

HEALDSBURG KIWANIS CLUB

Tuesday - March 2, 1976 - "Election Day"

Dr. Nelson Alexander brought us an excellent program. Pete Defty's talk on "Predator Problems in Sonoma County" was not only interesting but informative.

It was also nice to have Jane Enghdal with us and to hear her presentation.

Speaking of Bruno, did you hear about the Italian who won a Gold Medal at the Olympics and took it home and had it bronzed.

TUESDAY - MARCH 9, 1976

LAST WEEKS PROGRAM:

Bruno Rodella even after trying to win the wine by devious methods, presented our own Walter Wright, President of the Sonoma County Fair Board. Walter's history of the fair, as well as its present day operation, shows our county fair is in good hands. Thanks Bruno for presenting such an outstanding program.

It was also a pleasure to have Lou Sabrana, and the Healdsburg High School Band with us. Most of you have now heard Lou's presentation on this bands opportunity to attend the Festival of Nations, band festival, in Washington, D.C., in June. Let's get behind this and make certain they get to attend, they deserve it.

THIS WEEKS PROGRAM:

Gordon Barsuglia will present as his program the new film - "Sonoma County General Plan". As you know there are mixed emotions on the proposed general plan, so this will be a very interesting program.

JOT THIS DATE DOWN:

March 23rd - Kiwanis Basketball Dinner - St. John's Hall. You will hear more about this at our March 9th meeting.

ANNUAL PANCAKE BREAKFAST - APRIL 3, 1976:

You all now have your work assignments, keep them handy, and be there to make this a huge success. How many tickets have you sold to date? Knowing Ken Hampton your chairman, he will probably take whoever sells the most tickets to lunch or some other such thing???

I WONDER:

Is it really good to have Monsignor John O'Hare lead the signing at our meetings?

SOMEDAY:

Ed Matteoli is going to be fined, jump up, smile, and say, "am glad to pay" - Someday!
