THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM:

Today the chairman is Ted Kellogg. He has arranged to have "Rich" Thomas, High School Ag. department chairman and F.F.A. advisor be present with some of his students. "Rich" will bring us up to date on this active department and may have some late information on plans for the community's youth fair, set this year for May 27, 28, and 29.

REPAIR'S DEPARTMENT:

At the time of writing this Bulletin, our two members who underwent surgery early last week were progressing well. Bob Durler was home convalescing and Sid Grove was still in Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital but doing nicely. We hope to have both of them with us at our meetings soon.

BOWLING:

According to Ed Burke's report the trip to the State Tournament in Sacramento was a real success. As usual everybody had a great time before and after the actual play. Even the bowling scores were good. For the local contingent, Kiwanisable was the leading team with a score of 2956, Jim Silveira's 692 was the best singles score and Jim and Ed Burke came in with a 1267 as a team score. Virg Bottarini had a 1936 in the 9 game all event competition and a best game of 265. Ed says plans for the Bowler's Dinner are progressing and details will be out soon.

LEGISLATURE DAY:

Seven members joined with approximately 500 other Kiwanians from all parts of California to take part in the Legislative day at Sacramento last Wednesday and report an excellent day. In attendance were President Bruno, "Mitch" Mitchell, Ray Stark, Walt Wright, Hank Spomer, Jim Clarke and Bill Kassin. An unanticipated benefit of the trip was an inter-club with the South East Sacramento Club.

BOARD OF DIRECTOR'S MEETING:

Much of the business of the meeting was of routine nature on activities to be separately reported upon in detail later. Considerable time was spent upon the problems occasioned by the raise in rental fees for our luncheon hall, but no reportable progress was made.

GOVERNOR'S VISIT:

District Governor Mark H. Alexander is to make his visit to Division 32 on May 26th, which is the time when we hope Gerry Miller will be elected Lt. Governor Designate. Prior, paid reservations must be made by May 18th. Fee is $4.50 per person. Already signed up are Roy Krueger, Ed Burke, Fred Haley, Bruno Redella, Fran Branern, Elmer Sandborn, Bill Kassin, Gerry Miller, Lloyd Decker and their ladies.
