Program for November 10th meeting - Harry Tappin will be program chairman and will have Mike Mulligan of the California State Highway Patrol as his speaker. Mr. Mulligan will speak on the, "Past, Present, and Future of the State Highway Patrol."

Ladies Page - Attached to "The Builder" this week is the first of the bulletins for the wives of Kiwanians. Other bulletins, designed to help our wives get better acquainted and play a more active part in Kiwanis activities, will follow in weeks to come.

The club was in fine voice last week. No doubt the new song books had much to do with this improvement. Our thanks to Elmer for the new books and also for his piano playing which helps a great deal. Our song leaders also do an excellent job.

There are a number of Kiwanians that still haven't paid their money for the "Hole in One" project a few weeks ago. If you haven't paid your $5.00 to Bob Rose, please do so as soon as possible. There are also several members who were on the losing team for the Pancake Breakfast who did not pay their share for the barbecue for the winners.

WE BUILD

NOVEMBER 23, 1971

Last week's program again gave us a picture of the fine youth of this country who outnumber, so greatly, the ones who get the bad publicity. Roger Christenson brought Len Andis, area director of "Young Life", an international, non-profit, non-denominational organization which works with high school age youth to give them an informal way to meet and "rap" with adults and learn about Jesus Christ. Santa Rosa has a club program involving about 300 youths. Main presentation was a color movie on the organization's summer program at Malibu in Canada.

Next week, Don Oakleaf has arranged a program in keeping with the Thanksgiving Season. A musical treat will be songs by the primary grades from St. John's School. Principal speaker will be the Rev. Bob Jones, pastor of the Guerneville Community Church, who is touted by Rev. Bill Hayes to be young, interesting and humorous.

Congratulations to Bob Durler, who has just been elected President of the Sonoma County Association of Insurance Agents.

Waldo Iversen reported that approx. 35 Kiwanians and guests signed up for the Sebastopol Charter night held last Friday at the Union Hotel in Occidental.

"Mitch" Mitchell and his fellow workers on the Pop Warner football team are to be congratulated upon the fine showing of the Healdsburg team, which in its first season tied with Cloverdale for the championship. In the last league game, it beat Point Arena by 33-0. It has been invited to a "bowl" game at Ukiah on Sunday the 21st.

Fred Haley, campaign chairman for Healdsburg's "United Crusade", reminds us that this organization is now conducting its campaign. Anyone who feels that such organizations as the Salvation Army, Boy Scouts, Red Cross, Boy's Club and other Social organizations supported by the Crusade should exist should see that they contribute their fair share. Proceeds of an hour's work a month is not much of a contribution for such worthy purposes.

KIWANIANS ASKED TO ASSIST AMER. FIELD SERVICE

Bud Christensen announced a fund raising project by the American Field Service Committee for the holiday season. Local people are asked to not send Christmas cards to friends in Healdsburg and to take the money saved and give it to the A.F.S. The names of those donating would be published in the local paper.

 TOP RATING FOR HEALDSBURG CLUB **

It was good to hear our Lt. Governor report that Healdsburg ranked number one among the clubs in our division for the first month of the new year. We had 96 out of a possible 100 points.

PROGRESS REPORT ON RECREATION PROJECT

Bob Rose brought the club up to date on the recreation project the club hopes to carry out during the coming year. The children's playground would be located on city property in the Solar Terrace area of the city. We will learn more about it in the near future.

LADIES PAGE

TO KIWANIANNES:

Donna, Diana, and Myrtle (if you don't know their last names, look them up in The Builder) and working very hard to make the Nov. 21st Thanksgiving Dinner Dance a success. You too can help by attending and bringing some of your friends as guests

Let's get those husbands of ours out for an evening together. If we don't all dance as well as we did a few years ago, we can at least watch, talk, or even get a card game going in some corner of the hall. Don't pass up this opportunity for a good time.

Some of our gals are going to the U.C.-Stanford game on the day of the dance. Why not come back home after the game to celebrate among your friends and tell the others about the game??

Diana Rodella and Evelyn Iversen have collected the following information from the Kiwaniannes and hope you enjoy reading about their summer activities, families, etc. Those who made the bus trip to Reno wrote their own notes for us - others we 'phoned, some we were unable to reach. We didn't intentionally miss anyone, tried very hard to contact all. Hope to reach the others next time. These were on the bus and following is what they wrote for us:

AUBURN DECKER: spent a wonderful 10 day vacation at Lake Tahoe with our son, daughter, son-in-law and two grand children (ages 3 & 1 yrs.) Accomplished a great deal in our yard, and bid a fond farewell to our son Mark who left for the Navy in July.

MYRT MITCHELL: I went to Idaho-"fun" Ho Ho.

CHARLOTTE SILVEIRA: 3 children, Scott 6 yrs, Shauna & Karen, twin girls, 3 yrs. old. I attended summer school this summer and am giving full time now towards a teaching credential.

DONNA BURKE: Finished planting the back yard and mothered Anthony & Victoria.

FRAN CARSON: Week at Shasta, long week-ends at Reno, Carson City & Tahoe.

BOOCH AIKIN: In mid-June I left as navigator and cook with Relzy in our little trailer (Casalita) for a swing through the Tetons, Yellowstone, Glacier, Banf, Lak Louise, Vancouver and home down the coast.

KAREN TAPPIN: Our summer was centered around childrens activities, since we have . We had swimming lessons & Babe Ruth baseball. Our childrens names and ages are: Herman 13, Lauree 7, Natalee 3, Cheree 2.

VERNA BIDWELL: When my grandson, Kevin Allen visited me this summer I got him and Mark Mitchell interested in golf. On their first round by themselves, they came in for a glass of water and they had another little boy with them. When they returned I said, "Who was that little boy that played golf with you?" Kevin said, "Oh, he didn't play golf with us, he was our caddy!"

JO OSBORN: 2 children, 4 grandchildren. Went to Hiawaii. Spent a lot of time at Anchor Bay making abalone jewelry.

CHRIS LANGHART: Abbuual Dunsnuir GOOD FISHING TRIP, visited the Iversens, (who were also fishing) one day. Ed disposed of one good station wagon. Have new husband -- resembles olf one!

VIRGIE CADOSI: Had a very pleasant summer. Spent some weekends baby sitting grand-children, Bryan almost 3 and his new little brother Eric, born Apr. 23. Truly know why only the young have children! Had a fun week attending a Sea Scape Class at the Mendocino Art Center.

VIVIAN HALL: guest of Kiwanis member Jin Clarke who reports she is the best slot machine puller from Healdsburg.

HAMIE JOHNSON: spent a few days in Redway with their son.
