KIWANIS CLUB

SEPT. 7, 1976

Ed Langhart our program chairman promises us an interesting program. Could be about his recent fishing trip, history, retirement, or whatever. Whatever it is, it will be good

Our program chairman for last Tuesdays meeting was ill (got finger stuck in bowling ball.) Fortunately Dr. Walter Eagan, County Supt. of Schools was at meeting for make up and when asked, provided us with an excellent and very interesting program on current items affecting schools. He was ably assisted by Larry Wells, newly appointed Ass't Supt. of Schools.

September Board Meeting will be held at Fran Branern's home, 317 Matheson St., time 7:30 P.M.

As the current Kiwanis year is approaching its end, your bulletin chairman wishes to say thanks to those who assisted him with this function. Ed Matteoli showed marked improvement in his spelling, only 5 errors in his last bulletin. Thanks fellows, it was appreciated.

PROGRAM THIS WEEK

Walter Wright in his usual fine style, has arranged to have John Gallagher for today's program. For those who don't know, John is candidate for Superior Court, County of Sonoma.

PROGRAM LAST WEEK AND MEETING ACTIVITIES

Our program for last Tuesday featuring Obed Kramer, U.S. Corps of Engineers, Warms Springs Dam was not only interesting but gave us a good up-date on present status of Lake Sonoma. Thanks Ed for a great program.

Also at our last meeting, members of our Junior Bowlers, were presented their award jackets. Also present was Ginger Cook, coach of these same bowlers. I agree, she should have been presented with a jacket.

BIRTHDAYS

September, Sid Grove, George Coppinger. Sid looks great, but George is aging.

REMEMBER-REMEMBER

October 5, 1976, Ken Hampton will be installed as our new president. Save this date, and let's have a 100% attendance.

Lt. Governor-District 32-Installation, September 18, 1976, Broiler Steak House, 2 miles N/W junction of Hwy. 101 1/2 Hwy. 128. No Host Cocktails, 6:00 P.M.

We understand that Jack "Col." Butler will tell us about the recent award to his son of the Distinguished Flying Cross at our next meeting, September 14th. As is to be expected father is quite proud.

It was with sadness that we learned of the death of Max Scott, past Lt. Governor of our district. Those who knew Max will long remember him for his dedication to Kiwanis and for the great person he was.

QUESTIONS ??

1. What event takes place October 3-5-76?
2. What event takes place November 19-25-76?
3. What event takes place May 1-7-77?

Answers can be found in Kiwanis Magazine, September 1976.

Program This Week

Bob Malone will present as his program, Dick Bacon, Deputy Superintendent Sonoma County Schools Office. His topic will be Collective Bargaining, a truly interesting subject. Dick is one of the foremost experts in this field.

Program Last Week and Other Activities:

Al Rizzo presented Julie Richardson and Gus Pina, Co-Persons for Healdsburgs 1976 United Way Drive. An excellent program pointing functions of United Way and particularly as they pertain to Healdsburg, Geyserville, and Windsor. Lets all get behind this!

It was good to have members of Rotary with us and they added a lot to make the meeting a success.

It was good to see John Short, Ed Deas, Kenny Hampton, and Dick Holtzen back. John Short said he only missed 5 meetings as he went to a Round Table, but arrived late, on a Sunday.

Birthdays;

1 more birthday for September----Burnett Bidwell

Up-Coming Programs:

October 5th-Ken Hamptons big day, His Installation. Lets make it a 100% turnout!

October 12th-Sid Grove--Congressman Don Clausen

October 19th-Ken Hampton will give us a overlook of projected activities for 1976-1977.
