THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM - July 1st 1969

The subject for the program today is personal dynamics and will be presented by Neil B. Braidwood, president, Achievement Dynamics, Santa Rosa. The firm is the area distributor for the Success Motivation Institute of Leadership Development. The speaker was born in Canada and was naturalized in 1959. He is a 10 year member of Toastmasters. The chairman will be "Dunc" Duncan.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM - July 8, 1969

Bud Christensen will come out of retirement long enough to arrange and chair the next program.

NOTICES

The Board of Directors will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday night, July 1st at the home of President Ed Langhart. A fine opportunity to make up any meetings that one might be missing for the month of June.

Along the K T-R-A-I-L: Now is time to circle your calendar around the dates, July 25-27 for the Hole-in-One contest. . . . Now is the time for a new member -bring a prospect to lunch today. . . . Look among your files for any old notes or mementos that might be on hand regarding Kiwanis. . . Bring to Pres. Ed. . . . Friday we celebrate Independence Day -- Remember to display your flag.

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM - July 8, 1969

Bud Christensen will present some of his "grass roots" material that he gathered in a recent trip to Mexico. Bud will select some of his choicest slides for showing. LeRoy Krueger will be the Kiwanian-of-the-Day.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM - July 15, 1969

Jed Mitchell is arranging this program and will announce the details next week.

Along the K T-R-A-I-L: Get your 10 Hole-in-One tickets into the hands of prospective winners. . Each Kiwanian is asked to be responsible ($$) for five tickets each and double that by selling not less than 10. . .The date for the steak dinner the losers will serve the winners in the pancake ticket sales will be July 24th. It will be a good time to kick of the Hole-in-One contest.

A-M-E-R-I-C-A-N-A

The one product we know of where the supply exceeds the demand is trouble.

One Teen-ager to another: "He hasn't actually kissed me yet, but he steam-ed my glasses a couple of times."

Wife about teenage daughter: "Her new boy friend is coming to dinner Sunday, . . . she wants us to paint the house, redecorate the living room and buy a new car."

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM - July 15, 1969

It's County fair time with all its prize vegetables, fat steers, beautiful flowers, the big top, the Gay Way, the stage with its dancers, bands and magician, and the horse races filled with excitement down the stretch. But we should pause to take note that we have our own magician - he is program chairman, Bill Kassin. He promises to be there Tuesday with his own version of the rabbit and hat act since his own scheduled programs have been disappearing like magic.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM - July 22, 1969

The program is being arranged by Jack Mounts who is getting his schedule in ahead of his prune harvest.

Along the K T R A I L: What better excuse to be out on the greens these warmer summer days than to say you're practicing for the big KI-WANIS Hole-in-One contest scheduled for July 25th 26th and 27? When not practising, be sure and sell those tickets. Each Kiwanian is responsible for five tickets but it is hoped each member will sell many more than five. Jim Silveira has set the steak feed for the winners of the pancake ticket selling contest for Thursday, evening, July 25th at Tayman Park -- a splendid way to kick off the Hole-in-One contest. Mark it on your calendar. .

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM - July 22, 1969

Personnel from the Conservation Service will be here to present ideas on a cross section of conservation that would be suitable for use in teaching conservation in the schools. Jack Wood, area conservationist, and Sherman Finch, district conservationist, will be present to present the subject. Jack Mounts arranged the program and will be the Kiwanian-of-the-Day.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM - July 29, 1969

Dr. Don Oakleaf is arranging the program and has called upon the Adoptions Supervisor in the Department of Social Welfare for Sonoma County. The adoption service is new to Sonoma County.

Along the K T-R-A-I-L: Dr. Don is one of those on the traveling list this week. . . He is in attendance at the national Convention of the Men's Garden Clubs of America at Fort Collins. . . A Kiwanian was tabbed to receive the first "Man of the Year Award" in Cloverdale. Make sure you are free to attend the steak feed at Tayman Park this Thursday when the losers in the Pancake Breakfast ticket selling contest entertain the losers - with fun for all. We hope everyone is town has a pocket full of tickets for the Hole-in-One contest this week-end.

A M E R I C A N A

Remember when conviction was a virtue?
Or, for that matter, when virtue was a virtue?
Before it was fashionable to win a casual faith;
Before a sustained though was regarded as a stagnant redundancy;
Before a moral failure was couched in terms of freedom and maturity;
Before the world was decided by committee,
Canned and labeled and force-fed to millions.

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM - July 29, 1969

A very special program has been arranged for Tuesday using the topic, "California Adoption Service - A new Venture in Sonoma County." The speaker will be Mrs. Ailene F. Meyer, adoptions supervisor for our County. According to an earlier news release from the Human Relations Agency, State Department of Social Welfare, in Sacramento, the purpose of the adoption service is to provide full adoption service for natural parents, children and adoptive parents. The adoption agency was set up under a 1968 bill and Sonoma County is the first county in the state, without their own adoption agency, to have the agency staffed by State Department of Social Welfare personnel. This program was arranged by Dr. Don Oakleaf, who is this week in Fort Collins, Colorado, attending the national convention of the Men's Garden Clubs of America as a delegate from the Cloverdale Men's Garden Club.

Along the K T R A I L: Ye olde editor spent the week chaperoning a Boy Scout Troop at Camp Navaro, so unless you want to be tied in knots or know how many strokes it takes to pass the swimming merit badge -news will be short At press time the Hole-in-One Contest was a lively one with all results to be announced on Tuesday by Chairman Jim.
