THIS WEEK:

Our Junior High Band under the direction of Mr. Sid Gordon will entertain us today. This outstanding group of young musicians deserves a great deal of credit for the fine work it is doing. Key Club Chairman ELVIN JACKSON is arranging the installation of Key Club officers for the 1956-57 school year. Club members look forward to this annual event. Let's give them a real Kiwanis welcome. LEE SILVEIRA is arranging this multiple program for us today.

GOLDFISH CENSUS:

The annual restocking of goldfish bowls took place during the Future Farmers' Fair when eager youngsters carried off 1300 fish. The small fry look forward to this event from year to year as we have just about the only concession where they can have luck and fun.

LEN BOYD is particularly deserving of thanks for his work as Chairman in making the project such an outstanding success. Besides supervising the fish hawkers, LEN made 4 trips to the City transporting fish.

KIWANIS INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION:

Music Chairman TOM BEAHM has recruited a distinguished choral group to sing on opening night, June 17th, at the Civic Auditorium. The group consists of RELZY AIKIN, HICK COOLEY, TED KELLOGG, JERRY MILLER, WALT WRIGHT and, of course, includes TOM. How about a trip to the City on Wednesday, June 20th, to see the floor show at the Civic Auditorium? See TED or DON for reservations.

BOWLING:

Our bowlers finished up the season last Tuesday evening playing the Santa Rosa Lions Club. To make this final series more interesting, the losing team agreed to invite the winner to their next meeting. All three games were close, but when the final scores were added, our team was victorious. The Lions meet at 12:15 on Tuesday so our bowlers will forego this week's meeting and enjoy their "Victory Dinner". TOM BEAHM will have a recap and highlights of the season in The Builder next week.

BOARD of DIRECTORS:

BILL REYNOLDS will entertain the Board of Directors at eight, high atop Fitch Mountain. Dinner at 6:30.

NATIONAL PRIMARIES - JUNE 5th:

If you have any doubts as to how to vote today, Feel free to consult our special committee on the Election, ROY HALEY and ED QUINN. They have all the answers.

KEY CLUB:

PHIL CADOSI gets the noon hour call at the Key Club on Thursday, June 7th. Keep up that 100% attendance record, PHIL.

THIS WEEK:

The Class of 1956 will be our honored guests today. One hundred forty graduates eagerly awaiting to find out who will receive the coveted Kiwanis Plaque and Scholarship. Because of the Class's unusual size, our meeting will be held "on the hill" (the Villa, that is). Inspirational words will be by Clint Evans, University of California Baseball Coach emeritus, who will be introduced by Master of Ceremonies, LEN BOYD.

KEY CLUB:

As the school year comes to a close we will no longer be able to attend the weekly meetings of the Key Club. This important activity will be resumed in the fall.

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION:

There is still time to plan a visit to San Francisco to attend some of the activities at the International Convention-June 17th to 21st.

.....from the june board meeting.....

OLYMPICS:

Athletically, our Junior Olympics was a great success. Three hundred seventy-four entrants will vouch for that. Financially, receipts will approximate expenses. We'll do better to count on LEN'S Fish Bowl for profits.

PLAQUE:

The Kiwanis Plaque selection committee has been reconvened and was able to select a single recipient for this valued award.

THIS WEEK:

John Petersen will address the Club today on activities of the United Nations. John has been interested in this subject since he visited the United Nations Headquarters in New York City last summer after winning a regional high school contest on international relations. Chairman-ROY DOOLAN.

KIWANIS SCHOLASTIC AWARDS:

At the meeting with high school graduates last Tuesday, EARL OSBORN presented Citizenship Plaques to graduates Darla Zunino and Robert Pedroncelli. This is the first time two Kiwanis Plaques have been awarded to a graduating class. However, both of these young folks had such outstanding records for scholarship, citizenship and activities both in and outside of school, that it was difficult to choose between them.

ED NIELSEN presented the Kiwanis Scholarship check for $100 to Keith Sauers, Class President, and also an outstanding student.

PROJECTS:

Now that our big projects connected with schools are out of the way, we are headed for a long, lazy summer holiday during which we can reflect on the prospects for a community lunch or dinner in the fall and sale of Christmas trees in the winter.

ATTENDANCE:

If attendance is light today, remember that the 41st annual convention of Kiwanis International is now in session at San Francisco, continuing thru June 21st.

THIS WEEK:

Preston Smith of the Public Relations Department of the State Division of Highways will tell us about highways and freeways with particular reference to our long anticipated and much needed forthcoming local construction project.

CONVENTION REPORT:

The mass chorus at the Kiwanis Convention held in San Francisco Sunday, June 17, was certainly a huge success to say the least. Between 250 and 300 voices blended together in harmonious accord and the melodies rendered forth were enthusiastically received by a critical audience of several thousand. This was commemorating a memorial service and, as such, applause was withheld, but from those "in the know" we felt it was well worth the effort put into it. From our Healdsburg Kiwanis Club, six of the members led by President TED swelled their voices of baritones and tenors to the utmost and, justly so, with pride. The remaining five in the group included such imminent choristers as WALT WRIGHT.. GERRY MILLER.. RELZY AIKIN.. GARY ROSENBERG and TOM BEAHM.

Thanks again, fellows, for a tremendously successful rendition of vocal achievement.

ALMA MATER:

ED QUINN is expected back today from his trip to the St. Lawrence University at Canton, New York. The University has been celebrating its centennial anniversary and ED his graduation 55 years ago. ED undoubtedly met with kindred spirits. His class has been out in the world long enough to lose all inhibitions.

YOU CAN COME BACK NOW:

The 33 1/3 per cent of the members who were off on vacations last Tuesday will be happy to learn that Past President CHUCK CAMPBELL presided during their absence and brought us up to date on fines. Last Tuesday we missed RELZY AIKIN.. TOM BEAHM.. HARRY BEHNEY.. PERRY BEESON.. LEN BOYD.. SID GROVE.. ELVIN JACKSON.. GORDON JONES.. TED KELLOGG.. HAROLD MILLER.. JERRY MILLER.. ED NIELSEN.. ED QUINN.. CLINT ROBINSON.. CARL SCHUBERT.. LELAND SAYRE.. ELMER SANDBORN.. LEE SILVEIRA.. BERNAL VAN CLEAVE.. RAY WAINSCOTT and JACK WHEELER. If special efforts are not made to make up meetings this month, our attendance record will really come apart at the seams.

FROM THE SAN RAFAEL BULLETIN.....Run for the Roundhouse, Nellie; he can't corner you there.
