FELLOW KIWANIAN: The smoke of the Primaries has vanished.

 The stimulating political cigar is all puffed out, and we assemble to day in fairly normal mood. What Wallace Ware will say to day we have no idee; nor does the man who brings him here, our Chairman Bob Burlan, What may be safely announced, however, is that the silver-tongued Ware is on the card, and we may look for a smoothe and sonorous and scintilating speech.

CLARENCE LEA, AGAIN: While his vote was piling mountain high, statesman Lea was with us, finishing his political history "From Washington to Hoover". This (in parenthesis) was Tuesday last. You will agree that Mr. Lea was one of our outstanding speakers of the season. Next to Healdsburg, Santa Rosa can surely boast of some wonderful fascinating speechmakers.

BRIEF LETTER, THIS: We are "campaigning" just now in the shade of the sheltering prune trees.

But more often in the withering heat of the sun. Your scribe is just plain "busy". So at this juncture adjournment is taken to a less strenuous time.

9 - 10 - 30

FELLOW KIWANIAN: Beware. To day is WEDNESDAY. Admission
----- Day is to admit that Kiwanis is one day late. Even with this reminder the absent-minded guy and the fellow with the usual Tuesday appetite will probably report on the holiday. Last call, SEPTEMBER 10TH.

CAMPAIGNING: This theme by Wallace Ware commanded the ----- close attention of all. That politicians sometimes speak the truth was made perfectly clear ; also,
that through the eloquence of temperate campaigners a "wet"
candidate can win.

UP IN THE AIR: While the Chairmen have been duly selec----- ted for several weeks in advance, the man to preside to day will be announced by President Jim. Fred Kinley's report ont the recent Trustees Convention will in all probability be presented at this meeting. In other words, the "Doc" will be the Speaker of the Day.

COMING UP: As "entrees" Eddie Byrne and Floyd Darby are due
----- to tell how the twain put on a program at Santa Rosa on Thursday last. And of course we expect the usual barbs and slants and spontaneous spoutings from our rabble bunch.
Harmonious conversation will, as usual, accompany the singing, and Big Bill Rumbold is scheduled to give another demonstration of his cleverness with the knife and fork.

9 - 16 - 30

FELLOW KIWANIAN: Fred Cairns has another speech up his sleeve for us to day. As for the subject, leave it to his Emerald self. Frank Sohler will wield the gavel, - after the "Doc" gets a hot hand from the boys.

ECHOES FROM HERMOSA BEACH: Fred Kinley's report was comprehensive and mighty fine. The "Doc" does not do things by the halves. One of our very best Convention reports. That letter from "Steve" spiced the talk and carried sound suggestions.

CLUB ACCOMPLISHMENTS: What have we done in 1930?
Figuratively speaking let us digest the following:

200 pounds turkey for Lytton Orphanage.

Encouraged local broom manufacturer with loan of $325.00, the same refunded on basis of 10% on invoice sale of goods.

Cooperation with Am. Legion and City Council on construction of recreation grounds.

Cooperation with Red Cross and City Marshall in the interest of destitute people.

Put on fine exhibit at Cloverdale Citrus Fair.

Participated in good exhibit at Sebastopol Apple Show.

Refunded ten members $10.00 each on purchase of piano.

Sponsored beautifying Healdsburg homes by encouraging the planting of flowers, shrubs, lawns etc.

Gave successful charity show.

Appropriated $250.00 to Boy Scouts organization for camp purposes.

Created a Revolving Fund for needy people.

Collected all membership dues.

Paid our bills.

Continuance of harmony and goodfellowship.

9 - 23 - 30

FELLOW KIWANIAN: Every good ball club has a few pinch hitters. Our Kiwanis Club should have them too. Last week Fred Cairns filled in to good account. Your scribe suggests that we "sign up" two or three of our own vocal swatters just as emergency men who can step in and fill up a gap.

ANNOUNCEMENT FOR TO DAY: Handed to the Secretary, as follows:

Meeting ----- September 23d, 1930
Subject --- Probation Work In Sonoma County
Speaker of the Day ----- Mrs. F. E. Sohler

Speaker is a member of the Sonoma County Probation Committee, and its work has been accepted as a model for California, and has even received national recognition. Something we know exists, but just what this organization is doing, and how, we as a club might assist.

Signed: Elmer Sanborn, Chairman of the Day,

JUST POSSIBLE: Perhaps a few of the wayward youths, and some not so young, need to be placed on the Probation list. We mention no names. After hearing Mrs. Sohler's talk it is just possible that a few of our Roughnecks may be scared into slightly better behavior. Not too good, however, for we need persistent perpetual pep -- in properly prescribed proportions.

9 - 30 - 30

FELLOW KIWANIAN: Chairman Elmer and Pres. Jim put on a good
----- meeting last week, though hampered, handicapped, HANDCUFFED. Only the intercession of a woman procured a parole for these boys whose only crime was their refusal to sing the Prison Song. Mrs. Sohler's talk on Probation was very well received by all. A few of our club mischief-makers, no doubt, were made to realize that the Probation authorities often have to do with adults, not alone juveniles.

SCHOOL DAYS: Readin 'n Ritin 'n Rithmatic will be well rep----- resented at our luncheon hour on Tuesday. For on this day come the educators from our public schools, both Elementary and High. Here come, too, the Board of Trustees from each institution, - all as our guests, to break bread in happy communion. It will be a big day, and none the less so, because of the fact that our Chairman is the one and only Al Garrett. Better behave, boys, or out the window you may go. You know Al.

TIME FOR ACTION: On to Napa Thursday next. Who's who in ----- this caravan? This occasion is for a whole flock of members. Not officers alone.

A few weeks hence the District Convention at Oakland assembles. Time to select delegates and alternates.

Election of Officers for the coming year. Committee on Nominations to be named. Let's go.

Better not bring guests to day. 'Twill be a Full House.

P.S. Nearly omitted to state that the Speaker Secretary.
to day will be Mr. L. H. Golton, himself foremost educator and Kiwanian from the Mission
town of Sonoma, E. Q.
