It is understood that these deliberations will constitute the whole program - except music, of course, together with such tomfoolery as the new Year may inspire.

Peace for all in this who shared; curtains for him who 's not prepared!

Chairman Ed. Beeson announces the coming of District Attorney Toland CcMcGettigan to address us on, presumably, matters pertaining to criminology. This youthful, forceful and popular county official should command the presence of the entire multitude.

As for the last, our annual meeting, well, it eloquently spoke for itself. Weren't we fortunate have such an entertaining speaker as Dr. Fred Ewing? All felt like starting out on a vacation after hearing his talk on fun, recreation, etc. And Lt. Gov. Rolly Pope, inducted the new officers in graceful fancy fashion. Everett Foster seemed at his best in those inspiring songs. Eighty men and women enjoyed a bountiful dinner and all-round enjoyable evening.

Not too early to publicise the coming entertainment, Feb. 2, 3, which Jess Ratchford is engineering with punching and powerful promotion. You'll hear plenty from said legal light.

Pres. Earl's first Directors' meeting was pregnant with present and prospective performances - meaning BUSINESS. From time to time the membership will hear more of Directors' deliberations.

At Modesto, Presidents and Secretaries' Conference, February 20. President Earl, Vice-President Paul and perhaps some more will attend.

O, you chairmen: Read the following and REMEMBER :

Busy days (and nights), these - sayeth the Secretary-editor.

Those unrelenting powers that be, as is their annual perfidious practice, out and demanding that inexorable Achievement Report, with all its ramifications, classifications, couched with technical touch and tenor.

Hence, brethren, this weekly letter must be in hints of dot and dash.

BUT, we must touch upon that satirical skit- of all skitdom, of last week. 'Bout M. Earle Adams, Presidente and "Editor-in-Chief of the Healdsburg Semi-Week-end Tribune". 'Twas the acme in all Kiwanis horseplay; the zenith in farcical journalistic journalism. The Mayor's proclamation; Newsboy Steve; and then! Jess, in the role of editor!!! Verily, we say - A SCREAM.

But, we seem to be getting the cart before the ass. That is to say: writing in reverse.

At this belated time let it be said that Jim Coffman, the Judge emeritus of our city, brings along another Judge (yet presiding) L.E. Fulwider, in "Selected Themes". Welcome back, Your Honor.

Speaker to day, Mr. Phil. Becklund, Probation Officer of Sonoma County. The administration of County departments is of concern to all citizens. Mr. Becklund's discourse should be interesting. Constable Del will act as chairman.

If history repeats itself we can confidently expect something of lighter order to enliven the aggregation. For, what is a Kiwanis meeting without some fun? With our club it is an invaluable asset, tho' not exactly tangible and YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU.

Which reminds us of the Kiwanis entertainments, this Thursday and Friday evenings, and featuring the play with this very name.

The Builder is giving over its publicity columns - free of charge - for the success of this function. Each member has his two tickets. Let each one prevail upon one friend to patronize the show, and we'll have twenty five hog dollars to embellish the receipts. Let's do it.

RUSS' TALK, PLUS THAT 25 CANDLED CAKE - IDEAL 25th ANNIVERSARY
We'll probably hear more about the recent Presidents' Conference from our delegates, Earle and Paul. DIRECTORS' MEET. THIS THURSDAY

Arrangements for tri-club meet in Cloverdale, Feb. 22nd well under way. On that Thursday will be our regular weekly meeting. Let us all set aside that date, if (and we should be) attendance conscious.

Anent attendance last week, which was terrible, note the following absentees:

Gilbert, Honderson, Killingsworth, Kinley, Madison, Massoni, Rafanelli, Scalione, Schwab, Simpson, Smith. What the he - ck!!
