SIXTH DAY OF JULY

Fourth of July week. We shall pay observance to this historical event as has been our wont for these many years.

Russ Stevens has promised to dwell upon the significance of the day in a 10 or 15 minute talk.

Al Barbieri is Chairman.

Fitting exercises will follow on the passing of our beloved one, mentioned below.

Adjournment will be taken at an early hour.

Special meeting of the board of directors will follow.

We turn our attention now to something else, something sad indeed.

JOE MILLER

BLEST BE HIS MEMORY

Our first President; Charter Member; Director; Kiwanian of first order. He has passed on. Joe was a bulwark in our club. A fine American type. A lovable noble character. How we'll miss him ! In deep reverence to day we shall bow our heads for JOE MILLER.

Mr. Frank Marsh, Manager, Bay Area Council, will speak on New Growth in Northern California and the Bay Counties. John Croul, Chmn.

Russ Stevens instilled something of the old Fourth of July spirit in his original treatment on the significance of this National holiday - its history, tying in participation of those American patriots, statesmen of that day and time. Good work, Russ.

Floyd's resolutions and eulogy on the passing of Joe Miller was, as we expected, on a high plane, a fitting tribute to a worthwhile citizen and Kiwanian.

Never such a flock of maker-uppers at that directors meeting last week. Good thing some private home wasn't taken by storm by such a mob. Well done, gents; better still, be at the weekly lunches. Regular monthly meet this (Tuesday) night at Ivy's.

A non-partizan sheet is THE BUILDER. And in discussing the present political set-up we're speaking true to form. One party having enjoyed 16 consecutive years of power, prestige, pleasure and passtime seems to be doing all things conceivable to give the other fellows a "look in", administratively. It leans way back in the chair to encourage 'em. It has even split itself in three ways in order to get the opposition into the executive chair. In spite of all this won't it be funny if the incumbents shall win out again! Could be. Anyhow, the elephant should thank the donkey for the latter's political generosity. Magnanimous is saying it mildly. What would mean democracy without such Democrats as these!

For this meeting Claude Farris is to be the chairman,.The speaker, Morris Ruby, on "Recreation."

San Francisco and environs constitutes an area of substantial importance, as pictured by Mr. Frank Marsh of the Bay Area Council. While "It's Fun to Live in America" it's fun, too, to live in this Western Empire of ours.

Echoes of last directors' meeting, July 14th: 13th:
To fill vacancy Charles (Call me Chuck) Campbell became a member of the Board.

Jim Clarke accepted appointment as Chairman of Finance Committee.

Bud Christensen will head committee to distribute It's Fun to Live in America leaflets.

Ivy Iversen has charge of new road signs installations.

"By" Gibbs (Lt. Gov.) heads movement for another division club. He and cohorts excursions northward Thursday night on such Mission.

Tom Ludeke et al on golf tournament at Sonoma, near future.

Don Jackson & Co. presented an exhaustive report on Membership and Classification matters.

Division meeting and caucus (Ladies Night) in Healdsburg on or about Sept. 18th. Nomination of Lieutenant Governor at this time.

Several members to be inducted this day.

Resolution to endorse and work in the interests of increased taxes for school purposes. Election August 2nd.

CHAIRMAN, LEO FREDIANI.

SPEAKER, MR. GEORGE BURKHEAD,

Social Security Tax Director, in selected subject.

It was real redrecreation for us to hear Morris Ruby expounding on that very subject. Recreation seemingly involves a multitude of activities of body and mind. In this river-blest community we appear to make the most of opportunity as Morris pointed out.

Henceforth, to be with us and of us - congratulations four ways to: Perry Beeson; Ieland Sayre; Sid Olmstead; plus Jess Ratchford, rejoining. Kiwanians now. For service and pleasure "you all" will have ample opportunity. Hearty welcome.

To know, or not to know, influential men in Fort Bragg. If you do, Hand names of such to Byron or Floyd at this meeting.

Delighted at the presence of Messrs. Lewis and Thatcher, representing the now Ukiah Kiwanis Club (in embryonic state). Glad are we in the thought of a sister club, both on account of friendly and working association, but for that connecting link between the South and North. Healdsburg is happy to sponsor this long sought achievement. Eight members treked to Ukiah to start the ball rolling.

If/when there'll be a lifeguard at the river our club will know how it happened. It has our sponsorship.

Said Chuck to By, "If you had a million bucks in one pocket and five thousand pounds in an other pocket, what would you have?"

Said By to Chuck: "Someone else's pants."
