TODAY'S PROGRAM -

Director Bob Allen will be Kiwanian of the day and will present John Cross, our postmaster and former member of the club. Zip codes and the infernal numbers system will get the full treatment.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM featured our county auditor, William Fulwider, who elaborated on the duties of his office. Lee Sayre was the chairman of the day. Our thanks to them for a well-conceived program.

Along the K Trail: Let's give Lt. Gov. Tom a 100% attendance month from our club for May. We should set the pace in Division 32. If you haven't, by all means get money turned in for pancake breakfast today. Still a few not fully accounted for.

If you know anyone who needs a ride to the polls be sure and get in touch with the Public and Business Affairs committee or call one of these numbers: 433-2906; 433-1032; 433-3846; 433-3870.

100% MONTH SO NEAR

Make-ups by the following will give us a 100% attendance record for May: Allen, Beeson, Hodges, Bottarini, Kellogg, Kuntz, Maloney, Marshall, McNulty, Oakleaf, Steele, Underhill, Valette, each need 1 make-up; Sullivan and Cadosi need 2 each.

TODAY'S PROGRAM -

One of our most important programs of the year will be given today -the awarding of the citizenship plaque and two scholarships to achievement-worthy seniors at Healdsburg High School. Parents will also be in attendance. Time to mind our classroom manners as some retiring teachers will also be honored.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM -

Will be presented by a representative of Tel & Tel, who are exponents of the number system, who have a thing or two to tell about their part in the national alert system.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM was very informative as zips and such got the full treatment from our postmaster, John Cross. When 35% increase in population is mentioned and 90 billion pieces of nail --the zip number begins to take on more importance. Thanks, Bob and John.

100% Now In Our Sights

The Healdsburg Club is in range of making May a 100% month for Lt. Gov. Tom. At press time, Underhill, Marshall and Steele each needed one and Hupp needed 2 for perfect records. make-ups can be made up to, and including June 10. Please notify Bob Malone (this week only) of any make-up since the attendance chairman will be out of range.

Along the K Trail: Chairman Dale has that Giant-Phillies game on schedule for Sunday, Sept. 13. Be sure and get your reservation in today if you can make this day of fellowship and baseball. Wives are invited too!..Mighty handsome trophy the bowlers won for their first half efforts. Congrats By, Fran, BK, Tom, Bruno and Waldo!

TODAY'S PROGRAM -

Al Barbieri will be the Kiwanian of the day and will hook-up with Pacific Tel and Tel to bring us a program billed as "out of this world."

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM -

Our tried and true son of the soil, Ted Kellogg will be program chairman, representing the Ag and Conservation Committee. He will present Bernard Vaughn, who is public relations director for the Union Lumber Company.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM gave us all a "lift" to hear the accomplishments of the young people who won the honors bestowed by Kiwanis. Garry Rosenberg ably presented the scholarship awards to Janice Nardi and Marilyn Smith who both have outstanding records at Healdsburg High.

The outstanding citizen award went to Jane Beeson, who comes from a long line of citizenship winners. She is the granddaughter of Dr. Ed. In his fine presentation of the award, Ira Rosenberg pointed out the many Kiwanians in the club who have made major contributions to education in our city.

Along the K Trail: We were honored to have the Rev. Paul Armstrong, new at the Federated Church, visit with us Tuesday. It was Geyserville for an inter-club Thursday night and a lively time.

Praise to the K man: We applaud the special award to Morry Dorr on Tuesday for his work in the city Boy Scout movement. In a short time he has done a tremendous revitalizing of Scouting here.

SPIRITUAL QUOTATION: -"The Lord God is my strength."

TODAY'S PROGRAM -

Ted K will be the Kiwanian of the day and will present the public relations director of the Union Lumber Company, Mr. Bernard Vaughn.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM -

You will all be well pleased and a little surprised at this one.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM gave an insight into the world, or outer world of communication. Our express thanks for a very interesting program.

FROM LAST WEEK: President Ernie presented certificates to Mr. and Mrs. Relzy, Mrs. Jessie S. Larsen, Mrs. Matilda Daniels, and Miss Bertha Vranna for their long years in the halls of education. The group has brought their classroom teaching days to an end.

Along the K Trail: If the bulletin seems a bit brief it's because the editor has hit the road for a couple of tankfuls of going. Results are what you expect, and consequences are what you get. A diet is a short period of starvation preceding a rapid gain of five pounds.

SPIRITUAL QUOTATION:

"And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be a-based; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted." Matthew 23:12

Thought for the week: The price of an education is great - but not nearly so great as the price of ignorance.

TODAY'S PROGRAM -

Bill Stratton will be the Kiwanian of the day and will present a program to reveal some of the world and power of photography.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM -

A look at what lies ahead for Sonoma County will be presented by Robert Brown, director of the Sonoma County Industrial Development Board. Arnold Santucci will be the program chairman.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM was very informative and gave us a good picture of cutting for the future. Mr. Vaughn treated the aspects of conservation in the modern day operation of lumbering as practiced by leading companies in the business such as his own Union Lumber Company, which he represented. Thanks Ted, for arranging such a worth-while program.

Along the K Trail: Past Lt. Gov. Walt and Lt. Gov. Tom are flying our colors at the convention this week. We are sorry to lose Kiwanian Al Madsen but we congratulate him on the fine job he has done for us and best wishes in the outstanding position he has accepted in Montana.

Thought for the week: When you encounter stumbling stones along the way, step on them and go ahead.
