THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM -

For today's program, Bud C will be the Kiwanian of-the-day. Pres. Ken will assume the role of the speaker-of-the-day and will relate his experiences of his tour of Russia where he learned what kind of Jargon the Soviets use to push vitamins and such.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM -

Dr. Don O will have this Valentine Day plus one program and promises a most interesting 30 minutes.

Congratulations

Dr. Phil has been appointed to the Board of Directors to fill the seat vacated by Morry D, who found it necessary to resign.

Along the K T R A I L: . . . Inter-Clubs have been the order of the day lately . . . Jerry M., Walt W, Bud, Virg and Pres. Ken all made it to Geyserville last Thursday -alas! Pres. Ken lost the flag. . . . Larry Carson announces that the California State Bowling tournament date is set for May 21 at Riverside.. team line-up will be coming .. Bd of Directors adopted the 1966 budget Tuesday night, approved two new memberships and accepted the resignation of Morry D.. Now that we have the elephant tusks, will the elephants be along later?

Food for Thought:

There is in our nation today a shortage of talented young people taking up business careers. Ironically, this shortage exists at a time when college and university graduating classes are larger than at any time in our history. (PG & E Progress Bulletin)
