THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM - April 16, 1968

The season couldn't be better, the topic couldn't be more timely, and the expert couldn't be more expert - so it's the time of year to talk about fly-tying and dreaming about the clear gurgling stream where there is a 16-incher under every rock. And the expert to discuss and demonstrate the art of fly-tying? --None other than our own Gerry Miller. Larry Carson, Kiwanian-of-the-Day, has promised to match Gerrys tales one the one that got away, story for story. Should be a great afternoon.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM - April 23, 1968

Dr. Phil C. is arranging this program and will play host to the mayor of Oakland for a very timely discussion of Americana metropolitan style.

Along the K T-R-A-I-L: . . . . Congratulations to our own Al B. -now Councilman Al -like it should be! The battle lines are drawn, the two opposing generals (and well-educated too) are in the field, each with three experienced generals and well seasoned troops, - all awaiting the countdown to see whether the Kitchen Crew and Commander Malone, or the Dining Room crew and Commander By Gibbs has won the ticket sales contest for the Pancake Breakfast, May 4th. The second best will have to entertain the winning army at a BBQ -- SELL THOSE TICKETS.

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM - April 30, 1968

Tom Conklin plucked a speaker right out of the tall timber for this week's speaker. Eldon R. Knauf, a forester by profession, will discuss the proposed Redwood National Park. He will review the proposal from the point of view of the forest products industry. Mr. Knauf is a graduate of the University of California and has worked in the industry for a score of years. Tom will be the Kiwanian-of-the-Day.

oOo oOo oOo

Reminder in "Poetry"

The sunny days of April are almost spent,
If you need a make-up, you better "went."

ALONG THE K T-R-A-I-L: . . . With a delegation of 20 bowlers in Anaheim over the week-end, who knows how long it will take to get back to normal? Who knows which walls will fall when Bruno blows his horn and the mighty 20 from Healdsburg start rolling down those lanes? . . . . . We were honored to have Mayor Johnson with us and his Eagle Plan stirred a lot of interest---giving us faith that there are ways to peace. . . . . Remember to make reservations today for the Governor's reception on May 4 at the Holiday Inn in Santa Rosa. Pres. Jerry has the tickets. . . . Tomorrow is Law Day - we trust all K's will be on their good behavior, -- all others see Francis..KEEP THOSE PANCAKE TICKETS MOVIN'!

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

The longstanding, age-old concept of "duties" and "responsibilities" toward society have been superseded by the idea of "rights" from society.
