February 8th Meeting: Vince was alone at the head table but still had all the ladies as his Valentines after opening with his Thought For The Day - With all the beauty here I didn't know angels flew so low. A "memorable" rendition of "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" was sung by the membership in honor of our Valentine guests. The entertainment was an excellent classical and flamenco guitarist, Mark Taylor. If anyone needs a worthy additon to a wedding, party, etc. give Mark a call at 431-2510. He can be heard again at an evening of flamenco music and dance, Lincoln Arts Center in Santa Rosa, on Friday, February 25th, at 8:00 p.m. Call Mark for tickets ($10). Thanks to: Evelyn Iversen for the camellia table decorations, Jerry Strong for the flowers for our Valentine chefs in the kitchen, Vince Dougherty for the entertainment, Al Rochester for handling the tickets.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Call Bruno Rodella if you can make an interclub on March 12th in Ft. Bragg. This will be an overnight with wives celebrating St. Patrick's Day. Dinner is $8 and you will stay at the Harbor Lights Hotel.

Another reminder was given that the Governor's dinner is scheduled for Friday, February 11th at Los Robles at 7 p.m.

Cal Brigham won the lottery for the very first time.

Please give Tad Curtis some help on the Science Fair at the Armory on Thursday, March 24th. He will have the sign-up sheet for a variety of floor and table host shifts again at the next meeting. Also on the 15th Vince will have our tickets to sell for the Pancake Breakfast and $5 raffle tickets supporting Project Graduation.

Saturday, March 5th is the Healdsburg Athletic Hall of Fame at the Villa ($25 for dinner). Let's support our new Hall of Fame inductee, Clarence Ruonavaara.

There is still time to sign-up for the Petaluma oyster feast on Tuesday, February 22nd. Let Ernie Biasotti know if you can make it.

Another "successful" interclub was held with Sebastopol - despite the fact that our foursome went on Friday and they actually meet on Tuesday.

HAPPY/SAD DOLLARS: Bob Young - a very happy dollar for being able to come to the meeting. Tad Curtis - a very sad dollar for forgetting to bring his wife to the Valentine lunch. Win Engvall - a happy dollar for completing his jury duty obligation in a few hours. He is now off the rolls for 2 years. Clarence Ruonavaara - happy dollars for his 48th anniversary and his Hall of Fame selection. Vince Dougherty - a happy dollar for being named godfather for Rick Alves' grandchild. Lee Gunnerson owes a sad dollar for printing Clarence Rotlisberger instead of Clarence Ruonavaara in last week's bulletin.

VALENTINE WINNERS: Allen and Addie Owens have been married the longest (60 years) which won a manicure for Addie. Bob and Donna Young won 2 tickets to the Raven for being the most recently married - 2 years. Erle and Pat Cook won a dinner for two at Samba Java - the second most children, grandchildren and great grandchildren - 23. Allen and Addie Owens graciously passed up the award despite having 24.
