TODAY'S PROGRAM -

Our observance of Law Day will feature today's program with our chairman of all program chairmen, Francis P., doing the honors.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM -

Charlie East has arranged next week's program and it will feature a discussion on the mentally retarded and their training program. Mrs. Harmeson, who is associated with the school for the mentally retarded, will be the speaker.

LAST WEEK'S gave us a good idea of what is going on right in our own woods when it comes to timber and the making of trusses. Our thanks to Morry and the folks at Idaco for a fine program.

Along the K Trail: Get ready for the Board of Directors' meeting tonight at the home of Bob Allen at 7:30 p.m. MAY WILL BE A 100% month-be there to be counted. Also 100% this month on achievement reports. Get active -get a project! The club was well in evidence at the fine Governor's night. Seems we didn't give due consideration to the propellent Dr. Eddie was using 50 years ago -he set a WORLD'S record for the high jump. Our congratulations over and over!

TODAY'S PROGRAM -

Will be oriented to a discussion on the mentally retarded and their training programs. Mrs. Bonnie Harmeson, who has a long association with the school for the mentally retarded, will make the presentation. Charlie East will be the Kiwanian of the day.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM

Will feature the presentation of Healdsburg's mystery writer. It cannot be determined from the notes if the mystery is Chuck Campbell or if Chuck will present the mystery.

LAST WEEK'S program featured two of our very young attorneys who interpreted for us some of the changing ideas and decisions in law. Our thanks to Jim Mazzoni and Frank Passalacqua for a fine Law Day program and to Francis for bringing them to us.

Along the K Trail:

May is a 100% month -make sure you are counted every week at some K table. Our friends at Geyserville had the mothers in the community as their guests at a very fine Thursday dinner meeting.

FUTURE FARMERS COUNTRY FAIR WEEK

-Come dressed in your Western attire -and this means more than a string tie - says Kiwanian of the day, Chuck Campbell.

TODAY'S PROGRAM will be presented by Healdsburg's "mystery" writer. While the identity remains a secret the editor did learn that the writer is a distinguished looking male, mature, senatorial in appearance, and could pass for an elder statesman in any world circle. He also has a long record of service to his fellowmen. See, hear, Tuesday!

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM will be chaired by Lee Sayre who has tapped on the auditor's door at 2555 Mendocino Avenue and will bring us William Fulwider.

LAST WEEK'S program brought into focus some of the real problems faced by families where there are cases of mental retardation. Our thanks to Bonnie Harmonson and Charlie East for bringing us such a human and interesting program.

Along the K Trail: We've got to hand it to the K Bowlers to have those rarin' to go red corpuscles. A tip of the ol' ten gallon to Walt Wright and bowlers' musical conglomeration. If you haven't, Eddie Beeson will take your 50¢ for the sports contribution.

SPIRITUAL QUOTATION: - "Open thy mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy." Ecclesiasties 1:9

TODAY'S PROGRAM will be presented by Lee Sayre who has arranged for William Fulwider, County Auditor, to be the speaker. The speaker has had a long period of experience in the auditor's office and signs the checks that disperses your tax dollars.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM has been arranged by Bob Allen who has arranged for our friend, John Cross, from the local letter dispensary to be the speaker.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM was presented by By Gibbs who brought us up to date on the great volunteers who make the Future Farmers Country Fair the ultimate in community participation. Another great fair worker, Chuck Campbell was program chairman and those sans Western wear did fatten the treasury. We also enjoyed an inter-club visit from Santa Rosa.

Along the K Trail: A wave of the gold fins to Jack Mounts and crew who turned common washers into silver dollars at the Kiwanis Gold Fish bowl at the Fair. A tip of the old ten-gallon fedora to Morry Dorr whose Boy Scout section in the parade was a winner.

100% MONTH LOOKS GOOD

Attendance Chairman Ken Gonsalves has only a handful who need make-ups to keep the 100% for May: Bottarini, Carson, Kellogg, Kuntz, McNulty, Santucci, Sullivan, Underhill and Vallette all need one make-up and Cadosi and Hupp need two each. Onward 100 percenters!
