Question of information:
 What constitutes a non-partizan non-political speech ?
 We just don't know anymore.
 Another question: Will Candidate Mr. Faulkner, last week's speaker, put the skids under Congressman Mr. Lea ? What do you think ?

REV. HAROLD MOREHOUSE
 on
 "RESURECTION DAY"

Our clerick's observations will likely set us thinking of Easter, its significance, with eggs thrown in.
 We always observe this day.

Forget not - Villa Chanticleer - this Monday, 6-30 P.M. - You know - Everybody welcome at Easter Sunrise Service, at Cross Hill, Lytton, April 9th, 6-30 A.M. Several church organizations participating.

Board of Directors meet this Wednesday morning. Time to "male up".

Governor Rugg and Cleone at last back from the Sunny South, that Mecca of Kiwanis in the West. Statistics tell us of eight speeches at six days' gatherings by the Gov. What with division and club meets, plus functions on the side, R.B. & Cleone must have gone over the social hurdles.

Another item: That famous foursome, the Stevens & Darbys off for Chico, division meeting, this day. What a dull (?) time They'll have!

Charlie advertises:

I sell sands of Gobi Desert and guarantee a bumper crop of prunes.
 No other realtor has the secret. Tenderfoot would-be farmers are desperate to buy. Contribute half my commissions to Kiwanis. They're considerable. Ready to cash in to day. C.W. Comstock.

Jack Acton, Speaker, War Pictures

Easter, and circumstances leading thereto, was rather exhaustively handled last meeting by Harold Morehouse. A most fitting program at this holy season. So church-like was the discourse that the Secretary's eyes closed, as if in prayer.

Interesting subject to day -

THE RADAR

as expounded by one who is "in the know" - our own boy,

FRED MASON

Wondrous gadget, this, which spells curtains for the enemy ships.

Finnly Frisch, Chmn.

Wonderful, miraculous, stupendous, that!!! The Monday night pay-off festivities by those out-of-luck quarterly absentees. Thirty were there; and "That's thirty for to night" echoed in solemn silence at three o'clock in the morning. O, the power of the eye opener!

April 4th. Governor Russ, Floyd the Squire, plus wives made the long journey to Chico for a division meeting, presided over, or rather inspired, by His Gubernatorial Excellency. How's that ?

Yes, the directors did not meet last Wednesday. Latest important news item. Barring further postponement, be on hand at 7-30 A.M. "this to-morrow morning".

Bill Wolking says his business speaks for itself, that it's all wet (inside), that he solicits no Adv..much less does he intend to pay. Can Bill get away with this ? Any misspeled word, Neil ?

Division of Cannery Inspection, State Dept. of Public Health,
Will be represented to day by an official, as guest speaker.
Ted Kellogg, fruit farmer de luxe, has engineered the program.

Now that a home cannery, sponsored by us, is an established concern, location, Healdsburg high school, this program is timely and appropriate.

"Touchin' on an' appertainin' to" the above, Chairman Ted calls for the members to invite farmer guests. Invite your man before the other fellow gets him. FARMERS' DAY, this.

Planting time is ~~an~~ hand. Kiwanians should be garden conscious these times. Why not a group of ourselves capatalize on the opportunity to grow corn & "taters" et cetera on the rich soil our Bill Wolking has provided for us vegetarians? Why not compete (for a prize) for the biggest ear of corn? Bill, talk it up.

Four members "made up" at the directors' meeting April 14th. Good

Those "Kill or Get Killed" pictures last week by Standard Oil Jack Acton were thrilling war encounters. Rather than be there, guess we prefer to buy war bonds. Thanks for that program, Finnly.

Due to want of space The Builder cannot carry any one of the numerous Ads solicited. Next week okey. Better get in on the ground floor, Gentlemen, before our rates go higher.

The speaker at this meeting is to be Dr. J. McGrath, of Napa State Hospital. Subject: Mental Diseases. Chairman: Harry Latimer.

We were much interested in Mr. Vanderhout's story on Home Canning last week. It had close application to what our club is doing here. Thanks to Ted Kellogg for featuring that timely program.

First, one type of election after another. To day it is for office of Vice-President, to fill vacancy caused by enforced resignation of Al Huddart. Polls open at 12-15 P.M. Ballots, all yours for the telling results. Electioneering to draw the maximum limit prescribed by Kiwanis law.

As this is being struck off in comes Heap Big President Neil. Neil, what have you to incorporate in this bulletin? Presidente: "I expect March and April monthly reports from at least 15 committee chairmen by next week. Gentlemen do your best and write it up. Fail not!"

Gone again; back again; Russ & Cleone. What a job has the Governor!

Mrs. A's Advt:

I sell everything but shoes.
I'm not in the game to lose.
I keep the books; I get the pay -
