Last Week's Meeting

Guests - Bob Maize introduced former Kiwanian Paul Yeomans who is back working in town for Windsor Oaks Bank.

Announcements - Visiting from The Santa Rosa Kiwanis Club was Dave Sloat. Dave would like us all to attend an All-Star Football Game featuring the North Bay League against the Sonoma County League on August 13 at Bailey Field. Ticket that include a $2 coupon for Round Table Pizza are $6 each. But, if you advertise in the program ($25) you get two free tickets. Call Mr. Sloat at 575-7201.....Alvie was begging the guys to go on golfing-type interclubs to Lakeport, Fort Bragg and Oakmont. We also need to get to meetings at Empire, Sonoma Plaza and Willits clubs.....The Western BBQ is scheduled for August 9 at Brandts' Beach. Tell your date.

Results of last week's Board meeting per the President - The Board would like to encourage us to place a dollar into the charity fund every week instead of the tradition quarter. The new member initiation fee is now $40, up from $25. We received a Certificate of Appreciation from the County of Sonoma for our recent Shots for Tots project.

Fines/Acknowledgments _ Badgeless Kurt Hahn was acknowledged several bucks because Sonoma County Business Journal did a bunch of bragging about what a great guy and director he is. Gary Solem was lamely fined for eating before the bell. Mr. Solem thought that all chow was fair game after the prayer but is willing to explore new rules. Rich Lehrmann was or wasn't late but duly acknowledged. Art McCaffery fined for giving away poor Mr. Turnbow's seat. The balance of the table fined too for not looking out for their purported friend Ken.

Happy/Sad Bucks - Fred Haley was so happy not to have to look at Vince's mug in the Trib last week that he coughed up a buck. Vince whining about fixing our badges and some of the boys were caught without. His was also pretty sad that he forgot last week to announce that Joe Passalacqua got engaged. Kurt digging into his own pocket for a change announcing that son Walter recently married Ruby Williams and son Chuck is working this summer in Washington D. C. and will return to work in Sacramento. Cal Brigham sad he doesn't live up to the Mario nickname but will gladly protest last week's fine.

Lotto fever, catch it - No takers for the $24 pot. Lucky Bucks Conrad shoved $5 quickly into his pocket.

Program - Steve Tice introduced our friend Jim Birdsong who narrated a slide presentation of North Bay Saving and Loan's collection of painting depicting Sonoma County from the middle of the last century to the middle of this one. Jim explained the historical significance of each of 20 paintings of north county locations. There is a painting of the Healdsburg Plaza with the old City Hall building in the background. One of our more dignified members announced and described in some detail how this old building smelled way back then. In 1989 for their 25th anniversary North Bay commissioned an artist to paint a total of 40 paintings. A book showing and describing the collect is available for $12.
