THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM -

Our seafarin' friend, Vad Jelton, hadn't even time to pull up his anchor until he was invited to return and finish his cruisin' tale. To do the honors, Al Valette will be the Kiwanian-of-the-Day.

SPECIAL NOTE

Directors are reminded that tonight is Board meeting time -at 7:30 p.m. Also a good time for members needing make-ups to attend and get credit.

...

Committee chairmen are reminded that it is report time again. Hand to Sec'y.

ALONG THE K T-R-A-I-L:

Now it's official -our won Jerry Hodges won the Hole-in-One. Since the 16 inch-from-the-cup shot was made by a left-handed player with a right-handed club by a real novice (by his own confession) we are not sure if this set the game back 10 years or whether the greens will now be invaded by hundreds of those of dubious skill. . . In any event, golf widows may now be putting the padlock on any of those extra practice sessions.

GET READY FOR THE DINNER DANCE

All is set for the November 12th (Saturday) extravaganza by the club.

7 - 8 p.m. - Social Hour
8 p.m. - Dinner hour to be followed by danceable music.

Entertainment Committee - Jerry Hodges
Refreshment table - Jim Steele
Dining Room - Arnold Santucci
Co-Chairmen - Jerry Miller - Ken G.
Tickets - Ed Burke

Tickets will be available today -$5.50 each

HEALDSBURG KEY CLUB

Tom Rodella - President
Alan Pettit - Vice President
David Nelson - Secretary-Treasurer

We congratulate this outstanding group of officers who have been elected by the Key Club to serve for the 1966-67 school year. They were installed Tues. by former Lt. Gov. Tom Beahm.

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM -

Our every busy, ever traveling president will present the program today. He plans to give the high points of all the meetings, conferences, conventions, conflabs, conclaves, and cons this and cons that, that he has attended in the last two months.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM -

This will be a special Thanksgiving program with music and the spoken word. Plan to bring a prospective member.

Along the K T-R-A-I-L: We were real honored -Lt.Gov.-Elect Mike Turnick visited us Tuesday. All members should plan to attend the installation of the Lt. Gov. on Thursday at the Los Robles -12 noon. Now is the time to invite your farmer friend for the Farm-City program on Nov. 29th. Our congratulations also to Key Club Advisors Stiles & Adams and our Key Club Chairman Jerry Hodges (also of Hole-in-One fame). An Inter-Club a week ago with Willits leaves only a visit to Ukiah to complete the round robin of inter-clubs. We hear Prexy Ken is considering tatooing the bell and gavel on his arm as the only alternate to hiring a guard. We were real honored to have such a fine group of clean cut young men turn out to represent the Key Club Tues. -not a beedle haircut in the crowd. . It was also refreshing to hear the speaker say that work is a spiritual value and to go on and add service and morality to the list. .

Sacrifice alone is fruitful; love alone shall last. Tongues shall cease and knowledge may vanish away, but love never faileth -love of God, love of righteousness and truth and justice, love of one's native land.
