Neil Iverson, Program Chairman will present Karen Tappin representing the Elementary School PTA. That's this weeks program.

Membership ranks were sharply reduced at last weeks meeting-others were eating oysters with the Petaluma Club hosting at Tomales Bay. Bob Young ran the meeting and in good style, Low key and comprehensive as usual-until in his closing moments he repeated a poor joke.

Key Clubbers present were David Wendt, Paul Lydon, Rick Brinsmead & Dave Pirolle. Dave announced a new Key Club Fund Raiser--sale of electric light bulbs. And they were ready-bulbs were sold.

Robt. J. Young, for $5.00, was serenaded as Birthday Boy of the Day. Other fines for failing to sign aprons were on: Loren Lewis, Wayne Pelton, and Chuck Reichel-$1.00 each. Because of two failures, Loren paid twice. Art McCaffrey paid 25¢ because of his personal priorities in placing the Warriors above another interest he had.

Bob Young sponsored Nelson Cardinal as a new member who was inducted by Bob Young & Chuck Reichel.

Assignments will be forthcoming for the Pancake Breakfast, which will open up at 7:30, close out at 2:00 P.M. There will be two, instead of three operating shifts.

Board of Directors will meet at Fran Brannern's home Wed, March 7 at 7:30 P.M.

Kiwanis Bulletin

March 15, 1979

This weeks program was up in the air at press time. John Uboldi, prospective Program Chairman, has been frustrated for some three weeks waiting for the right person to accept. It appears that Ed (accelerated take-off) Deas may have to move fast to fill in.

Last weeks Program Chairman, Neil Iversen, introduced the speaking team's lead-off person, Karen Tappin, who is Publicity Chairman of the Parents Groups with Teachers. She was followed by Lee Perron Healdsburg Elementary School Art Program Coordinator and Judy Sohigian, member of the Parents Group:

Karen told of her committee efforts to promote the Living Arts in the Elementary School.

Living Arts at Elementary School includes poetry, painting, music, dance, clay & drawing-art forms supported by locally talented artists in the community. Lee spoke of students who write good poetry. He read several works of elementary students. Readings proved highly interesting. He added how easy it is for students to write poetry when encouraged and helped. Eight, nine and ten year olds enjoy art and are proficient when they try. Judy, an artist, claims each child can draw and each expresses themselves differently. Local artists volunteer to teach students interested in drawing.

Bob Young, on the Pancake Breakfast, reminded us that there is only about one month to go- so go go go on the ticket sales. Work schedules will be published shortly. Trades are expected and rather than pay a $10.00 fine for missing your assignment, trades are encouraged. Pancake breakfast time is fun time for all-get with it and get yours! Sunday April 8 is the date.

The mid winter Sports Banquet is scheduled for March 20. Art McCaffrey needs more waiters to serve (from 6:15 P.M.) Call Art on 433-3786 or catch him next Tuesday, last chance.

Walt Wright announced that 17 members plus one guest from Healdsburg attended the Petaluma BBQ feed at Tomales. Healdsburg's contingent was the largest and came close to beating Petaluma.

Five dollar fines for Birthday Boys: Bob Young, Frank Wilson, Paul Dix. There were other lessor fines for more offensive members.

See you next week, particularly Bob Durler and Jim Silviera. You've been missed and needed.

Glad to have President Bruno back on the job. You too were missed and well represented by the Alexander Valley Viticulturist.

Because you've read this far, be advised: Calvin Coolidge said, "Nothing I never said ever did me any harm."

KIWANIS BULLETIN

March 20, 1979

The program we thought we were going to have last week will be given today by the California Trial Lawyers Association.

Last Week: Even though the projected program "fouled up" its date last week's meeting was fun, as all of our recent ones have been. Good attendance and new members liven up the day. Each of the last two weeks showed an even 60 present. Waldo's attendance chart seems to help. Why not get the red pins off, and keep them off. Work projects, board meetings and interclubs are good for make ups, which should be reported to Waldo.

The next interclub is with Santa Rosa Suburban at the Black Forest Inn on Wednesday the 21st at noon. We want to get every member to at least one interclub this year, so how about some new names?

Board of Directors meeting of two weeks ago actions were reported by Prexy Bruno. 1) Our monthly dues will now be forty three dollars. The three dollar increase is a result of added food prices. Even so, it would be hard to find a luncheon any cheaper. Guest and Senior member fees will be $2.50 payable to Ted at the door upon entry. 2) We are to sponsor a telephone friend service. Members willing to make a daily phone call to shut-ins and others who need the comfort and security of a daily contact should report to Bob Young. Names of persons who need such a service also should be given to Bob. 3) The nomination Committee of Walt Wright, Ken Gonsalves and Waldo Iversen is now beginning its search for good candidates for next year's officers. They would welcome suggestions. 4) The Board set aside April 3rd as Ted Kellogg Day. Ted is next to Louie Schwab as oldest in point of service in our club. In all of the years of his membership Ted has been hard working, conscientious and uncomplaining--the epitome of service. The honor of a special day is truly deserved.

Our Newest Member Craig Furber was inducted by Big Bad Don and Chuck Reichel. Craig is a long time Healdsburg resident and is a Sonoma County Bank Vice-President and manager of the Healdsburg Branch. He claims the unusual hobby of breeding and showing Arabian horses. Welcome Craig!

REMEMBER: Interclub at Santa Rosa Suburban March 21st.
Sports Banquet (a work project) March 20th.
Pancake Breakfast April 8th. Bob Young and Ted Kellogg have more tickets.
Ted Kellogg Day on April 3rd.

A new Bulletin printing soon. Get any changes needed to Fran this week. Look for new badge numbers today!! Pay for your Pancake tickets:

KIWANIS BULLETIN

March 29 1979

Gary Rosenberg will program CAL-NEV-HAW FOUNDATION speaker this week. Come, hear and understand a bigger picture of Kiwanis International.

Next week join in celebration of Catherine Kellogg's own TED. It will be TED KELLOGG DAY-one you can't afford to miss. What a Guy!

Guests: Wayne Cochran of Bruno Rodella, Earl Clark of Earl Osborn, John Cochenette of Dick Saxton, Lewis Sbrana Sr. of Art McCaffrey, and our friends from the Key Club Mike Davis and Randy Fanucchi.

Program Chairman John Uboldi introduced W. Barton Weitzenberg, Attorney at Law of Santa Rosa who spoke on No-Fault Insurance. He opines no-fault insurance is an insidious effort on the part of the insurance companies which will increase insurance premiums and reduce benefits. No-fault is controversial and each of us is concerned. Who knows?

Birthdays: Dick Tonascia, Dave Hinton and Art McCaffrey
Congratulations!

Waldo Iversen announced an Inter-Club on April 2 to ClearLake Highlands with 9 before and 9 after lunch at the Hidden Valley Golf Club. Depart Federated Church at 7 AM that Monday Morning.

Bob Young, on the Pancake Breakfast, passed out assignments for our big money maker. The bottom line is quoted. "Fines for No Shows, without Relief." It will be a fun time fund raiser. Big Bad Don may be asking for more help on his Clean-Up Committee.
Lucky Don!

Walter G. Bell, new member inductee, was introduced by old member inductor, Walter Wright. Fran Branern sponsored Walter Bell.

Producers add new members, (Bob Young's Committee #1), only activities hold there (Bruno Rodella and Members of the Board of Directors).
