

1 - 7 - 30

Fellow Kiwanian:

Well, the big New Year noise is over. Jazz horns, and kindred contraptions, your "mouldering sounds decay".

Those overtures of ragtime tempo were engineered by Impressario, Frank Sohler. We know now that the "Doc" has an educated ear for music. For these well selected instruments were of his own careful choosing. Creations of a high order, and low too, -all pitched in the required keys for the grand concert, now of past memory.

As for the rendition of the sharps, flats, naturals, and the contrary, only the heaviest parts constituted what you would call classic, -and these the inspiration of Fred Kinley.

Those two Docs sure have talent. But what has to do about Tuesday night?

THIS TUESDAY NIGHT, JAN. 7TH, 1930, 7-30.

"Fob Chishelm and a score of brave Benicia boys are coming all the way over to put on the Installation of officers.

Big Bob, our new Lieutenant Governor. He will "ring out the old, ring in the new, administration.

All ye 40 Kiwanians of Healdsburg, come and meet, come and greet BENICIA.

THIS TUESDAY NIGHT, 7-30 SHARP.

The Secretary,

Ed. Quinn.

1 - 14 - 30

Fellow Kiwanian:

Benicia has come and gone.

And O, what pep, what action.

Plausible explanation: That 72 mile ride through exhilarating air.

Be that as it may, given about 20 of those Benicia boys, plus one Rube Baer, in his stellar role,

"The Fassalacqua Family"

And you are sure to "see some noise" .

Bob Chisholm, as Lieut. Governor, your debut impressed us. Your talk was superb.

The inter-club meet at Cloverdale was a good, wholehearted, and instructive event. Eighteen of our boys went up, took part, enjoyed, and returned with praise for Cloverdale Rotary.

Now let's see what's ahead.

THAT ATTENDANCE CONTEST DINNER. And this doesn't mean "lunch". It means a big robust, rounded out SEVEN COURSE DINNER.

Fellow Kiwanian:

TO-DAY IS

TUESDAY: We flock together once' again.
Bring your umbrellas and drive away the once-welcomes rain.

Bring some ideas along, too. For, on this day our ~~our~~ talent may not be of the imported brand.

ANYHOW:

There'll be no slack time.
A few of the boys are "rainin' to go" that the filling in act may be properly put on.

Let's show the outside world that we have independence, talent, NERVE.

THE CONTEST DINNER:

'Twas put on and financed by as game a bunch of losers as ever lost a game.

You ELEVEN absentees were out of luck in being on the sick list, out of town, or just plain "elsewhere".

Riverside Villa proved to be the proper place.
Bill Rumbold's engineering was perfection itself.

Long distance talks across the ocean, that most satisfying dinner, and all-round service were par excellence.

THAT LITTLE KIWANIAN:

Donald Rae is now on the waiting list. Waiting to be fully fledged. Waiting for the little bank account to grow.

A fine thought of Irving Rhoades, was this little financial start for the baby boy, son of our own Ki-wanian, Elmer Stenquist.

ANNIVERSARY DAY:

Kiwanis is exactly fifteen years old this day. But very big for its age. And Very wonderful, too, we think.

This occasion should call for due recognition
by us all.

O, yes; Al. Garrett will be Chairman. Nearly forgot.

Ed. Quinn, Secretary.

THE HEALDSBURG KIWANIS CLUB
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

1 -27- 30

Fellow Kiwanians:

Here's hoping this mimeo may be an improvement. Thanks to modern facilities.

Al. GARRETT:

Always a good chairman, with or without an outside speaker. Last week Al. was without, and he got by swimmingly, too.

HAROLD MILLER:

In his "History of Kiwanis" the past president furnished enlightenment and instruction. A fitting anniversary talk.

GEO. WARFIELD:

The chairman for today. George has just closed a deal in southern Sonoma whereby we all are to be the beneficiaries, share and share alike, to wit:

MOE GOLDMAN:

George produces this Merchant Prince of Petaluma to tell us of Civic Upbuilding, or something kindred thereto. This man, "Moe" is a steel cut kingpin in business, civic, and social circles. There'll be no slack time when said gentlemen gets under way.

HARMONY:

An element which continues to rule in Healdsburg Kiwanis. Free from factions, foes and FEUDS. Unlike the two quarrelsome men from Texas,

JIM SHOTT AND JACK NOTT:

A little out of harmony, these two fought a duel, in which Nott was shot, and Shott was not.

FINIS:

Making up attendance is going on very well. Better still, patronize your home Club at any and every time possible. Yours for a good attendance today.

Secretary.
