A man of talent, learning and experience will speak to us today -our newest member, Dr. Herb Honor. Many are called but few are chosen so soon after induction to be our speaker. Bruno Bowling Lanes Rodello will be program chairman.

Our thanks to President Bud for the short and snappy convention report last week. We are sure the many other ideas he learned or experience will "percolate" through the ranks in the days and projects to come.

Two changes may be of interest: A change in the by-law of the Kiwanis eliminates privileged membership. Instead there will be "Senior Members". Senior Members will have to attend 12 meetings as a minimum per year. All present privileged memberships will be honored.

A new policy permits the membership to make up attendance at a regular Key Club meeting.

Membership goals will now provide for one new member for every five members now on the roster.

:: Now is the time to start planning to be at Anaheim on September 22, 23, and 24th.

:: "Some people use language to express thoughts, some to conceal thoughts, and others instead of thoughts."

As has often been our experience, some of our very best programs have been from our own members, so we are indebted to new member, Herb Honor for a most interesting program. Our thanks to Bruno and Herb for a most profitable Tuesday, July 23rd.

Bill Kassin will be program chairman today and we're not sure whether he will be bringing some suped-up 1963 model or something out of tomorrow in the 1964s.

There is nothing so powerful as an idea whose time has come!

"Our conventions give us a new view of Kiwanis, and a new shot of vitality." Pres. Bud.

:::

The caucus to nominate the next Lt. Governor will be held Aug. 15 at the Los Robles Lodge. Healdsburg will be boosting the candidacy of immediate past president, Tom Beahm. The meet will be a dinner meeting of delegates.

Cards from Finn Frisch tells us he is rather regular on make-ups as he tours Southern California. Although a privileged member he has sent in three attendance slips to date.

For those who need meeting make-ups, our attendance chairman would like you to know that the Willets Club is now a breakfast hour club and meets at 7 a.m. each Wednesday at the Hunters Inn.

Reservations for the District conclave at Anaheim on September 22-23-24th should be made real soon. You may see Betty
