

"WE BUILD!"

The Kiwanis Club of Healdsburg

KIWANIS BULLETIN
April 1, (No Fooling) 1980

Program

Program chairman Paul Dix presented Cy Radcliffe who gave a personal account of "Behind the Scene of The Moscow Olympics." The U.S.S.R. government paints a rosy picture of the living conditions of its people when, in reality, it's a tragic story. If you're interested in The Behind The Scenes story read Russian author Gulag Archipelago by Solzynitzen.

Program This Week

Dick Saxton reports that Mary Lynch, of the Sonoma County Bolld Bank, will be our speaker.

Guests

Ken Gonsalves had as his guest Dave Ziedrich, owner of Healdsburg Lumber Co. Key Clubber Dave Wendt was the only Representative of the Key Club. Ed Deas introduced his son Steve, a recent college graduate. He's going in business with his dad.

Birthdays

Coughing up 5 bucks a piece were Lou Sbrana, Walt Wright, Neil Iversen and belatedly, Art McCaffrey. Everyone seemed in tune on the "Happy Birthday" song.

Apron Fines

$1.00 fines were levied at Elvin Jackson, Dick Holtzen, Bob Durler, Jim Gentry, Tom Passalacqua and Jim Silveira.

Social Committee Report

Ladies Nite at Los Robles was a huge success according to chairman Ken Gonsalves. 89 people were in attendance and Ken gives Bruno Rodello much of the credit. Prexy Bob Young's wife, Gertrude added class to the festivities with appropriate decorations.

Pancake Breakfast

It's here this Sunday! Get the tickets out and check your assignment sheet.

Miscellaneous

Big Bad Don is moving his travel agency, he's looking for a building. Good to see Cal Brigham back after a stay in the hospital. He say's he's feeling better each day.

Board Meeting

At Ed Deas' new home in Hidden Acres, Wednesday, April 2, 1980 at 7:30 P.M. Turn right in front of Bill Kassin's home.

Program

Program chairman Steve Humphrey presented Mary Lynch who gave an informative talk on The Sonoma County Blood Bank. This bank supplies blood to the hospitals in not only Sonoma County, but Mendocino and Lake Counties as well according to Lynch, the need for blood is growing with each additional year. In 1978 they supplied 12,000 units, in 1979, 14,000 units of blood. The mobile unit will be at St. John's Hall on May 20th.

Program This Week

Presenting the program will be our own diminutive Earl Osborn. He will speak on "Recent Events in the Middle East". You can count on an interesting program from the "Little Giant".

Guests

Waldo Iversen introduced Milt Benson as his guest. Bill Loofbourrow had as his guest, out of town and former Kiwanian, Byron Posson. And our new Fire Chief, Ken Hanley was the guest of Kurt Hahn.

A Birthday

Bud Christensen wanted a piano accompaniment when they sang the weekly "Happy Birthday Song". Piano player Bill Hayes was absent so all Bud got for his request was some sour notes at a cost of $5.00.

Pancake Breakfast

Chairman Ed Deas reported 940 people attended our breakfast and thanked Mr. "Pancake Breakfast" Waldo Iversen, for all the unheralded work he does in getting things ready for this annual event. Frank Balbi, "The Quiet Man", was thanked for his food buying prowess. The champion ticket sellers were Walt Wright, Mario Deas, Ken Gonsalves, Neil Iversen, Chuck Reichel and president Bob Young. More next week!

Social Committee

Chairman Bruno Rodella and his committee are working on a Giants' game and dinner. Be ready for the sign-ups!

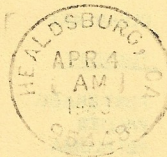

C.P.R.

A recent class conducted by Fireman Dennis Tupper qualified 9 Kiwanians and their wives. A new class will be formed soon. If interested see Jim Gentry or Glen Davis.

"WE BUILD!"

KIWANIS BULLETIN
April 15, 1980

Program

"Problem's of The Middle East" was the subject of speaker Earl Osborn's informative talk at last Tuesday's luncheon meeting. Earl's presentation was an interesting historical synopsis on the political upheavels and problems of Iran and Afghanistan. Very timely indeed!

Today's Program

Program chairman Wood Frampton announced today that his program will be, appropriately enough, "Housing". Wood didn't reveal the speakers name.

Guests

Waldo Iversen again introduced as his guest former General Motors employee, Milt Benson. Milt's new bride is the former Rose Demostene. John Uboldi and Frank Wilson introduced Key Clubbers Scott Adams and Robert Sohegian respectfully.

Apron Fines

Four of our finest forgot to sign Al Rizzo's apron and it made Nelson Cardinal, Karl Esposti, Bill Hayes and Dave Hinton, one buck lighter.

Pancake Breakfast

Acting president Ed Deas announced that members who missed their breakfast assignments will be honored at next Tuesday's meeting. Turning in your ticket money would also be in order.

Nominations

Ed Deas-President, Dick Saxton-1st V.P., Glen Davis-2nd V.P., Craig Furber-Treasurer. Nominated for Board of Directors are Mike Warren, Jack Brandt, Phil Cadosi, Gary Rosenberg, Lindsay Wurlitzer, Earl Osborn, Bob Allen, Richard Lehrman, Bill Loofbourrow and Elvin Jackson.

