CUBA

was the topic of last week's meeting. The speaker, John Freivalds, gave us a down-to-earth picture of the attitude of the Cubans toward the United States and the possibilities for renewing economic relations with that country. Even though the Cubans throw the foul balls back and we don't, there appears to be room for some reconciliation with the Cubans, according to John. Thanks Doc, for inviting your son-in-law, and thanks to Art Larson for this serendipitous program.

UPCOMING PROGRAMS

will be presented by the following Kiwanians:

April 12 - Woodley Frampton

April 19 - Gordon Barsuglia

April 26 - Bill Reynolds

JIM SILVEIRA

has informed your bulletin man that his mystery guest for this week has not as yet contacted him. He will wait until midweek and then, if she (or he) does not reveal herself (or himself) Jim will take the bull by the horns and throw it to us this Tuesday.

THE WELCOME MAT

was out for Key Clubbers Ed Thomas, Charles Brown (Healdsburg City Manager), Captain Anderson (Big Bad Don's father) and Major Clarence Arneson from the Salvation Army. Also, special mention was made of the presence of Gary Klatt, who was not present.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

JIM SILVEIRA'S REMARKABLE DOG

led off last week's program. Jim's mystery guest remained monogamous (?), and Jack Butler gave an admirable extemporaneous program on crime prevention. Nice punt Jack! Great dog Jim!

SERENDITIOUS

is not a word, as you who scurried to your dictionaries discovered when this term was used in last week's bulletin. The word, which referred to Art Larson's program, should have been "serendipitous", a household word among lucky people like Art.

GLEN DAVIS

will be handing out tickets on May 15, for the Kiwanis Golf Tournament. Get a head start on Ted Kellogg and our other champion ticket salesmen by conducting your own pre-sale promotion.

CONGRATULATIONS

on the Pancake Breakfast!! A job well done!!!

LOOK FORWARD TO

May 3, Mother's Day meeting. Plan ahead and invite your mother or wife to this Kiwanis function.

THE KEY CLUB

conducted last Tuesday's meeting. Woodley Frampton introduced Lee Rotlesberger, Key Club President, who did a masterful job of running the meeting. Also, Ed Lee did fines.* Tom Hollis, Bruce Dias, Dean Studer, Dan Stiles, Rich Guglimeno and Darrell Beer were also present to help out. Thanks fellows!!

THE GUEST SPEAKER

was Jim Keegan who displayed and discussed a fine and very expensive collection of duck decoys. Jim showed an impressive array of teels, Pintails, Drake Widgeons, etc. and several decoys carved by "Fresh Air Dick." It was an interesting collection and evidence of how far one can delve into a hobby.

MAY 10th

the fly-in to Willits will take place. There may still be openings or replacements for the flight if you are interested. Contact Bruno Rodella.

MOTHERS AND WIVES

are welcome to the May 3rd luncheon meeting. Plan ahead.

* Of particular mention was the invoking of the fine for violation of a rare rule against leaving sunglasses on your coffee cup. Bill Kassin may have forgotten this age-old prohibition.

THIS WEEK

ex-mayor of Healdsburg, Col. Bill Lucias, will speak on transportation. Bill is on the Board of the Golden Gate Transit District, and he will discuss, among other things, the problems both past and present which confront the Board.

WILLITS FLY-IN

We are still looking for passengers, stout of heart and anxious to contribute to a good turnout at the Willits meeting.

LAST WEEK

Gordon Barsuglia introduced Father Gebhardt and Brother Phillip who outlined the history of the Franciscan Order as well as that of the Bishop Ranch where the local Order is staying. As was pointed out by the speakers, the Healdsburg environs are an ideal setting for the work of the Brothers, and it is nice to have such dedicated people in our midst.

SELL TICKETS

to the Golf Tournament to be held May 15, 1977. Support this Kiwanis event. It is for a good cause.

MOTHERS AND WIVES

are welcome to the May 3, Mothers' Day Luncheon at our regular meeting. Ken Gonsalves has arranged for a local singing group and it should be both pleasant and entertaining.
