PROGRAM TO DAY: Mr. Chas. Mariner, field representative of the ----- U.S. chamber of commerce, will address us. His wife is a Healdsburg girl. He must be a man of good tastes. Hence, an interesting discourse awaits us. He comes through the efforts of Ired Cairns, himself C.C. de lux man of Healdsburg. Killarney Ired will wield the shillalah (Irish for gavel) and award the attendance prize.

LAST MEETING: The reporters say it was good; that Mr. Harry ----- Lutgens fittingly extolled the virtues or the Redwood Empire; that the prize giving provoked much interest, etc.
 "Ye Editor" was faithfully keeping his enforced engagement at home,
 so thanks to the "staff" for flashing the news.

BILL & JOB: It seems that these antagonistics had their usual ----- run in, as was to be expected. It is tradition and modern practice of this club that when the one is Chairman, the other is sure to be the attendance prize winner. No two ways about it. It is a foregone conclusion - prize drawing being perfectly on the square (?) notwithstanding.

O, YOU CHAIRMEN: Lest you forget, "hear ye" are. Hope this remind----- er may sink in. Henceforth you should be rarin'
 to go:

PUBLIC AFFAIRS: J. T. Coffman; AGRICULTURE: J. F. Kinley; PROGRAM:
 R. B. Stevens; ATTENDANCE: M. A. Hill; FINANCE: E. B. Rosenberg; CLASSIFICATION: J. L. Morgan; INTER-CLUB RELATIONS: F. D. Darby; MEMBERSHIP: H. K. Miller; MUSIC: J. I. Rhoades; EDUCATION: E. Kent;

ONCE AGAIN: How these meetings do roll around - as if a day
----- apart. It seems but yesterday since we listened to that impressive talk by Charles Mariner of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. The hubub of that noisy bunch during the first half hour is still ringing in our ears. And the unusual event - the Chairman of the Day receiving a prize - yet very fresh in our memory. Leave it to Fred Cairns to come right back. "Tell Russ Stevens", says he, "that I'll put the Belfast Herald to the very best of use".

WHAT FOR TO DAY? Well, it's just something else. An inter-club
----- meet. Santa Rosa will be here with a program as follows: Rev. George Atkinson from Sebastopol will deliver a Lincoln Day address. Then, too, the affair is to be spiced with musical numbers by the Misses Frances and Pauline Sparks. Strange, isn't it? how our Inter-club committeeman can always get in touch with up to date talent like this. Even their names smack with a sweet melody of music. Floyd says that if you want a treat, come and hear Miss Pauline whistle; and that Frances, in her own chosen numbers, will captivate the boys.

DISCIPLINE: Of course some of you defendants will wonder what ----- the charge is now. Don't be scared. It's going to be probation for a while. But to come to the point. Our boys look forward to a good time each week. And that should be. Keep it up. No one will discourage it for a moment. But hereafter, don't you think it will be just alright to "pipe in" at the psychological time, rather than to give no heed to what already may be under way? Why not come to day resolved to give the other fellow a chance - INCLUDING THE PRESIDING OFFICER. His work is easy, or difficult, according to your own attention, or want thereof.
Think it over, boys.

TUESDAY

PROGRAM: The speaker for to day will be Mr. L. J. Peterson from Petaluma city. This gentleman is most entertaining on the floor, or elsewhere, - gifted with a sense of humor, and withal, forceful and clear of expression. You will like him. Mr. Peterson occupies the post of Dist. representative for the P. O. & E. Darl Adams will act as Chairman of the Day.

THE INTER-CLUB MEET: Santa Rosa did well in bringing the Rev. George Atkinson, the Lincoln Day speaker. Hither, too, came the Sparks sisters, of distinctive musical talent. The talk was most appropriate and inspiring; and the Misses Frances and Pauline from the city of roses were just "charming", as the Van Porters would say. No wonder our youngster Kiwanians are so keen to make up their meetings in the home city of these two little girls in blue.

WORKING TOGETHER: A creditable effort of the local Lions is the establishment of the milk fund in the interests of the needy ones. Kiwanis dimes, quarters, et cetera, to the tune of $7.50 - all appropriately dropped in the milk bottle - furnished by our associate service club will help just that much. This, at our meeting two weeks ago. Come back again, ye of ferocious names and charitable hearts, for Kiwanis cooperation.

GLEE CLUB IN SIGHT: Aint this sumpun? Well, it's in the making. The first notes of such an organization were sounded by a few of our men of voices just after our last meeting. Now, ye basses and tenors, after this publicity you simply mut make good, and give to the Healdsburg club a much to be desired adjunct which we should have had long ago. Your melodies will serve to soften those guttural-voiced chin musicians who take for their key each tinkling of the gong. More effective by far than past admonitions in "The Builder". O, STREET MUSIC, WHAT A POWER THOU HAST.

THE FOLLOWING TO DAY:

The "Father of our Country" will be given suitable recognition through the mediun of Ned Kent's screen pictures. Supplementing this, a high school quartette of musicians with their wind instruments are to blow melodious blasts for our entertainment - an attractive feature. Ned, be it said, will act as Chairman of the Day.

MARCH NINTH:

Promptly at 4 P.M. opens the first Division meeting of the year. It means a gathering of all the clubs of our own sphere for interchange of ideas, and to effect closer contact, each club, each man, with the other. Ladies will be entertained while the afternoon session goes on. Cards, we understand. The evening program promises to be superb. Who will not make the effort to hear those San Francisco Kiwanian singers, under the leadership of the one and only Howard Milholland? Dinner and inspirational talks are a matter of course. Plan to go WITH YOUR LADIES.

WANTED:

Two honest men for each meeting, - a chairman who is on the square with respect to awarding the attendance prize; and any other fellow, not an accomplice, to correctly read the fifth name drawn from the hat. "The Builder" runs this ad. by request. Some say there is opportunity for improvement here. Some even hint at a "frame up", willfully, maliciously, and unlawfully committed. Maybe so. But who would deny a tiny token to a pretty girl who comes to charm us with her voice or beauty? Ted Kellogg says: "Not I".

ATTENDANCE:

Two or three still we have who aim to just get by through the process of attending about one half of the meetings. This hurts our otherwise excellent record. Perk up, you fellows, and be good from now on. We're double checking this year. I FORGOT TO STATE THAT THE DIVISION MEETING WILL BE AT VALLEJO.
