7 - I - 30

FELLOW KIWANIAN: On this day at Atlantic City our Inter----- national Convention is in full swing.
We are not there to do our bit, to get the inspiration, to join in singing "Alouette". Let us give a thought to this meaningful event, and at least sing "Hail Kiwanis".

ROSS FORMAN: This name must stand in bold relief to day,
----- for the Speaker of the Day is incognito yet.
Chairman Ross has his man on tap, -but minus the name. Better bring along 25 cents, Ross, as you believe in preparadness.
"He will speak with authority on Aviation", so says the Chairman. Ross will start the propellor, that this man of mystery may "take the air" in a thirty minute "flight" for us.

THAT CRUSADE: Earl, your talk last week was very good, enter----- taining, enlightening. Just too bad you got stung in Agua Caliente. Better go to Digger Bend for "free-hearted hospitality". For "Botch" is a worthy Roman host.

OPPORTUNITY: Are we capitalizing on this? The Chamber of ----- Commerce is out for doing things for Healds-burg. Is our Club on its tip toes to help further every substantial movement? Russian River at Fitch ^{Mountain,} and more gives promise of great development. It should not be delayed. Cannot Kiwanis influence help it along? A fine resort is here in the making. Why not have as our guests those progressive men of the "Eastside, Westside", all around the Mount, who may welcome our cooperation? Isn't the opportunity ours?

Secretary.

FELLOW KIWANIAN: If you dont want to miss a good time, a ----- good meeting, a good speaker, you just hafta come all the time. Never can tell when a treat is on tap.
Mr. Maize was natural, entertaining and enthusiastic in picturing the future "Where Russian River Meets The Redwood Highway".
This should be an objective for our Club forever more.

CONVENTION ECHOES: Our Licut. Governor, Bob Chisholm of Benj-
----- cia, will tell us to day of the big affair at Atlantic City. We need such inspiration as Bob is sure to give.
Dont razz Reub Baer any more than was done to Big Bill Hill of "Scotch by absorption" extract. That 'll be plenty. Reub broke away from the Canadian border to be on deck as Chairman to day.

INSTRUCTIONS: This is the good old summer time. While on your ----- vacation be sure to time all your punctures, blowouts etc, at some Kiwanis town, where you can make up your attendance. We are still running at a speed of 90 plus each month. Continue to give 'er the gas and keep up the good record.

MISFITS: "Stay in your own backyard". Eddie Byrn, regular ----- rounder of the "roughneck" table, couldn't get a hearing while trying to hobnob with the high hatters last week.
Hearing, in fact seems to be at a premium these days. However, so long as the noise is so budgeted that silence is given the principal speaker, the "sitchiation" is not so bad. Eddie will be back with his gang to day. Secretary.

FELLOW KIWANIAN: This letter is going to be a little dif----- ferent. But we must announce the Chairman, Earl Adams; and we would name the Speaker too, but Earl cannot be found, so suffice it to say that the program will be another crackerjack.

HOW TO HAVE A GOOD TIME IN KIWANIS: This is stressed in the ----- July Kiwanis Magazine.

Read a few excerpts: "Nature is a plant which needs watering every week".

Better come and get refreshed to day.

"The gang instinct is synonymous with youth".

We older ones may keep young in our "gang" gatherings every Tuesday.

"Kiwaniis is an old age preventative - a conservator of youth and life". No argument here.

"The formula for fun and fellowship can be stated succinctly in six words: Holler and grin; talk and sing".

Our boys already have this recipe down pat.

"Come early. Get a good start. Come planning some fun".

Yes, but too many are coming too late these days.

"Forget your business repressions -- you are in a gang now.
See if there is any real boy left in you".

There certainly was when those two old guys led in the Jersey cow.

"Do some talking as well as masticating".

Some of the "gang" do both at the same time.

"Dont meet in a great, big room". We dont. Secretary.

BELLOV KI ANIAN: In our last weekly letter, inadvertently, we ----- failed to pay our respects to Lieut. Governor,
"Bob" Chisholm. The big boss of our Division came over from Benicia to give us first hand information on the recent International Convention. Thanks, Bob, for your full and instructive report. Bob is a self-sacrificing, devoted and most efficient officer of Lieutenant rank. A good story teller, too, especially when elephants play a leading part.

FRED CAIRNS: Fred is ever in action. He will be heard from again
----- to day, -this time at the speaker's table. Our C.C.
Secretary-Manager is to be the big noise at this lunch hour. His talk is sure to be a treat. And this doesn't mean maybe. Fred has a line peculiar to his Emerald traditions. Come with your curiosity and listen to Fred. Chairman, speaker, - in fact the whole show.

CY ETHRIDGE: He of journalistic fame. Cyrus of the Tribune. The ----- jovial circumambulating "Cy". He opened our eyes on newspaper service, and particularly with respect to telephoto pictures. Cyrus, thanks a lot.

WHERE RUSSIAN RIVER AND REDWOOD HIGHWAY MEET:

'Tis summertime, and would you go where bells don't ring
nor whistles blow,
Nor clocks don't strike nor gongs don't sound, and you'd have stillness all around, -
Just don the bathing suit of blue, and bronze the skin
with russet hue,
And basque on Russian River sand at Digger Bend
or Merryland,
Our nature's own, Healdsburg's retreat, where river roads and redwoods meet.
