

"WE BUILD!"

THE BUILDER

August 2, 1954

PROGRAM THIS WEEK:

Program Chairman for the day, Bill Reynolds arranged for speaker Eugene L. Box from the firm of Paine, Webber & Jackson. Mr. Box has experienced 14 years in Investment Securities and will discuss and exemplify an increasing in popularity type of investment - stock options. In addition, Mr. Box will reflect on the yo-yo market we have seen the last few months. Could be a profitable time investment to attend this week.

PROGRAM LAST WEEK:

No meeting held. Board declared a Round Table due to Church use of hall.

TODAY:

Acknowledgement of receiving a congratulatory letter and Round Robin Interclub Award from the District. Another award patch for our banner.

Sign-ups for Fall Kiwanis Bowling Teams.

TOMORROW:

Kiwanis Bowling Teams Annual Hamburger B.B.Q., outing and organizational meeting.

Time: 6:00 PM Place: Waldo's Mill Creek Hideway

7188 Mill Creek (near Camp Rosenberg)

Pre-Monja (Chow to you Jack) Activities: Horseshoes, table tennis, just jawing, and creek swimming. Brew supplied or B.Y.O.B.

KIWANIS TATTLE TALES:

Four Kiwanians visited Marriott's "Great America" this week. President Roger ran into Jack Butler, Ken Hampton and Bob Durler teamed up for a trip. All been there same day - might have figured a way to have made it an interclub.

KIWANIS KWIZ:

- Who is Kiwanis International President?
- What is the name of our District Governor?
- What division is Healdsburg Kiwanis Club in?
- Name our present Lt. Governor.

STATS N' FACTS:

- * Nineteen members are Past Presidents.
- * Two are Past Lt. Governors.
- * We were number one!! Healdsburg Kiwanis Club received highest ranking score in Division for month of May.
- * Pres. Roger plans to attend the District Convention in Fresno this weekend.

KIWANIS CLUB

AUGUST 10, 1976

PROGRAM THIS WEEK: B. R. Van Cleave is program chairman today and will present his guest speaker.

President Christenson will call on Ed Langhart to explain the plans for the city museum and a check from the club project fund will be presented to the newly appointed museum trustees, Bernice Auradou, Alice Grove, and Darrell Barbieri.

PROGRAM LAST WEEK:

Program chairman Bob Durler slowed down long enough to present Sergeant Richard Astring- Healdsburg Police Department who was formerly an investigator with Sonoma County Social Service. Sgt. Astring cited the methods of Medi-Cal Fraud Investigation and some bizarre cases of miss use of Welfare Funds.

KIWANIS CONGRATULATIONS TO:

Gerry Miller for organizing a complete round robin of interclubs in Division 32. Through his efforts and support of members making the inter-clubs our club will receive an award that will be added to our Banner. Good Luck Ger.

Glenn Davis for organizing the Jr. Golf Clinic and Tournament. So much interest has been shown by the little guys a Jr. Golf League appears in the making. Kiwanis Kudos to Glenn.

WELCOME TO OUR NEWEST MEMBER:

Dallas Wright was presented and pinned by the membership development committée, Walt Wright and Glenn Davis.. Dallas is with Mid Towne Realty. Everybody meet Dallas this week

Two Wrights in the Club. Two Wrights make a left - UGH! Who said that. Sponsors Bob Young and Bill Kassin will be on the hook for coughing up any fines dolep out by the Prexy for 30 days. Dallas get in some trouble - make'em pay.

BOARD ACTIONS (8/3):

* Approved sponsoring 3 delegates, President, Vice-President and Vice-President-Elect to the Bicentennial District Convention, Fresno, August 26-28th.

* Granted $2500, 14 previous approved project expenditure, for fixtures and equipment for city museum as presented by Ed Langhart and Ken Gonsalves.

KIWANIS CLUB

August 17th

PROGRAM THIS WEEK:

Round Table! Regular meeting canceled, meeting room devoted to church use. Stop by and sign in for attendance credit between noon and 1 pm.

PROGRAM LAST WEEK:

Program Chairman B.K. Van Cleave presented Mrs. Debra Dow and Becky Cohn, members of the Sonoma County "Women Against Rape". Our guest speakers explained the purposes and goals of the organization and related some vivid descriptions of the victims experience through the entire ordeal from the procedures for case build-up through to the apprehension and trial. An interesting, unusual program. Credit must be given to our speakers and their organization for their courage and sincere efforts towards a unique cause.

ALSO LAST WEEK:

Ed Langhart told the club about the progress on our City Museum and introduced three of the Museum Trustees. President Roger presented a check, from the club's project fund for Museum equipment, to the Trustees with smiling Ed accepting on their behalf.

Club guests included Alfred Greco, Sr., a Healdsburg resident and Gene Cady all the way from Bethesda, Maryland. Gene plans to be a California Resident shortly - "So I can keep my eye on Jack Butler", he says. Would you say "the jig is up for Jack".

PAST KIWANIS EVENTS:

Thirty bowlers and wives socialized at the Crickle Wood Eatery last Wednesday eve...Virg Bottarini was honored and gift bestowed for highest game (262) and total pin count achieved at the State Bowling Tournament at San Diego in May....It was reported the Wright-Bottarini Doubles Team are still high in the State Tournament standings which could result in reaping $$$ in prize money....Strong support was evident for entering bowling teams in the Winter League.... Bowling Teams Chairman received accolades from the dinner attenders for the fine, fun filled, good food evening.

"WE BUILD!"

THE BUILDER

AUGUST 31, 1950

PROGRAM THIS WEEK

Approached program chairman Ray Stark regarding his program for today. "Program? Oh, Oh! Slipped my mind. I was supposed to have been given a pass because of _____ Oh well I'll come with something. I've got it! A Stark naked revue." Writers's comment, "If you can manage to produce this, Ray, you will pack the meeting room for sure."

PROGRAM LAST WEEK AND MEETING ACTIVITIES

Bill Reynolds in his program introduction spoke about trying to make a fast buck like many of us at the races, presented Eugene Box, who might not tell how to make a fast buck, but a way to lose it slower. The speaker well prepared and presented an excellent treatise on the new "in thing" and growing, in investments - stock options. Program received good rating on applause meter.

KIWANIS BIRTHDAY BOYS

Congratulations to: Nelson Alexander, Woody Frampton, Ernie Gondola. The birthday song was not too harmonious, but very loud.

KIWANIS GUESTS

Earl Osborn's brother-in-law--Ray Leeth
Hank Spomer - former Kiwanian
