THE BUILDER

APRIL 1, 1975

TODAY'S FIRST DUTY is to write your suggestion for a "Kiwaniis" project for the Bicentennial Observance on the lines following. Bring the Bulletin with you to the meeting today and hand it to Glenn Davis:

BIG BAD DON is program chairman today. He has arranged for a showing of "Legends of Kauai."

LAST WEEK Lt. Gov., Tom Miller of Sebastopol read a thoughtfully prepared thesis on his objectives for this year for Division 32 and for Kiwanis in general as the case of his official visit to us.

BRUNO RODELLA again reminded us of the coming trip to Reno on April 19 and 20. Friends are eligible. Sounds like a real fun trip. Talk it over with the girl friend and sign up today with Bruno.

WALT WRIGHT, Interclub Chairman told us of his hopes to have each of us take part in at least one interclub meeting this year. One of the first to be arranged will be a "fly-in" visit to Willits. Interclub visits are fun and add greatly to the general spirit of Kiwanis' plan to make more than one!!

JOHN SHORT, new local chairman for Big Brother's of Sonoma County, spoke briefly of that most worthwhile activity. He'll have tickets, today, for the pancake breakfast which Big Brother's has scheduled to raise money for the organization's program.

IT WAS GOOD to see Gerry Miller at Club and back in circulation after a month long illness, including a hospital stay and "almost" surgery!

THE PANCAKE BREAKFAST is less than two weeks away. Get going with the ticket sales! It's our best money-making operation and a lot of fun besides.

THE BUILDER

PROGRAM THIS WEEK:

Don Anderson will be program chairman and will show a film, "Legend of Kauai."

PROGRAM LAST WEEK:

John Short introduced Joanna Cappuccilli who spoke on, "What it means to be a Citizen Advocate." Citizen Advocacy is a H.E.W. financed program designed to assist those persons with mental retardation, epilepsy, or cerebral palsy. Miss Cappuccilli explained some of the work that is being done by volunteer workers in helping develop mentally, disabled people. Most of the program at present is in the Santa Rosa Area, as far as the program in Sonoma County is concerned.

PROGRAM CHAIRMEN FOR THE MONTH:

- Apr. 8 - Don Anderson
- Apr. 15 - Frank Balbi
- Apr. 22 - Al Rizzo
- Apr. 29 - Fred Haley

The trip to Reno has been cancelled by the Social Activities Committee. A few weeks ago, when a survey was made by the committee, quite a large number indicated an interest in a Reno trip. After the arrangements were made for the trip it was found that many members that had indicated an interest in the trip failed to sign up. The Social Committee has worked hard to provide activities and it is discouraging when they don't get the support of the club members.

The Kiwanis sponsored Boy Scout Troop was given $141.50 to assist them in their projects for this year.

Glen Davis would still welcome your suggestions for a Kiwanis Project for the Bi-Centennial year, 1976.

Jim "Scrap-iron" Gotelli was a guest of Ed Matteoli at the meeting last Tuesday.

Program This Week:

Frank Balbi will be program chairman and will have a program dealing with the work of 4-H boys and girls in community service projects. The program will be put on by Mrs. Owens, a leader on the Sonoma County 4-H Council. Mrs. Owens will be assisted by a member of a 4-H club.

Program Last Week:

Don Anderson did an outstanding job of telling the story of the "Legends of Kauai". He was assisted by his wife Dorothy in showing slides of the many interesting and beautiful places on the oldest of the Hawaiian Islands. I'm sure it was of particular interest to the many members that had visited the island of Kauai.

Stewart Wade, a former resident of Healdsburg and now a real estate broker in Honolulu was a guest of Ed Langhart at last Tuesday's meeting.

Ed Storey should be back this week after his recent trip to Atlanta.

Don't forget the Kiwanis sponsored golf tournament on April 27th. Glen Davis and his committee still need golfers to reach the number of 72 entries.

Fran Branern explained the Sonoma County Blood Bank and suggested that the Kiwanis Club set up an account. We will hear more about it in the future.

President Ed must have set a record last week for amount raised in $fines$ for one meeting.

President Ed read a letter from Art McCaffrey thanking the club for putting on the dinner for the basketball and wrestling teams at the high school.

He also read a letter from Pete Waller thanking the club for its interest in youth by the proposed Jr. Golf Clinic and Tournament.

Program Last Week:

Frank Balbi did an outstanding job in having Mrs. Owens and Virginia come and give us some insights into the Youth Club, "Give A Hoot." They told us that the club has 167 members with 35 leaders, making citizenship for all to get involved with. Instead of asking what is wrong-let's find the good and see what is right. This last year around Christmas time, they had a program called, "Christmas Theft Campaign." What not to do when you go shopping. Do not leave your keys in your car, watch your purse and etc. This was covered by radio and T.V. In the near future their campaign will be "shop lifting". What a club! Our hearts were thrilled to hear about young people who want to get involved in the right way. If you missed this program you missed a great challenge. Thank God all of the young folk have not gone to the dogs, there are a great many who love our flag and country, all of our efforts have not been in vain. Let's hear more, and do more for these kids.

GOLF GOLF GOLF GOLF GOLF GOLF GOLF

Just a few days left. Glen Davis and his Committee still need Golfers to reach the number of entrees. We can not let these fellows down can we, Waldo?

Don't forget our Blood Bank. Go and donate a pint for Healdsburg Kiwanis.

No fines today? Yes, Ed Langhart had to act up and get a fine...

HAPPY BIRTHDAY - to Gerry - He enjoyed our singing.

Next week - April 29th - the program will be chaired by Fred Haley with guest Sheriff Striepeke of the County Sheriff's Department.

"WE BUILD!"

THE BUILDER

APRIL 29, 1975

Program Last Week:

It was good to hear our own District Attorney give some good advice as well as some insight to our present problems.

This Week's Program:

We will have Sheriff Striepeke as our guest. I don't know if we are bad boys and need all of this help or someone is just trying to keep us out of trouble. Maybe the next program, we will have the judge-- could we say, "here comes the judge"? Perhaps the reason we need all this help is that Msgr. John O'Hara and Rev. Wm. Hayes have not been seen around for awhile. Get back fellows, please.

Happy Birthday was sung to our fellow Kiwanis members - "Big Bad Don" and Relzy Aikin - not getting older - just young in heart.

Our Pancake Breakfast was a success. Ask the fellows who were fined for not being at their post of duty - How about that. Fines were the order of the day - outstanding men like Bud Christensen, even, was caught by the president, and Bud then got even with President Ed - yes - he forgot the charity fund - it cost him a buck.

Nice to have guests visit our club - Major Graham and Kelly Bennett - come back soon.

BLOOD BANK - Donate a pint for Healdsburg Kiwanis.

Let's try for 100% attendance this week.

"Always put off 'til tomorrow
What you shoul'n't do today."
