PROGRAM LAST WEEK:

Last week's Installation Night went off like clock work, thanks to the thorough planning of past Pres. Ed. For those of you who were unable to attend, you missed a good meeting. In addition to the Changing of the Guard, awards for Perfect Attendance were given to a dozen or more members ranging from 1-15 years of perfect attendance. Leading the club was Ellis Harms with a pin for 15 years of Perfect Attendance. Congratulations to Ellis & all who received their pins, wear them proudly.

Also Special Recognition was given to the "Kiwanian of the Year" Waldo Iverson. Past Pres. Ed acknowledged the many jobs Waldo did on behalf of our club - Congratulations again Waldo.

PROGRAM THIS WEEK:

Fred Haley will be the Program Chairman. See you at the meeting.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING OCT. 14th:

New Board Members & Old Board Members don't forget the 1st meeting of the New Kiwanis year tonight. Place: Past Pres. Ed's home
1024 Harold Lane

Kiwanis International Theme of "Touch A Life" is within the reach of each club member. Keep it in the forefront for application each day. There are many in our community who could use a helping hand.

1975-1976 MAJOR EMPHASIS PROGRAM:

"The Younger Years" - A service program on behalf of children with learning disabilities.
"The Greater Years" - A service program on behalf of the aging & those in their pre-retirement years. Where can you contribute to either of these programs?

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM acting chairman was "Rog" Christensen. Rog presented Norman Macht from one of the Santa Rosa Stock and Bond houses to talk about impressions gained from a year's stay in England. Mr. Macht's talk created a great deal of interest, and although it gave only one man's feelings about England it was delivered with such certainty that it made his listeners forget that after all it represented but one man's feelings.

THERE WAS LOTS of other activity, last Tuesday, but your "fill-in" editor wasn't warned soon enough to enable him to take notes. He does, however, remember that there was a birthday song, and thrown napkins, and good fellowship--and poor enough attendance to make him yearn for some of the old 100%, or almost, attendance days.

VERN BRANCH gave out the checks for winnings at the State Bowling Tournament. They were unusually larger and if the recipients remember to "tithe" to Kiwanis our treasury will bulge. Maybe President Ed can jog their memories when he $fines$ in the usual minor key.

TODAY'S PROGRAM CHAIRMAN is Mario Brovelli. His speaker is to be Ed Brouillard, Department Manager of the Title Insurance and Trust Company of Santa Rosa. Mr. Brouillard will talk about the theory and history of Title Insurance.

REMEMBER: Tuesday is Kiwanis Day--Wear your Kiwanis Pin; or else!

THE PROGRAM for this week was very much a question when this bulletin was written. Vice President Roger was still trying to land a program chairman for the meeting, when last contacted.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM CHAIRMAN, John Short, presented Ed Broullard from the Title Insurance and Trust Company of Santa Rosa. Mr. Broullard gave a very informative explanation of Title Insurance, its history, services rendered and recent changes in the operations of Title Insurance Companies. He said that "title search" goes back to the time of the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo when land in California had either been acquired through a Spanish or Mexican grant or was U. S. Government land. Title Insurance is designed to protect both the buyer of property and any lending agency that might be involved.

JOHN UBOLDI and Bill Clayton are both one year older and one dollar poorer as a result of a birthday, last week.

CONGRATULATIONS TO BILL CLAYTON and his wife on the addition of a fine, young man in their family. The forty-three dollars collected, last week, when matched by Bill, will start Junior out with a nice little savings account

THE NEXT BOARD OF DIRECTORS meeting will be held at the home of President Ed Burke on Nov. 5th. Good chance for a make-up.

SEVERAL RESOLUTIONS were passed at the last Kiwanis International Convention, suggesting programs to be emphasized during the coming year. Some of these are:

1. Assist in programs set up to identify learning disabilities in pre-school children.
2. Assist in programs for our Senior Citizens.
3. Service to the Youth in our community.
4. A reaffirmation by Kiwanians in a faith in the democratic progress.
5. Take an interest in programs which are helping to solve such problems as alcoholism, drug abuse, and venereal disease.

DON'T FORGET TO WEAR YOUR KIWANIS PIN!!

I WONDER IF Ken Gonsalves was suggesting a "Streaker" to improve attendance at our meetings??
