BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Tuesday evening, Jan. 7th both the retiring Board of Directors and officers and the new directors and officers are slated to meet at 7:45 p.m. at Ed Langhart's home. Plan to be there to get the new year rolling!

Along the K T-R-A-I-L: Let's take the advice and promptings of our patriarch, Walt Wright and make our club the best in attendance, the best in achievement, and the best by all measurable means. "Nothing is really impossible, teacher, except some of the pupils you encounter." "To a small child's way of thinking, a school teacher is just someone trying to find out what he doesn't know."

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM - January 14, 1969

This will be our installation night program when all members should be present with their ladies to give a send-off to our new officers and directors. The program will be held at St. Paul's at 7 p.m.. Lt. Gov. Walter Woodard, Ukiha, will be on hand to be the installing officer.

Officers to be installed include Edwin Lanhart, president; Bill Kassin, vice president; Frank Wilson, secretary; Lloyd Decker, treasurer; and new directors, Francis Branern, Al Valette, Vad Jelton and Tom Conklin.

A Round Table will be held at noon for any members who find it impossible to attend the installation party. Time 12:10 p.m.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM - January 21, 1969

Our member, and city Councilman, Al Barbieri, has arranged a program which will feature Bill Lucius on a very timely topic.

Along the K-T-R-A-I-L: The installation dinner on Tuesday night will be extra special besides it being the installation affair. Lois Day, now 86, has come out of "retirement" to cook this one last dinner for the club. . . . It would be hard to go anywhere and find a record of service rendered that will equal what Lois has performed for the Healdsburg Kiwanis Club. Her "boys," each and everyone, wish her the most of happiness each and every day. . . . This bulletin is printed on the new format, please report all errors in phone numbers, spelling, wives, etc. -so far three miscues have been discovered. . . . Take another hard look at the objectives of Kiwanis for 1969. Pres. Ed and Treas. Lloyd will be attending the Mid-Winter Conference in Sacramento on Sat..

Along the K T-R-A-I-L: . . . We tell our new president is going to be a winner. Who won the drawing for the first potted flower? - Mrs. Ed. A large share of the membership was on hand to see our new officers installed - regally by Lt. Governor Walt. . . . Now that he is on the board of directors, what size paper wads will Valette have legalized for our meetings? . . . Eddie Beeson was the only charter member present at the installation - 45 years of them!! A gift was presented to Lois Day, now in her 80s for her long service to Kiwanis. . . . Pres. Ed gave us these points for his 1969 program:

1. Continue the good work of the club
2. Put greater emphasis on social activities which in turn will give more enthusiastic cooperation for all members.
3. Look for and develop one new project.
4. Promote closer association with the Key Club and extend more assistance.

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM - January 28, 1969

Program Chairman Bill selected Paul Armstrong to cover the program this week to keep the old program wheel rolling. Rev. Paul will be the Kiwanian-of-the-Day.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM - February 4, 1969

Ed Burke has been selected to plan this program. Other programs coming up include Ed Beeson, Feb. 11th; Bid Bidwell, Feb. 18th; and Fran Branern, Feb. 25; March 11, Phil Cadosi; Larry Carson, March 18; and Bud Christensen, March 25th.

Along the K T-R-A-I-L: . . . . At the Mid-Winter Conference Gov. Glenn told K's that problems are opportunities in disguise, opportunities are challenges. Senator Jack Schrade, a surprise speaker at the same conference, told the group, "You have more power in service clubs than any other organization." He went on to say, "We don't really know the conditions in our schools." He further stated that we needed Senators and Assemblymen who would stand up and be counted. He expressed the opinion that solving the problems was more important than being re-elected. . . .

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

::::: We need men to match the mountains::::: : : : :

New Lt. Gov. Ed Reinicke: "Everything I am to-day -as in business and politics, I owe to Kiwanis."

::::: :

Time, like a river, rolls imperceptibly away, till it loses itself in the vast ocean of eternity. Happy are they who mark its periods by deeds which shall bear record when time itself be no more!
