WEDNESDAY, JULY 5th, at BELLEVUE VILLA

12 - 10

In other words, do not report on Tuesday at American Legion Hall - UNLESS you desire to attend the round table meeting at said time and place.

Program at the Villa - - - - - Panel Discussion

WHAT THE FREEDOM CONCEPT HAS MEANT TO (a) EDUCATION, Byron Gibbs
(b) BUSINESS, Russ Stevens
(c) The CHURCH, Jack Thomas
Chairman of the Day - - - - - (d) Moderator, Larry Smith

Manifestly an ambitious undertaking, such as we should expect, as it is the workings of Larry's fertile brain.

The round table would be but a poor substitute for our personal attendance at the Wednesday meeting.

Directors et al, don't forget the Directors' meeting on the same Wednesday evening at the home of Jim Clarke, DelRio Woods Dist.

Remember, too, it's vacation time. So watch out for your attendance.

June 29, Al Barbieri's Boys Club - Kiwanis Boys Club - touched gloves with an evenly matched group in San Francisco, and over television it proved to be - "It went over with a bang" says Al. "Are your boys supported in Healdsburg" was the query. "Perfectly", said Big Al, "And Kiwanis is our best friend." Pretty nice.

Chairman, John Condit.

Speaker, Francis Passalacqua

Subject: The Proposed Court Reform Plan. This is to be voted on at the November election.

Where is the Town Hall, the Commonwealth Club, or any other platform agency that has anything on our own home performance of one week ago ?

The subjects of Education, Business, Church, handled in such exquisite fashion, in such scholarly style as to make all of us sit straight up - well nigh in bewilderment.

Smith, Stevens, Thomas, Gibbs - Four Horsemen of that day, each putting the oratorical pigskin over the goal.

Your scribe is still engrossed, so "all het up" as to leave little room for expounding on anything else.

Suffice it to say you are due to enjoy a real treat in the role of up-to-date Kiwanis journalism for the next few weeks. Like the preacher's pulpit, the editor's sanctum will be filled with new blood, modern thought - products of brainy minds - such as to revolutionize the drab and dreary pages of the past.

No bulletin for 1950

Substitute quarter back editors got their signals mixed last week. No bulletin. If Sec'y Ed, on vacation, wishes a survey of bulletin popularity, we will forward him numerous inquiries and complaints from members about--why no bulletin last week?

To new member Mel Wood, welcome to the fold. Your ability to perform for our community via Kiwanis will test your acceptance of our objectives. We know that you will enjoy your opportunity and rank yourself high with this valued gang.

Guest speaker last week--Charles (Chick) Martin, City Manager of Napa, scores high among our fine programs this year. Timely subject, Taxes, brought again the problem of all of us, to govern or be governed. Chairman of the Day, Slim Price, did noble job for the budget but some spots hid hard. His own conduct will be observed from now on.

Program Chariman this week, Jack Thomas. Guest Speakers, Deborah Knott and Stephen Yee. Subject, Caravanning and the Community.

VACATION TIME: Watch your Calendar and make up your attendance. We are proud of our long record near the top of all Kiwanis Clubs. Do your part and keep us there.

DIVISION caucus at Ukiah Sunday, July 23rd will decide on splitting territory and create new division. Also nominate Lieut. Governor for present and new division. Report of results to you on Tuesday.

Underline this on your calendar: That testimonial dinner to our retiring INTERNATIONAL PRESIDENT, J. HUGH JACKSON, at the Claremont Hotel, Berkeley, Friday, August 25th. Our own Russ Stevens in charge of everything for this. Surely a sizeable delegation from this club will be there. Ask President Al for tickets now. Get us lined up and do this one in a big way, fellows. This is one of those fine things that come along only once in a while.

UKIAH KIWANIS CLUB 2nd Anniversary Birthday Party, Sunday eve, 7:30 p.m. July 30th. Our baby growing up. Fine dinner and program. Roll out the bus and take your sweetheart, a time to remember. See By Gibbs for further details. You got to eat Sunday dinner someplace, why not up there? Double up your car loads and come along for some fun.

SPECIAL DIRECTORS MEETING last Tuesday, voted (by majority vote) not to exceed $50.00 as our contribution towards purchasing that new recusitator for use by Fire Department. Other service clubs and other organizations also are contributing and City Council is expected to move out with balance needed.

A word to Committee Chairmen. The Secretary has to make a monthly report to District Office. Make a special effort to give him your committee reports by first of month. He refuses to guess what you are doing.
