KIWANIS BULLETIN

Guest at Tuesday's Mothers' Day meeting, Mr. Dale Sayers, who is a candidate for County Clerk, was introduced by Francis Passalacqua, who was duly fined for bringing politics into the meeting. We were pleased again to have two keyclub members present, Ric Alves and Paul House. They report that the benefit show for Ric Domenichelli was a great success. It was reported that the Pancake Day worked out nicely. We served 20 or 30 more meals than last year. Those members not showing up for work will get their just desserts later.

Yvonne Dick was well received for her nice vocal solo accompanied by her mother, Kris Dick.

The Kiwanis Mothers' Day luncheon was a smashing success. Much special care was lavished upon the tables in order that the surroundings somehow approach the brightness and beauty of our guests.

The nearly Reverent Msgr. John O'Hare brought neither mother, bride, nor sister to the meeting but he did bring the program and even his Federated friend was bound to admit it was well done. (Although some objection was made by this pesky Protestant that his interpretation of Genesis and creation was slightly ommiss, but agreed that Jack had the right name for the garden.)

The "Msgr." is to be praised for his yoeman accomplishment in study of county's human service agencies analyzed by special committee under his chairmanship. We hope that county officials and state as well heed the wise recommendations and eliminate some of the waste and duplication so that the people in our county will be better and more efficently served.

Meeting of May 23, 1978

Program Chairman Bill Kassin promises an "Earthy Review"! Hot dingle, bring on them gals!

Meeting of May 16, 1978

We had Ed Zumwalt of the Santa Rosa Suburban Club visit us and he brought along Tom Lubar as his guest. These were nice guys, guys; a check of the official equipage showed nothing missing at the close of our meeting! Garry Rosenberg introduced Emil Biossotti as his guest (WELCOME, Emil), after which Ken Gonsalves (the "bus Booker") introduced his guest, Jack Brandt. And what was wondered in an earlier bulletin, what is coming off? The Brandt family have long been associated with another Club which also uses a cog-wheel as its emblem.

Finished with "guests". Key Clubbers in attendance - NIL!

Due to the forced absence of President Fred, vice president Bob Young officiated. Election ballots were passed out, then collected, and the Election Committee disappeared behind the stage curtain to peruse same. Their countings determined that Fred Haley would remain on as President, that Bob Young would continue as 1st President In Charge Of Vice, whilst Ed Deas would act as 2nd IN Command of the department. Dick Saxton, money lover that he is, was given the job of Currency Counter (& Disburser). Glen Davis, Virgil Bottarini, & Ken Gonsalves were elected to replace those members of the Board of Directors whose terms have expired.

Terry Stringfellow of Home Bakery finally made up his mind - he's in! Waldo Iversen & Bud Christensen did the honors.

Program Chairman Gerrett Rosenberg introduced E. Tomalli, Sonoma County Tax Assessor, who discussed the Jarvis-Gann bill vs. the Bear bill. He detailed some of what the latter supports, but admitted that this is a very technical area. Since your correspondent has never been a property owner, much of what was discussed went right over his head. What did hit home, however, was his conclusion that it would take the taxes from 11,000 homes to equal those collected from the Geysers project!

And we wonder why our electric bills are so high?

THAT'S THIRTY

"WE BUILD!"

THE BUILDER

Meeting of May 23, 1978

In the absence of President Fred, our exalted President of Vice, Bob Young, took charge with nicely growing confidence.

There were no guests of any sort present--this should not happen!

Walt Wright, who is in charge of the bicycle riders for the parade, announced that he had 10 riders lined up and gave the final instructions.

The arrangements for erection of the fish booth and the running of same were completed--under the direction of Vern Branch and Ted Kellogg.

Glen Davis kept us up to date on the forth coming Junior Golf Tournament. Glen and his helpers are doing an outstanding job on this project (as usual). He announced that the lottery would have approximately $650.00 worth of prizes! That's beginning to make the lottery tickets a Best Buy!

Bill Kassin presented Dr. Clyde Wellock who told us of his remarkable trip to Palau Island in the Caroline group. This was done in a single motored airplane and entailed a total of 55 hours in the air--most of it at night. This trip was enough to make Lindy jealous. His talk was illustrated by a nice collection of slide pictures. Dr. Wellock and Bill Kassin intend to repeat this flight in July--it's enough to make anyone envious of these over-privileged characters!

Kiwanis Bulletin

Kiwanis Meeting of May 30, 1978

Again Bob Young, our vice-president, took charge of the meeting in the absence of President Fred Haley. Bob is really getting the feel of the job and will make a fine president for us next year.

Guests were Don Merz, president of the Redwood Empire Kiwanis Club of Santa Rosa--also a candidate for Sonoma Co. Treasurer and Tax Collector. He was introduced by Gene Perkins. Earl Osborne introduced his friend Jose Meza. Waldo Iversen introduced Norman Stewart of Palo Alto.

We were honored by the presence of six of the truly outstanding students of Healdsburg High School. They were Madoline Sticklman, Emily McCutcher, Robert Wienstock, Gord Saunder, Cathy Cornelison, and Cindy Rieter. The committee judged (after having a great difficulty) Robert Wienstock as the first among equals. This young man carried the workload of two men besides going to school. When asked of it was hard he replied--"Oh, no, but it keeps me off the street at night!"

Verne Branch reported that the fish booth took in $507.00

John Uboldi presented Larry Waggner and Nick O'Jeda for our program. These men teach at the Healdsburg High School and are responsible for the Migrant Education Program. This is a federally funded program which teaches the children of migrant workers (many of whom know no english) and encourages them to continue their education. This is done not only with language help, but by getting them jobs in the community which enable them to better themselves and to give them the ambition to get a high school diploma and even to go on to college. Twenty of these students, age 13 and up, now hold jobs in town.
