

THE BUILDER

Published Weekly by the Kiwanis Club of Healdsburg

On the
Russian River
Redwood Highway

TUESDAY

MARCH 28, 1939

Those return engagements have been so much up to snuff that the chairman Elmer Smith is staging another to day, in the person of Rev. J.G.Gjording. Remember this gentleman who last year so interestingly orated on China and Japan ? Subject matter plus the title will be in escrow until the speaker arrives.

"It was perfect," declared one and all anent last meeting. Elmer's opening renditions; Owen's solo, "God Bless America;" it's "altogether" rehearsal; Floyd and Ed, in vaudeville headgear and what is known as "snoozles" - a foot long - and in masterful(?) leadership in song, orchestra obligato; and then, that stirring speech of Rabbi Stern, on Shall Democracy Survive,- making for an ideal combination of the light and heavy brand of entertainment.

To Rabbi William M. Stern: Yours was one of the outstanding speeches ever heard by Healdsburg Kiwanians,- an inspiration, a treat, a classic.

Happy to see Ted Kellogg back, after an enforced absence.

If Ben Madison made up, then we had 100% attendance. And this we MUST have for the four weeks in April. Remember, Paul and Finnly will be on your tails.

BE MINDFUL OF THE BENICIA BIRTHDAY PARTY

And as for that big auction sale in Healdsburg, May 5-6, you'll probably hear Chairman Jess barking to day.

(Just been out to dinner with "The Squire"; hence, sleep is sweet).