FEBRUARY, SIXTH,

TUESDAY

Fred Kinley, Chairman. Mr. Harwood Stump, Scoutmaster of Troop, 24, will be the speaker. A number of Scouts will be present, this being primarily a Scouts program.

Probation Officer, Phil Becklund, commanded the close attention of all present last week, in his discourse on Crimes and Their Punishment, or Treatment. Sonoma County should be proud of Kiwanian Phil, in his very important capacity.

Interesting report on the Presidents' Convention by Vice-President Paul Crabb. He and President Earle evidently were inspired by the deliberations.

Now, that the By-Laws have been brought up to date we can work minus a clouded conscience. Jess did a thorough job of it.

The "March of Dimes" seems to be marching on under Hick's command.

The Kiwanis entertainments, Feb. 1-2, proved to be an artistic knockout. Here again, Jess was the moving spirit. If a few shekles were gathered in, the committee will report.

From time to time during this year of elections we can expect candidates for office to seek time for their "non-political" speeches. Too much care cannot be exercised by a service club against such possible impositions.

Because of death in a Kiwanis family three members were necessarily absent last meeting. As for the other absentees - well, boys, do try to do better in the future. Twice in succession is not so good; three times is BAD.

Al's great sorrow will be softened by his legion of friends.

"Building the West"
"Pacific Industries" will be featured in films, this meeting. Program under the direction of the Standard Oil Company of California. John McClish will do his coming out act as chairman. Let's give the "Doc" a real debut reception. J. P. Acton, Speaker

If time permits President Earle will give his reaction on the recent Presidents' Conference.

And too, we're not going to forget Abraham Lincoln. Last year it was humorous anecdotes. This time one of Paul Crabb's boy disciples will dwell for a time on the Great Emancipator.

At Cloverdale, next week (Thursday), another patriot, George Washington, will come in for respectful attention. Fair warning: protect your attendance record, for that will be our regular meeting. Wives and friends expected.

The Boy Scouts meeting last week went over in a very big way. Scoutmaster, Harwood Stump, was elegant, excellent, eloquent - one of the best ever speeches. And those "Cubs"! These midgets were a knockout. Little Bob Kilpatrick knew his lengthy lines; and how the troop did put it over!

HUMOR 'BOUT A SECRETARY

If he:

Writes a letter, it's too long; sends a post card, that's all wrong.
Submits reports, O, how ding dong! Taboo is his home made song.
Rests a bit, then he's "N G". Keeps his mouth shut, dumb is he.
Talks a little stern and cross, that means he surely wants to boss.
Asks advice, sure he's a Mutt, - slipping, loco, nothing BUT.
Duns the members, - that insults. For what care these about results?
Mails bulletin not quite on time, the multitude lets out a ~~whine.~~
They may even berate and hiss at classic literature like this.
Against the guy intrigue is laid. He's underworked and overpaid.
So, what the hellzee can he do but like his job, and love it too?

TUESDAY

FEBRUARY 27, 1940

This Saturday morning, just on the eve of a week-end recreation, the editor is more inclined to the thoughts of pleasurable anticipation than to mimeo-ing a weekly letter. He has just parted company with Ed. Norton and "Dutch" Flohr, and they have inspired him to write these sentiments. "Andy" Anderson and Floyd Darby say the same.

So, under these circumstances not much can be expected in this tome.

BUT, mention of the tri-club meet at Cloverdale on Washington's Birthday must be made. A gathering great and grand. Our club was represented well, with members, wives and friends. We did our stuff in singing under Owen's eloquent baton. Jess and Ben were in the lime-light, and the turkey feed was grand. Charlie Reichel for the Rotary put it on in finest style. AND that speech of Dr. Reynolds was truly up to snuff. Washington is ever remembered with the Healdsburg Kiwanis club. A fine meet.

And for this Tuesday meeting Mr. Mell. L. Rucker will be here - he of the Railway Express Company, in pictures of the Golden Gate Exposition, and what may be seen at the Fair of Nineteen Forty.

This week, the 28th, Division meet at Valejo city. Who, and just how many will attend of our fold will be ascertained to day.

Welcome back to day our former and distinguished member, the proxy of the elementary schools. Charlie, we've missed your tenor in Working On The Railroad.
