To day Mr. J. T. McClellan, Mgr. Bankers' Travelers Service, will give us a travel talk - this through the efforts of Roy Haley, hizzoner the Mayor. Walt Marshall, however, will act as Chairman of the Day. Travel talks have been among the most interesting of our programs.

We must hand it to John Condit, program committee chairman, for being on the job in helping the chairmen arrange for programs from week to week. Also, for keeping the Secretary advised.

Last week we learned much about the 4 H Club Service in general, and concerning the youthful farmers at Lytton Home, their make up and their activities with livestock. Two good talks by Mrs. Louise Berry and Mr. J. Murray Davison, spiced with vocal solos, by Lawrence Banta and accompanied by Miss Viola Scott. And the boys, too, had their fine exhibits of calves on hand. A fine program worked up by Chairman Temple Smith. Just another of the several committees which are surely functioning this year.

City election day drawing near. As in the past, are we to be on the job in getting the voters out?

Boy Scouts interest revived. Let's cooperate with Scoutmaster Grant Carnegie to the end that this club may again have a troop worthwhile. We have the housing facilities. We have the Scouts camp. We want and need moral support. Let more of us attend the boys' meetings.

May this present surging north wind blow you all into camp to day.

When asked of Chairman "Phil" about the program to day, can you imagine such a hot response: "A NEIGHBORLY GESTURE" - whatever that may mean. However, Phil did elucidate a bit a little later on, and a detail or two did unfold. For instance: We are promised two speakers, each to perform with time economizing brevity. Something about the Ford Motor Company, it is understood. Everett Lampson and Dean Lippi (presumably to the great glee of Hick Cooley) will probably sing the praises of Henry the First of Detroit.

Just how this can be put across without the drawing of a husky fine simply passes understanding. A desperate chance, we should say. Possibly Hick is working the club to buy a Ford with which to round up the absentees. Might be good business at that - for attendance sake. Can't you see Cooley's cunning capers inspiring the whole movement? "It pays to advertise" - often expensive in Kiwanis.

Furthermore, in keeping with that "neighborly gesture" it is surmised that during the last 15 minutes the said Ford Motor Company is contemplating the projection of an "entertainment". All in all, a seeming collusion ingeniously worked out by representatives of two powerful corporations, "money changers", or what have you.

Notwithstanding all that has been said above, really, a very good performance awaits us to day.

Last week, quite a different set up. It is said that J.E. McClellan interestingly talked on travels. This is hearsay, however; for the editor was in the county seat/^{observing} how a lady charged with crime was set free. Seems the days of chivalry are with us still. "That knightly deeds and bold are as plentiful now as in days of old".

"BUGS"

"Bugs bite bugs, more bugs to bite 'em,
And so on down ad infinitum".

"BUGS"

This may not be the exact quotation,; at any rate the lines may have some application to the subject to be discussed at this meeting, viz, "Bugs". Frank Sohler is to be the Chairman of the Day, and none other than his son, Dr. Frank Jr. will be the real bugologist speaker.

Considering the fact that Hick Cooley was not there while his Ford Motor Company was extolled for its fair trade practices, financial returns last week was fair. Maybe the local dealer will be called upon to pay his delinquent "income tax" to day. For Hick profited by some cleverly wrought publicity, Chairman Big Phil being an accessory to the act.

Now we know "Why Men Marry". And HOW ! This, demonstrated last Thursday and Friday nights in Healdsburg. Of course, Marriage presupposes some little affection - even in these dire days of divorce. And if such was superficially and burlesquely portrayed on those "Wedding nights", so also is the fact apparent that a genuine goodfellowship obtains in our community. Otherwise, how could a troupe of 70 male citizens of all vocations so amicably harmonize and scintillate on the same platform ? Moral: "The more we get together the happier are we".

"Touchin' on and appertainin' to" the above, why not our own aggregation call a Kiwanis Court into session some night and put on a side-splitting, throat-choking and eye-weeping MOCK TRIAL, such as our gang sure can do ? Just a thought. Arch peace disturbers like Marshall and Miller, Meese and Massoni should brilliantly qualify as defendants in a criminal cause. Bad actors, these.

Under the auspices of the EDUCATION COMMITTEE, Jess Ratchford, chairman, Mr. Jerome Cross, City Superintendent of Schools for Santa Rosa, will be with us in a talk appropriate to the occasion. The coming of Mr. Cross argues for another high plane program, as this gentleman is an earnest and convincing speaker.

Supplementing the principal address, Mrs. Keesling is to appear with a group of grammar school pupils in several musical numbers under her efficient direction.

It so happens that this is "Educational Week", so the whole program works in very well.

Furthermore, this is also United States-Canada Week, and in order that some observance be given to this Chairman Jess will give us a five minute talk on our Kiwanis Inter-relations.

It was refreshing to hear the youthful medico, Dr. Frank Sohler Jr. last week in his scientific treatise, "Bugs". By way of introduction the chairman, father Frank, claimed to have known the son, Frank "for a number of years". Strange, isn't it? If this was the young man's "first appearance" before a public gathering both he and "Dad" should take unto themselves a degree of pride.

Kiwanis fishermen, BEWARE! For behold, we say unto you, there are limitations in the sport; and suffering for transgression by the over-ambitious nimrod. Friday, the first, is our opportunity to snare the rainbows - yet keep "within the law". Woe unto you who are brought before the local judicial powers that be.
