are properly indicted - we mean inducted - to their respective posts of duty. From his noisy bunch at the western table Floyd will be escorted to the throne to don the President's pin. And Jim will graduate back into the ranks, cum laude.

PART FOUR: The man who does not bring his wife, or lady friend, better be watching out. It is an unforgiveable sin, punishable by fine, or bawling out, or both. Remember this is LADIES NIGHT. We must have the women. A few reports, both short and dry; but a good dinner, a good free-for-all time, and a HAPPY NEW YEAR.

TUESDAY

JANUARY 10<sup>3</sup> 1931

THE ANNUAL MEETING:           And so, the "big noise" is over. And ----- with pleasant recollections, too.

Thanks, Napa, for your vallient support; for your Mrs. Hynes, your Percy King, your (and our) Lt. Governör, Clyde Brown. You put pep and punch and nightingale notes into an evening of wholesome enjoyment. And to you, Santa Rosa, thanks a lot.
Quality was outstanding in your representation of men and women. Your presence gladdened and heartened Healdsburg.
Numerically, plenty strong was that gathering. But the real intrinsic strength of the now memorable program must be summed up in what was done, said or sung. A truly fine meeting.

A GOOD BEGINNING:           Past President Jim sets a worthy example
----- in broadcasting the next speaker one week in advance. To Harold of the Program committee, and to Jim, chairman to day, The Builder is very grateful. A great advantage is to know in advance of what's what. Chairmen of the future, keep it up, keep it up.

NOW COMES:           The Hon. Hilliard Comstock, Superior Court Judge
----- of Santa Rosa, who will talk to us on something best known to himself, something of his own choosing. Will it be Protection, Probation, Prohibition? By your presence ye shall see. Come, too, and give a hand to Floyd. We well know, Floyd, that behind that sense of fun and frolic, you possess a full measure of sound judgment, willingness to serve, and capacity to lead.
We're of you, and for you, and with you, President Floyd.

NO DEPRESSION:           Not in Healdsburg Kiwanis, at least. We have
----- 40 ONE HUNDRED PERCENTERS. Every last man has paid his last dollar in dues. The cash is being well spent.
And the treasury balance is still favorable. Not so bad, eh?

TUESDAY

JANUARY 20 1931

PROGRAM: President Floyd will tell us to day of the ----- Santa Barbara District Trustees Convention.
 We just must lend our ears, occasionally, to what is being done at these large and lively Kiwanis gatherings. Floyd will give us the low down in his own understandable fashion.

PROGRAM, CONTINUED: Special music. This always sounds well, -
 ----- to read about, much more, to hear.
 Earl Shores is coming back to us, in marimba solos and other entertainment features. Dont you remember Earl, who so pleasantly entertained us once upon a time? As Fred Miller would say: "It's going to be a balanced show".

JUDGE COMSTOCK'S SPEECH: Straight from the shoulder, it was.
 ----- If you recall, "The Builder" last week inquired if it would be on Probation, or Prohibition. Not - so bad a guess, was it? Listening between the lines, doubtful if His Honor would further continue probation for Mr. Volstead.

NOTORIOUS MEMBERS: Yes, we must confess the're in our ranks.
 ----- "Aunt Lucia" demonstrated this cold fact.
 A veritable breaker of men's hearts is our cajolerous, capricious, coquettish Byron Gibbs.- Clara Bow, presently famous, faultless? feminine, seems to be none other now than Big Bill Hill, Scotch by Absorption.
 Next comes Jim Bowen, purest, pious, peerless practitioner in Home Eugenic, madly jealous of another woman.
 And what a reputation is "Campus Flirt" for our supposedly tried and true and trustful J. Pierrepont Morgan. Johnny, you bad and fickle boy.
 Lastly, is it a boon, or is it a blemish, to carry on our masculine club a "Girl with the Million Dollar Legs? Harold, you better get them insured. Who'll deny there's talent in Hbg?

TUESDAY

JANUARY 27, 1931

SAID PRES. FLOYD: "My, but weren't the boys OBSTREPEROUS
----- last meeting", or other big words to that effect. How come, Floyd, this belated awakening? Since your graduation from the ranks is it "worsen than it is been"? Or do they miss your benign and quieting influence?

NEVERTHELESS: There was perfect vocal silence while Art
----- Showers did shower that wonderful music upon us. Some classy execution. The President's story of the Santa Barbara Convention was very interesting; furthermore, instructive. For it smacked with outstanding ideals of our great service organization.

G. LANSING HURD: He comes to day in person, brought by Pepsi -
----- -- I mean to say, Earl Adams, Chairman of the Day. Strange, isn't it, how one journalist begets another. But just at present Mr. Hurd is the acme of Chamber of Commerce activities in Santa Rosa. He is a traveler, too. To-day he will give us free transportation to Mexico. The land of Dons and Senor-itas; of treaties of peace and revolutions. Mexico, the land of beautiful birds and bull fights; of picturesque history and landscape. We'll be happy to listen and learn from Lansing.

ATTENDANCE CONTEST: It is now under-way. Who is he would ----- take a chance of being absent, and take the "third degree" for his pains? For absence, during the next nine weeks, means awful humiliation. So sayeth Fred Kinley.

DIRECTORS MEETING: Monday next. Plans and specifications
----- for building in '31 will be inspected.
Some of the "old guard" should attend. Ross Inn, 12-10.
