With bib, bottle and nipple our youngest baby Kiwanian was ushered into Kiwanis last Tuesday - Frank Henrotte, of the Tribune sanctum. Frank promises to be a right smart member - when he's fully weaned. And what rich publicity we should continue to have!

A first rate 100 per cent meeting a week ago. Each of the three old Druids of the Order did his stuff at the speaker's table - banker, barrister and postmaster.

The delegates' apple cart was upset somewhat. Too big a schedule for one short meet. More from the Conventioneers later on.

While two or three are falling out two or three are falling in. A couple of live prospects in the offing. More bibs, more bottles, in a week or two.

Directors meet this Thursday.

Where are those committee reports for January? Demands the Secretary.

IN THE NEWS

"Design for Happiness"

Sounds well for a subject, to day. This, via movie-sound film, as per Chairman "Em" Meyer.

At the controls will be H.M. Leech.

"They say" it's captivat<sup>i</sup>n' -

This February 4th, 1941

Speaker, John A. Dehaanberger

A miracle! A problem has at last been solved! Those place cards worked. Henceforth there'll be a separation of "buddies" who've been anchored sid<sup>e</sup> by each each meeting day. Just like the ground hog which yesterday searched for his shadow, so you, disrupted clannish man, search for your seat again to day. Seek and you shall find.

Most obsequiously does Elmer introduce the guests. Another stunt that works. And by the way, who said our stunt committee doesn't function?

In closing, let's say Earl Showers is a clever cuss - a card at last meeting. Takes The Squire to harpoon such talent as Earl.

THREE	AT	BAT
"Baldy" is lead off man, and is bound to get to first base in his Kiwanis Twenty Fifth Anniversary speech. We celebrate this event to day in home talent fashion	"Hick" is due for a base on balls in his dissertation on the UNDERPRIVILEGED CHILD. This will advance "Baldy" to second base Good start for a good inning. And now comes            Come and hear	"The Squire"! All we can extract from the barrister is that he is "cleanup man" - whatever that may mean. Sure to be a home run on any thing he tackles
THESE	THREE	HORSEMEN

Then we have another triangular set-up of Pres. Paul, Vice-Pres. Charlie, and by no means least, Lt. Governor Russ - all scheduled to orate on the recent Presidents and Secretarys Conference.

All of the above mentioned activities, coupled with a possible initiation or two, should make for a pregnant program!

"The Case of Greece" was admirably presented by attorney John Hodgos at last meeting. Native of the classic land, schoolmate of Mike Serefim, student of ancient history, and last word on the war, Italy versus Greece, his was a most interesting presentation.

Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays soon to make us sit up and take notice. As for February Twenty Second, at Cloverdale, well, what's doing with the Inter-Club Relations committee? The slogan should be: MEET ME AT THE CITRUS FAIR.

BOY SCOUT WEEK February 7-13

OSCAR KIRKHAM
GUEST SPEAKER

HAROLD ROSENBERG
CHAIRMAN OF THE DAY

Little short of a "scoop" is the bringing of the Deputy Regional Executive of Boy Scouting for this program. It takes some such man as a member-at-large of the National Council ("Child ? Harold") to put such a deal across. "Twill be one of our BIG days of '41.

Looks like the Education Committee should be on its toes again to day, for a couple more Kiwanis chickens are likely to behatched.

You'd think 'twas old, old timer Don Quixote himself waging battle on the windmills. But it <sup>was</sup> none other than young Don Harper instead, leading last week's songs. Such slicing of the atmosphere; such contortions of body and arms as we thought incapable to a human; what categorical samples of crescendo; what pronounced punctuated performance ! All of which argues that pinch-hitting Don really put those songs across. In Owen's absence perhaps we'll have a return engagement to day.

Kiwanis Directors in politics ! For they unanimously swallowed the diet of Ham an' Eggs on last Thursday at 7-30 A.M. at Buffi's. And the morning session worked.

He who'd win an attendance prize must needs major in Kiwanis Education. Take notice: To cop the trophy to day you'll need to know WHAT IS THE KIWANIS THEME FOR THE ADMINISTRATIVE YEAR OF 1939-1940. Read your magazine.

Tip your lid to Ira Rosenberg. He cinched the attendance prize. His grade was ONE HUNDRED PER CT. He had read the Calivada. He answered: "Healdsburg served as host on January 14 to clubs of Division Eight at a joint installation of the officers of the Healdsburg & Sonoma clubs, with 145 in attendance and six clubs represented." Cram for to day's Ex.

The continent outlined hereon will be subject of discussion to day by a gentleman who knows his South America, and by reason of personal sojourning amongst the amazons and other peoples of the equatorial realm. Speaker, Mr. Galen Geller, of the Junior College at Santa Rosa.

Chairman? Well, none other than the editor and artist? of the weekly bulletin, - he constituting the whole journalistic works, all the way down from composer and correspondent to the very "devil" himself.

And take heed: If you crave the attendance prize just be prepared to tell us how many individuals or members in Kiwanis International.

That inter-club meet at Cloverdale, like our Democratic form of government, was just OK. Nice mixture of women and ~~and~~ men; nice program; nice turkey; nice everything - except the attendance prizes! Guess Chairman Johnnie Morgan is both Scotch and absent minded. But George Washington was not forgotten by Past Governor Abe Leach in his most appropriate talk.

Speaking of speakers: We're still thinking of Oscar Kirkham of two weeks ago, - the Boy Scouts man de luxe who left his imprint on each and every listener. Harold made a long hit in getting such type of man before us.

Nice gesture by Lt. Gov. Ross in gathering in the club presidents of our south section for dinner and discussions of mutual interest. A home party, February 13th.

To our Happy Camp thrice welcome to the three: Herb Collier, Price Acuff and Sam Giovanonni - just hatched from Kiwanis shells.
