Once again we hie to Syl Borel's Bellevue Villa to eat and meet. That chicken et cetera was so delicious last week we must repeat. And thereby we give those Legion ladies another breathing spell. The boys turned out very well. Hope to come in swarms again to day. Reassuring Key Club report by those two fine samples of Young America, Lee Anderson and Johnnie Wasson. Going strong now.

Committee chairman will recount progress during the past year.

Much praise due Col. "Tom" Spencer. Made up each and every meeting during the three months' eastern sojourn, with the good wife.

Pres. Jim says: Warn the boys not to make same mistake this time, believing that Tuesday, not Monday, is the holiday. Come Wed.

The decorum on the hill was good - in spots. In other words, it was spotted. But, as against the exquisite tastes of the multitude, hasn't the outlawed and supposed defunct ballistic practice the right to be reincarnated, even by a corporal's guard of ex-teenagers." Doesn't the gunner buy a franchise to bombard a Kiwanis regiment by punctually paying his quarterly dues? Isn't this a free country? Doesn't even a mere minority rate any more in this land of the free and the home of the brave?" Period.

JANUARY EIGHTEEN. Ask your neighbor what takes place on this date.

Next issue may refresh your memory, - if you read the bulletin.

See Syl Borel this WEDNESDAY and come with a New Year resolution to make a banner year for NINETEEN FIFTY TWO.

Chas. Stewart, Speaker

1/22/52

What takes place on (and from) a big naval carrier we learned from Lt. R. Rasmussen, in a fluent and smoothly lubricated discourse last meeting. And the pictures made for a well-punctuated text. Come again, Bob.

Speaker, Mr. R. L. "Bob" Bishop
Subject, Citizens Responsibility
Sounds like a dry theme, but is made entertaining and juicy by this gentleman. He's been with us before. Phil Cadosi, Chmn.

The editor's wish: Why not you men on the firing line phone or write in items which should appear in the Bulletin? Better than he be compelled to dig out as best, or worst, he can. Same will lend much encouragement. Pres. Tom has made a good start.

To day, also, will be something catchy on the coming Talent Show. Not to encroach on the speaker's time, of course. Some little specialty, something extra, from time to time helps round out a program.

President Tom says: "We're going to, in a general way, tie in a program with a particular committee having to do with a kindred subject." So, Committee Chairmen, it is well to get busy now for something apropos.

A Lincoln Day and Washington Day just ahead. Shall we not observe these patriotic festivals as has been our wont? Let's remember these dates - February 12th and 22nd. They should mean much to a/all of us.

A boon for our prune industry! Is it the fertile and business-like brain of packer Harold Miller, or dehydrator Sid Grove. Anyway, right here in this club a solution has been found - a working off of part of the '51 crop, delivering huge consignments within our very ranks. An accomplishment for the next Achievement Report. Good Bye to the old paperwad.

When Russia converts America to Communism; when some Kiwanis wizard invents perpetual motion; when all our members act as if in church; when Bill Masoni transposes his high pitched coyote shrieks down into the low-keyed basso profundo - then shall our noise artists be squelched. Moral: Let there be noise. Preferably, harmonized, musically-melodious NOISE.

Mr. Walter Sandolin of Ukiah speaks to day on California Highways.

"I am the Traveling Gavel. Not so much a scepter of authority as an emblem of service. I seem to be destined to journey up and down, over and throughout, the entire realm of Kiwanis Division Eight. I first find myself in the care and custody of a Healdsburg ace Kiwanian, Walter Wright, Division Governor. For our ~~mb~~ rambling we take off together, hither and yon, making a conquest of eight other clubs in '52. When we have paid our official visits to the sister groups; when we have given the "call to order" at various inter-club meetings; when retiring Gov. Walt shall have performed all duties, faithfully and well, and he has delivered me into the hands of another, - then, sorrowfully, I bid Adieu to the Past Worthy Wielder of Democracy and Decorum, - then, cheerfully, shall I recognize a new custodian of this, my very own and beloved comrade.
