KIWANIS BULLETIN

May 5, 1981

LAST WEEKS PROGRAM: Walt St. Clair presented Don Head, Director of Sonoma County's Public Works. Don, an old friend of Walt's, delivered an enlightening talk on the role of the Public Work's Department and their continuous contribution to the county. An excellent program Walt. Thank you.

THIS WEEKS PROGRAM: Ken Gonsalves will chair our annual Mother's Day program for our very special ladies. The ladies will be honored with a musical variety program presented by the Healdsburg High School Drama Club under the direction of Ed Sugars. Lunch for a guest is $3.00. If you have not signed the reservation list, call Ken at 433-2253.

NEW MEMBER: Ernest Biasotti (a good man) brought Roger Bowlin (another good man) into the club. Roger is the PR Manager at Italian Swiss Colony. Nice to have you on board Roger. Welcome.

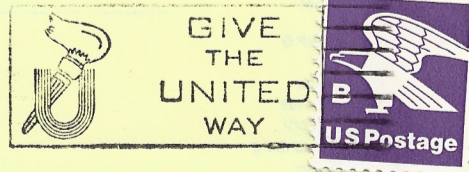

GUESTS: It was nice to see 5 members of the Santa Rosa Surburban Club visit us on an inter club. We also enjoyed seeing Chuck Schnautz, Wayne Johnson, David Votaw and Charles Richard. Come back anytime.

GOLF TOURNAMENT: Phil Rice says reservations are going fast. Hurry and sign up. Direct your ticket stubs and money to Rich Lehrmann.

A PROUD MOMENT: Our hardworking Scoutmaster Neil Iverson, presented two scouts Robert Matteucci and Bryan Austring to the club. President Ed, on behalf of the club, gave each scout a $100 check to help defer expenses on their upcoming summer trip to the National Jamboree.

STAND BEHIND: Support our Canada bound High School Band. Buy a ticket ($2.50) to the Greyhound Follies.

QUESTION: Will our shy boys in yellow bring back the green stuff?

"A SPECIAL DAY"

A Mother's Day luncheon
We did have
With the ladies all coming
We were so glad.

Well chosen words
He did say
With benevolent thoughts
For us we pray.

But to get through the door
We had to pay
Or Bruno and Hector
Would have their say.

The dinner was served
There and then
Delicious it was
So we'll all come again.

The first sounds we heard
Were beautiful tunes
But over it was
And all too soon.

Special guests too
Were on hand
But all the ladies
Were ever so grand.

The piano was silenced
By Reverend Hayes
And all look forward
To when he prays.

Our chairman Ken
A fine job he did
With prizes for some
And thanks so glib.

But President Ed knew
As he must
To begin and end on time
Would be a plus.

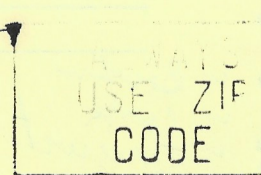

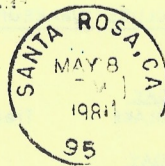

The Healdsburg High kids
Now did perform
Terrific they were
They took us by storm.

An invocation
Was in the plan
Adroitly delivered
By Father Culligan.

Skits and songs and jokes
They made
It's fun we had
While we did behave.

But now it's over
For another year
And for a great luncheon
Let's all give a cheer.

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM: Ernest Biasotti will be program chairman. He will bring us Peter Cole, Security Supervisor for Longs Drug Store. Should be a good one. Don't miss it. See you there.

- FUN: The FFA Parade is always proud to have as a participant the Kiwanis Precision Bike Team (a quiet, sedate group). Sign up soon. Details to follow.
- GOOD EFFORT: Paul Dix was ruled out of order on his announcement. Cost him a dollar.

HEALDSBURG KIWANIS BULLETIN - 5/26/81

THIS WEEKS PROGRAM:

Bill Fleager will introduce Mrs. Joan Murphy from Pacific Telephone. Mrs. Murphy will prove to local Kiwanis that "There's More To Light Than Meets The Eye".

LAST WEEKS PROGRAM:

Program Chairman Bud Christenson introduced Susan Simons as our guest speaker. Susan is the Program Director for the "Sonoma County Council on Aging". She gave an enlightening talk on the prospects of "growing old gracefully". Recently, a branch office has been opened in Healdsburg - at the Recreation Center on 131 Matheson. Hours: Mon. - Thurs. 9 - 1 and Fri. 1 - 4.

Services available are:

- 1/ Information and referral on help for the elderly.
- 2/ Information for limited legal services and advice.
- 3/ Nutritional Services - eg. hot meals for the disabled and bedridden.
- 4/ Transportation for the frail elderly.
- 5/ Discount cards - eg. Golden Gate Transit Merchant cards.

GUESTS:

Visiting Kiwanians included: Jack London from Fortuna and Dan Morris from our local Santa Rosa Downtown Club. Art McCaffrey introduced Norman Schwietert as his guest who is a retired school teacher and future member?

BIRTHDAYS:

Glen Keith and Nelson Cordinai had birthdays but both of them decided not to show up for their congratulations and song. President Ed will have to double the price next week.

FINES:

President Edgar made up for slacking off in the fines these last few weeks (even though he's already past the 300% mark for the year). To start it off, Doc Alexander, Jim Gentry, Bill Hayes, Bob Marmor, Art McCaffrey, Lindsey Wurlitzer and Gerald Hodges were each fined for not signing Erle Cook's apron. Bill Fleager and Bob Marmor were each fined 50¢ for causing trouble and arguing with President Edgar - (that's a no-no). Paul "Chicken Little" Dix was fined $3.00 for crowing and cackling. His only reply was, "Thank you, Edgar". Ernie Biasotti was also fined $1.00 for sponsoring new members - Roger Bowlin and Erle Cook. President Edgar must be on the loosing team.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

1/ The FFA Parade is May 21, 1981 at 6:00 pm. The Kiwanis Precision Bike Drill Team will meet at Walt Wright's home at 12:00 noon to decorate the bikes. Mike Warren announced that everyone make sure they wear white shirts and a straw hat. (What! Nothing Else??)

2/ The annual pre-parade relay race starts at 5:30 pm Thursday, May 21, 1981. Four schools are participating: St. Johns, Windsor, Geyserville and Healdsburg. Winning schools will receive a trophy and free hot dogs for the kids. Chirman Tom Roscoe needs help.

3/ Healdsburg Kiwanis Annual Community Activities Benefit and Golf Tournament is this Sunday, May 24th. Please get raffle tickets and money to Phil Rice. Rich Lehrmann needs help for the B-B-Q.

Remember: Tee off time is 9:00 am
B-B-Q at 2:00 pm

(SPACES STILL AVAILABLE FOR THE TOURNAMENT)

4/ This year's Wine Festival was a big success. thanks to Chairman Bruno "Chicken Man" Rodella, Hector Garnero, Frank Balbi and cooks. Good job, fellas! The totals for this year came to $1,325.00 net compared to last year's $900.00.

5/ Congratulations are in order for Fred and Rhonda Besio on the birth of their baby girl, Cynthia Marie. She weighed in at 8 lbs. 7 oz. The club managed to raise $66.06 (to be matched by Fred) and deposited in a savings account for Cynthia's future college education.
