TODAY'S PROGRAM -

Our best-known "hurler" will "throw" the program at us today. Kiwanian A. H. "Al" Valette has prevailed upon the state fish and game department to send a speaker on the control of deer.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM -

Is being arranged by Ira Rosenberg who promises something out of the ordinary.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM by Vincent Brown was highly interesting and his story of the California Aboriginal certainly illustrated the point that we are prone to judge unjustly when we do not have all the facts, and then as we learn more, we learn to look upon them with more compassion. Thanks, Dr. Phil for bringing us Mr. Brown.

Along the K Trail: Bill Kassin has everyone polishing up their woods and irons and getting ready for the hole-in-one contest slated for September 26 & 27 and October 3 & 4. The winner gets a $100 bond and there is a load of other prizes from the Healdsburg merchants. The ladies will have their day on Thursday. Should be a real fund raiser for the club. Dr. Eddie Beeson, Waldo I., Arnold S., Gene Kuntz and Earl Hupp are all assisting Bill on the general committee. . . . Remember the 100% attendance month for September! The Board of Directors spent some time Tuesday night on other ideas for raising funds with X-Pres. Bud presiding at the session at Jerry M's.

SPIRITUAL QUOTATION: "I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart." This is the gift that all anxious parents desire. It takes the wisdom and understanding of Solomon to keep families together and happy. (-1 Kings 3:12)

TODAY'S PROGRAM -

Our program today will be a double-header. Ira Rosenberg has arranged for an excellent program and in addition, 26 of the most important people in our community will be our guests - teachers new to the area. There will be 19 new to the high school and 7 to the elementary district. Santa Rosa will also be in attendance for an inter-club.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM -

Al Underhill will bring us a program on one of his favorite subjects - the Powder Puff Derby.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM by Harley Grove, who is well known to every sportsman in the area, gave some interesting background and developments in the deer preservation program in California. Our thanks to Al Valette for arranging the program.

Along the K Trail: Remember it's September-for-Sure for that 100% attendance month for our club. "Ferinstance"- Waldo I. made four meetings on his vacation and made two meetings in one day. So with the effort and dedication ours can be the 100% banner. District Convention in Sacramento on Tuesday, Sept. 29th will be highly interesting. Sounds like our delegation to the Giants-Phillies lost their grip in the 10th. Mighty-fine grandpappies -Bill Reynolds and Stan McNulty. Time to get in shape for the hole-in-one tourney Bill Kassin & Co. are putting on for us. If you are too out-shaped, then practice the little lady up on her golf -they have a special day, Oct. 1.

SPIRITUAL QUOTATION:

TODAY'S PROGRAM -

We may be up in the clouds today but it will be delightful. Mrs. Phillip (Becky) Lightfoot will fill us in on the Powder Puff Derby in which she was a very successful entrant this year. Al Underhill will be the Kiwanian of the day and chair the program.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM was a delight with a couple of dozen teachers new to the districts to dine with us. The speaker of the day was real estate entrepreneur Bill Jaynes from Santa Rosa who spoke against Proposition 14. Our thanks to Ira for arranging this thought-provoking program.

IT'S NO SECRET -THE CONTEST STARTS THIS WEEK-END,

Along the K Trail: It was delightful to have such a goodly turn-out on the inter-club from Santa Rosa to help us greet our new teachers. If you noticed in the Tribune last week, Waldo has given his shirt for the Hole-in-One contest -he may do even better at this week's luncheon. Morry Dorr was wielding the frying pan in a mean manner this week-end as he fed volunteer workers on the boy scout camp. Remember September-forSure for 100% attendance month!

SPIRITUAL QUOTATION: "Love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind."

TODAY'S PROGRAM -

Will feature a "U. N. Pilgrimage" by Janice Bonham. Bob Malone will be the Kiwanian of the day and has arranged the program.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM was delightful with Phyllis Cantrell and Becky Lightfoot, who placed 10th in the Powder Puff Derby this year, relating their first-hand experiences in the derby. Al Underhill was chairman - our many thanks for the program.

Along the K Trail: Russ Stevens heads up our Golden Anniversary Committee. Pres. Ernie reminds us that 200 fruit cakes will soon be arriving to be the main ingredient of a fund raising feature. We think it real thotful of the Tribune to send along $1 for Waldo, who it turns out, had given more than his shirt to the Hole-in-One Contest. An invitation to good fishing and hunting has been extended to members of the club from former director, Bud Knutson, who has just been inducted into the Downtown Kiwanis Club at Klamath Falls. Bud is in good company as the club has 110 members and was winner of the International Gold Award in '60. Bud keeps up his bowling interest with a Wed. and a mixed Fri. league with Lorine. In addition to bowling, he makes some money as a wheel with the U. S. National Bank at Klamath Falls. You may find him at 5106 Walton Drive.
