

THE BUILDER

Published Weekly by the Kiwanis Club of Healdsburg

TUESDAY

JULY 6, 1937

On the
Russian River
Redwood Highway

Lest we forget

Let us observe

Rev. E. E. Ingram of Santa Rosa will this day deliver a patriotic address on Independence Day. "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" will be sung with deep reverence for all that this day signifies. Fourth of July decorations will be displayed, as becomes a patriotic service organization.

As for firecrackers: well, that bombardment of last week perhaps may have sufficed.

Lee Hughes will act as Chairman of the Day. Here's hoping he'll get by as well as did Bill Massoni.

Speaking of Bill: he handled those "razzers" in perfect style. And his special refreshments were most palatable and invigorating.

Too bad Ed. Norton was robbed of the privilege to orate on his chosen theme, entitled, "Two Weeks Ago". Such an all-meaning subject should not have been so stifled by hoots and jeers and scoffs when there ^{were} some intelligent men anxious to imbibe profound words, such as Ed. canunload.

© yes: Re: Norton's corncob pipe. Lost and found, auctioned and bid in, - bids ranging from two cents to half a dollar. Back to original possessor for the sentimental price of 50 cents. So, still he goes - "puff, puff, puff, puffing along".

THE BUILDER

Published Weekly by the Kiwanis Club of Healdsburg

On the
Russian River
Redwood Highway

TUESDAY

JULY 13, 1937

Roy Henderson, chairman to day. Mr. L.J. Peterson, of Petaluma, is coming to talk on "Big Business". Mr. Peterson is a gentleman blessed with a sense of humor, and at the same time, he can be very serious in his duties as District Manager of the P.G. & E. We've heard him; you'll like him.

"1776 - 1937". A discourse of a high order, by Rev. E.E. Ingram last meeting. A fitting Fourth of July speech, instructive, patriotic, historical.

To our esteemed member John Stubbs: The Builder has a word of fellow-feeling because of the recent loss of your venerable mother. Welcome back from the East, John, Of course yours was not a pleasant journey.

During the editor's high life in the lofty mountains the other Ed. (Norton) will turn out such unique bulletins as to make for 100 per cent attendance and a corn cob laugh in every line.

-----)

()

()

(This unused space represents the "vacant)

(mind" of one who has fishing on the brain,)

("rainbows" in his eccentric fancies, and)

(all-round unstable mental equilibrium.)

()

()

()

THE BUILDER

Published Weekly by the Kiwanis Club of Healdsburg

On the

Russian River
Redwood Highway

VOX KIWANI

July 20

DISCATORIAL EULOGY

I know not what his case or crime may be,
I only know he left this d--- job to me,
He did plead fishing, a beautiful Rainbow plea,
He with his sunlit expressive eyes and his
brown and weatherly skin,
A plea to cancel a thousand lies, concerning
the size of the dorsal fin.
We men who judge him are old and grey
Our eyes and senses dim,
He brings the light of a warm spring day
To the Kiwanis meetings bear and grim,
Could he plead in a lovelier way?
We judges acquitt-ed Quinn.

The Chairman of the Day cries, "I am handicapped. I am not up to par. (bragging) I am green but not in a fairway." A fine song and dance for the great little Fry before we have the entry of Tom's four brothers, Mark, Dick, Earl and Fred. All are super salesmen and as a passing remark, it may be said that they all have materially aided in making the 19th hole safe for Democrats. Subject: Golf is not a game of chance but one of skill.

Watch your attendance, don't be a slacker to a great cause. Be present at this meeting or have a valid excuse for absence.

Thank you, Mr. L. J. Peterson, of Petaluma P.G.&E. fame, for your splendid talk on the advantages given to the public and employees by reputable large corporations.

Have you set aside all day Sunday, July 25th, 1937 to good fellowship? Place: Sweeten's River Garden; Activity: Kiwanis Annual Picnic. Enter into the spirit of the festivities, cooperate, help, give time and thought to put this over. This is your job-- don't let the fine reputation of this local club be jeopardized by your failure of duty.

THE BUILDER

Published Weekly by the Kiwanis Club of Healdsburg

On the
Russian River
Redwood Highway

TUESDAY

July 27, 1937

None other than our friendly A.P.A., the inimitable Larry Thatcher, editor of the Healdsburg Tribune, will be Chairman of the Day this coming Tuesday. He has for his speaker, Clyde Edmondson, General Manager of the Redwood Empire Association. Mr. Edmondson will take for his subject, "Tourist Possibilities of this section of the Redwood Empire". The speaker is well known throughout this district and his topic is of utmost importance to all of us. Let's have a good turnout for him.

Last Tuesday, you witnessed and heard the four golfing Fry brothers. The forty minutes of fine entertainment proved each to be a public speaker as well as golfers.

Tomorrow! Sunday! You have a date at Sweeten's River Garden. The Kiwanis picnic will be in full swing from early morn until after the cover of night. Have you done your duty as an active member on your committee? If not, act at once. Don't be a slacker and shirk. This is now our job, let's put it over.