LAST WEEKS MEETING

Happy & Sad Dollars: Sad dollars: From Frances Passalacqua $2 for the passing of Hollywood friend. President Kurt for the passing of the California state budget.

Happy Dollars: From Tom Roscoe for finally getting a new knee. From Hunt Conrad for Gary Solem getting to Colorado without getting a divorce. From Al Rochester for the Giants latest success.

Fines: ERLE COOK $1 for the poor explanation of why he won't discuss his retirement at this time and keep us all in suspense. Earl Osborn $1 for reminding us that Rotary of Santa Rosa has been around longer than we have. Ted Etheredge $1 for his two tone shirt. Vince Dougherty $1 for saying Rotary.

Guests: Lew 'Sbrana brought his son Lew as a guest.

A special thanks to Vince Dougherty, Al Rochester and Hunt Conrad for cooking a very good spaghetti lunch.

Due to printer vacation and July 4th Holiday there will not be a bulletin for two weeks.

PROGRAM Bob Swofford, Managing Editor of The Press Democrat, gave a presentation on the paper as well as the media and its role in covering the news. The Press Democrat was purchased in 1985 by the New York Times and has since invested over $20 million in a new plant in Rohnert Park and has plans for further expansion. They emphasize local news as much as possible, however, this is not reported all the time due to space constraints caused by national news. Computerized programs have enhanced the way consumers can get information through touch tone phones and in the future consumers will be able to get information through computer terminals. Bob was subjected to a very tough question and answer session by the club.