C.P.R.

A new class is being formed. It is a subject with which we should all be familiar. All that's required is two interesting evenings. See Jim Gentry or assistant Glen Davis.

Golfing-Interclub

Waldo Iveren is putting together a package deal for the golfers with breakfast at Lakeport on Thursday April 17. After breakfast will be golf all day at the World Famous Buckingham Course. Call Waldo at 433-1140.

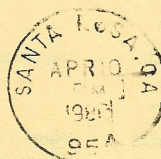

Ladies Night

Big cocktail and dinner party for District Governor Ken Ferror at Rohnert Park Community Center, commencing with "Happy Hour" at 5:30, dinner at 7:00. Date Friday May 2. See Waldo on this one too.

Kassin Had A Birthday

Happy birthday Bill!

KIWANIS BULLETIN
April 22, 1980

Program

Chairman Wood Frampton presented John Wright, representative of "Young America Homes". Mr. Wright spoke on the subject of "The Myths of Government Housing". Rising cost of mortgage money is crippling the building industry while the government continues to add layer and layer of government red tape, explained Wright. It was a good program.

Today's Program

Our program chairman Jim Gentry, is preparing a program which will feature "The Medical Profession" or "Medical Insurance Profession".

Guests

Ernest Biasotti introduced Bill Ferguson, new manager of Crocker Bank. Our brand new city councilman Paul Dix had as his guest Dave Daman co-owner of North Bay Forest Products. Incidentally, congratulations Paul! Milt Benson was Waldo Iversens guest. Key club members present were Pres. Rick Alves and V.P. Ken Bauer. Ken gave a report on the recent state convention held in Long Beach.

Birthdays

Two nice guys were a year older and five bucks lighter. Congratulations to Virgil Bottarini and Bill Flaeger.

Apron Fines

Al Rizzo is making money for the club. Four last week and six this week: President Bob Young, John Cochennette, Michael Culligan, Steve Humphrey, Ralph Kauer, and Dick Saxton each paid a buck.

Inter-Club

Ten of our members "golfers" spent the day in Lakeport and Buckingham inter-clubbing. There will be another one soon. Brother Iversen will let you know.

C.P.R.

Jim Gentry reported 27 members signed up for the next class. Jim is shooting for 35 and will announce the time and place soon.

Remaining Bulletin Editors

Next month Chuck Reichel takes over followed by Tom Roscoe in June, Gary Rosenberg-July, John Uboldi-August. We are looking for someone for September. If interested contact Art McCaffrey.

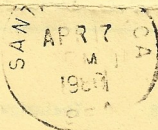

New Board Members Elected

To take over in October are Mike Warren, Earl Osborn, Jack Brandt, and Richard Lehrmann. Congratulations!

Miscellaneous

Ken Gonsalves surprised us with a wine raffle. John Uboldi and Frank Balbi were the proud winners of a bottle of Jordon's best. Thanks John C.! Ken was using the raffle method to raise money to supply the wine for "Ladies Nite" in Rohnert Park on May 2nd when the Gov. comes to visit. Bruno Rodello is getting his act together for the May 17th "Plaza Festival" by getting his chickens and cooks organized.

PROGRAM

Program chairman Jim Gentry presented Betsey Bennett, representing the State Compensation Insurance office in Santa Rosa. Mrs. Bennett dealt with all of the ramifications of the state, private and self insured agencies which make up this sophisticated occupational disability system. Good program Dr. Gentry!

TODAY'S PROGRAM

Karl Esposti will chair the program this week and he announced his speaker will be Asst. D.A. Gary Antolini who is a candidate for the Municipal Judgeship.

BIRTHDAYS

None! It was "Big Bad Don's" but he was absent.

C.P.R.

Jim Gentry reports that the date of the next class will be announced on Tuesday.

GUESTS

Key club visitors were David Wendt, treasurer and Scott Denham, who is activity chairman for the club.

TWO NEW INDUCTEES

Nils Benson and Gene Giovannoni were sponsored by Waldo Iversen and Walt Wright, respectfully. Veteran Walter Wright conducted the induction ceremonies and did his usual comendable job. Nils, formally of Minnisota and General Motors, is retired and living in Healdsburg. Gene needs no introduction being a Healdsburger for many years, but for the new comers, Gene heads up the Giovanoni Real Estate Co..

INTER-CLUB

Ernest Biasotti is getting together a group for the Redwood Empire club's 12th Annual Pancake Breakfast to be held on Sunday April 27 (this week) at the S.R. Vets Memorial Building. Call Ernie 433-1220.

REMINDER

Glen Davis wants us to circle June 1 for the Kiwanis Community Activities Golf Benefit. Glen says "play or work"!

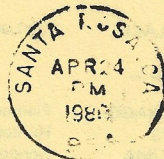

PANCAKE BREAKFAST HONOREES

Chairman Ed Deas announced that the members who missed their breakfast assignments can pay their $5.00 fine to him before Tuesday. I think Ed said it would be $10.00 Tuesday or later.

MISCELLANEOUS

Bruno needs about 5 more cooks for his Plaza Festival on May 17. Waldo again reminded us of the "big bust" for the Gov. at Rohnert Park on May 2. Your editor next week will be Chuck Reichel.
